"Dear children! I am listening to your cry and prayers for peace. For years, Satan has been fighting for war. That is why God sent me among you to guide you on the way of holiness, because humanity is at a crossroad. I am calling you to return to God and to God's Commandments that it may be good for you on earth, and that you may come out of this crisis into which you have entered because you are not listening to God who loves you and desires to save you and lead you to a new life. Thank you for having responded to my call."

THE POWER OF PRAYER

Mary says, "I am listening to your cry and prayers for peace." Mary shows what our enemy has been fighting. A great war. That is why Mary has been sent by God to be among us, to guide us on the way of holiness, because humanity is at a crossroad. In the act of consecration to the immaculate heart of Mary, Pope Francis has shared all the ways that Mary fulfills her role to guide, to love and lead us to total consecration to her Immaculate Heart. Mary guides us to Jesus and never ceases to remind us of God's mercy and forgiveness. Mary shows us God never abandoned us in our weakness or in time of need.

In the letter of consecration, we reflect the many ways we abandon God and our neighbor and loved ones. In every age, Mary, you have been there to turn our heart to God and neighbor. So you see how we have forgotten our humanity and misused the gifts of peace. We are lost; blind to hope and joy. Yes, Mother, let us listen to your words, "Do whatever he tells you." Poor the wine of peace and joy in forgiveness and reconciliation. Mary leads us back to Jesus in the church and sacraments. Mary leads us to victory shores to end this war.

Mother Mary is speaking to us in a major way in which the Christian life is witness of God's communication. Now she says, "I'm looking at you and you are lost."

Mary tells us and we also know the life of grace is something we struggle with. Mary knows because she communicated that she would play a major role in helping mankind in our salvation. She knows if it weren't for grace and help it gives us, we would be lost and now she is calling us for more Christian action. At first she says that is why I'm calling you to return to God and return to prayer because God's communication comes first.

God communicated to us first in the Old Testament. It was his communication that returned us to prayer which was us communicating with him. So you see, God's communication with us first resulted in us communicating with him secondly. Then the third action is of the Holy Spirit that fills us with his love and returns joy to our heart. So we see God speaking to us and our returning to prayer and through the action of the Holy Spirit, God fills us with joy so that we can live in hope.

So we can become joyful witnesses of God's mercy in our lives and share God's mercy all around us. To speak of each of these actions would take a whole book. It would include all the commandments which is God's communication to us, all the Christian virtues, and how to live these out.

So brothers and sisters, let us listen to Mary and return joyfully to prayer where God started through communication with us and we with him.

With Mary's Love. Father AL

For Non-believers: Jesus is the Light of the world and in Him is peace and hope.

"Dear children, with a motherly love I am calling you to - full of strength, faith and trust - look towards my Son. Keep opening your hearts to Him and do not be afraid, because my Son is the Light of the world and in Him is peace and hope. That is why, anew, anew I am calling you to pray for those of my children who have not come to know the love of my Son. So that my Son, with His light of love and hope, may illuminate also their hearts; and you, my children, that He may strengthen and give you peace and hope. I am with you. Thank you."

God will not abandon the Faithful

Thus, while the world faces a fearsome and terrible destruction in light of mankind's insolence and impiety, God assures us that He will not abandon those who are faithful to Him.

Our Lady gave us the remedy at Fatima by asking for:

- the daily recitation of the Rosary;
- the establishment of the First Five Saturday devotions;
- devotion to Her Immaculate Heart; - a prayerful life;
- penance and amendment of life.

These requests remain ever relevant and urgent. And we must continue to heed Her maternal warnings. Amid the confusion of our days, let us remain steadfast and continue to hope, confide and turn to Our Lady, who is our Mother of Good Counsel and our Confidence.

"Finally, My Immaculate Heart will triumph!"

"For I know their works and their thoughts. It shall be that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come and see My glory."

Isaiah 66:18

A word from FATHER PAUL BERGERON

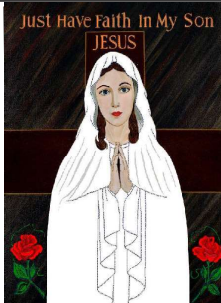

The world is in a crazy place. There is a war and perhaps more to come. The weather has spurned more tornadoes and hurricanes. Our government is full of corruption with gas prices and food prices on the rise. We can go on and on but this should not surprise us. If you read the Bible it's all in there. Jesus speaks of a time such as this. What is the solution? The only answer to these problems is to turn back to God in all things. We need to stop putting Him on the back burner and make Him first in our lives. In order to do this we have and must do a lot of Spiritual cleaning in our lives. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is a good place to start. First, we must have a contrite heart for all we have done wrong, then we ask for forgiveness and remember that just as God forgives us, we must forgive ourselves as well. We should have exercised this Sacrament during Lent but many of us did not take advantage of the opportunity to do so. This is a very important part of Lent and is the icing on the cake to ready ourselves to truly celebrate Easter in a good way. Just as we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus, so too through Reconciliation, we celebrate our Resurrection from sin. If the world returns to Almighty God then there is hope and if it doesn't then we can only blame ourselves. God bless you all-Fr. Paul.

We at Mary's Helpers want to take this time to THANK YOU our loyal supporters for helping us continue this ministry. We couldn't do it without YOU! MARY QUEEN OF PEACE, PRAY FOR US!

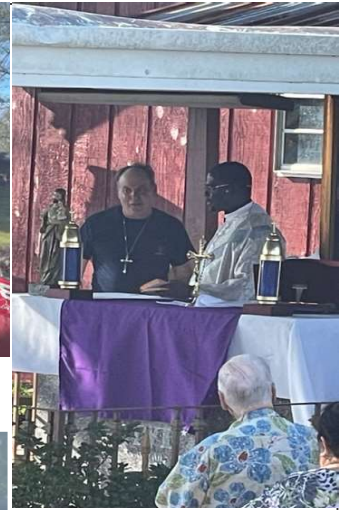

It was a Miraculous Day March 17, 2022 in Houma, LA.

The weather was beautiful. Everyone was gathering around the site where Mary appeared to Louis Saia over 25 years ago. Bobby Harvey told stories of healings that occurred here. One being his mother's healing of cancer. The previous year (the 25th anniversary), the weather was equal to a small hurricane with winds around 30-40 mph. But no rain fell on this holy site (as many have witnessed before). But this year, the anniversary was extra special. Louis was here along with Father Paul. Fr Anthony Odiong, a very special healing priest from Luling, LA., celebrated the mass, then followed with a special healing service. Louis was late getting there but it seemed that this is exactly what Mary wanted. It gave both celebrant priests more time to give the sacrament of reconciliation to the crowds. Just when they were done, Louis arrived with his famous corn beef and cabbage that many have come to be associated with his anniversary celebrations. The mass proceeded and everyone had their ears glued to the homily which brought Louis to tell his story of how Mary appeared to him and how she stopped him from taking a life and changed him forever. How she touched him. How he saw every lash of her eyes. How she only spoke these words "Have Faith in My Son, Jesus". Father Anthony preached about how we need to come to Mary and pray for her to touch our lives the same way she touched Louis' life. Mary is the answer to our troubles. We need to follow Mary and she will lead us to Christ. Father Anthony said our world will be shaken and our faith will be shaken but if we believe in Christ, we have nothing to worry about.

It was a very special day indeed. The Holy Spirit truly was present. Many witnessed the Miracle of the Sun after mass (first seen by Louis). Beams of light shined on us. What a Miraculous Day it was. I wish everyone could have experienced it. We do have CD recordings of the day including the homily, if anyone, would like a copy. I promise you that you won't be sorry that you took the time to listen to it.

26th Anniversary Mass at the Shrine of Our Lady of Compassionate Protection March 17, 2022

Thank You Louis for taking time out of your busy schedule to be with us on this very special anniversary celebration. Louis now resides in Tennessee where he has a very successful seafood business. It's been 26 Years since Mary appeared to him. Oh how she has changed his life. It is always special when Louis comes back to Houma.

Let's not forget our beloved Father Paul who always celebrates the mass for us on the 17th of every month. He is our rock that holds us together.

The Miracle of the Sun

Many of us saw the Miracle of the Sun. I was personally excited to see such a phenomena. I have never seen this in my entire life. The sun was pulsating and you could actually look at it. Some here told me that they only saw this once on a pilgrimage to Medjugorje. Louis said he has seen it before here at this very holy site. Oh what a very special time we had. Our Mother Mary, her most chase spouse Joseph and of course Jesus were all there. Confirming this, someone told me during the mass there was a smell of roses too..

MAY MONTH OF OUR LADY

In addition to the myriad feast days honoring Our Lady under her many titles and virtues, the entire month of May is especially given to her praise. In the words of Pope Paul VI, May is "a month which the piety of the faithful has long dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God... For this is the month during which Christians, in their churches and their homes, offer the Virgin Mother more fervent and loving acts of homage and veneration; and it is the month in which a greater abundance of God's merciful gifts comes down to us from our Mother's throne."

MAY 13: OUR LADY OF FATIMA

"God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If people do what I tell you, many souls will be saved and there will be peace."

CHARLENE MARIE RICHARD

1947 - 1959

Charlene was born January 13, 1947. After being diagnosed with acute lymphatic leukemia, she died on August 11, 1959, at the age of 12. During her confinement in Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Lafayette, LA, Charlene would offer her prayers and suffering to God each day for the benefit of others.

"She was a faith-filled little girl", said Fr Joseph Brennan, a priest for the Diocese of Lafayette, LA, who was serving as hospital chaplain and ministered to Charlene during her final days.

"I see Charlene as a witness for people of all ages to the power of resignation and acceptance of God's will", said Fr Brennan. "She wasn't different in any way except that when the crisis came in her life - and it came very early - she accepted it with faith and trust and love."

* Mary's Helpers has Charlene Richard prayer cloths in our Marrero gift shop. ****

Even if you know where you are going, it's easy to miss the tiny community of Richard, nestled between Church Point and Eunice among the back roads of south Louisiana.

On this particular morning, the unbearable July heat has not yet settled into the day. John Dale Richard is visiting his sister's grave site, where he prays silently as the 55th anniversary of her death approaches.

"Patience," Richard says. "Patience: That's what I've learned from her is to be patient and to trust."

Richard is not the only one who's learned that lesson from his sister. Thousands of people from across the world travel to the community of Richard each year to visit her grave site and implore her to intercede for them to God.

Some have reported miracles and answered prayers through Charlene. Others say they have felt a deep sense of peace in her presence.

Although the Catholic Church does not yet recognize Richard's sister as a saint, there's no denying that Charlene Richard, who offered up her pain and suffering for others during her final days, is the "little Cajun saint" so many have come to adore. Richard, 69, calls his sister the "most extraordinary ordinary person" he's ever known.

He remembers her earning an award for scoring higher than her peers in math. He remembers Charlene being called the Charlie Brown of the basketball team she captained. He remembers her listening to Elvis on that little record player their mama bought for Charlene's 11th birthday.

Richard remembers her keeping fresh flowers in her bedroom altar and praying not constantly, but consistently.

"She didn't see herself as a very dynamic or intelligent person," Richard said. "But she knew she could offer up to the Lord everything she did every day if she did it to the best of her ability. And I think that's shown in her spirit."

Healthy, and then not

Richard was the oldest of the 10 siblings, and Charlene was second-oldest, two years and four months younger than him. Richard was 14 when he said goodbye to his 12-year-old sister at Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Lafayette.

It happened quickly.

One day, his sister was upbeat and full of life. The next, she was weak and bruising easily.

Your stories live here.

Fuel your hometown passion and plug into the stories that define it.

The family traveled to doctors in Crowley and Church Point. She needed to be seen immediately by a specialist in Lafayette. The Lafayette doctor drove the girl to Lourdes, where a doctor there told the family that Charlene had leukemia and would not recover.

That's when the family asked the hospital's chaplain, the Rev. Joseph F. Brennan, to share the news with Charlene. Brennan, who had only been an ordained priest for three months, didn't know what words to use or how to speak to the girl about a topic so serious.

Before Brennan said a word, Charlene introduced herself to him. When he told the girl that she was sick and that a beautiful lady would visit her and take her home soon, Charlene said she already knew.

"And she said to me, 'When that lady comes, I'll tell her Father Brennan said hello,'" he said, remembering the conversation. "That wiped me out."

Charlene died 13 days later in the hospital, but not before asking Brennan for whom she could offer her pain and suffering up in prayer.

Charlene's story spreads

Brennan, now 83, did not expect others to believe the story of what happened in room 411 of Lourdes Hospital. He did not expect the idea of Charlene's holiness to extend much further than himself.

Brennan shared Charlene's story of bravery and sacrifice with her family and his friend, the Rev. Floyd Calais, who began praying to God through Charlene that he would be assigned to a parish.

That same year Calais became the priest of St. Edward Catholic Church, located beside the cemetery where Charlene is buried.

Calais began raising money to build a new church, using Charlene's story to encourage donations. In less than three years, enough money had been raised and people began visiting Charlene's grave regularly.

In the 1970s, cards with Charlene's photo, a prayer dedicated to her and a prayer for her canonization became commonplace. A series of articles about Charlene ran in the Diocese of Lafayette's newspaper in 1975, and the articles were republished into a booklet called "Charlene, a Saint from Southwest Louisiana" in 1979. The book was republished in 1988 with testimonials from those who said Charlene had helped them.

The 1988 reprint spread Charlene's story outside of Acadiana, and hundreds of people began visiting Charlene's grave each week. An anniversary Mass held in 1989 drew 4,000 people and was reported in news outlets across the country. Media coverage helped spread Charlene's story on a global scale.

Today, a school associated with a Thailand orphanage bears Charlene's name, and a Colombia hospice center under construction will soon bear her name.

"Acadiana has produced so many great things," Brennan said. "And wouldn't it be nice if we could produce a saint? South Louisiana has already canonized her as the little Cajun saint, but it would be so neat if she could be recognized as an official saint of the Catholic Church?"

A saint, but not officially

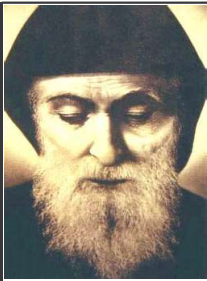

More than 10,000 people visit Charlene's grave site each year. Dozens of miracles have been documented. She is recognized as a saint by local parishioners and priests but not by the Diocese of Lafayette.

The Catholic Church has a lengthy and complicated process for recognizing a person who lived and died in such a holy manner that he or she could qualify for sainthood.

"She hasn't been canonized or beatified," Richard said. "She has in my heart, but she hasn't been by the church yet."

PRAYERS NEEDED!

PLEASE PRAY FOR LITTLE JOSIAH WHO IS 12 YEARS OLD AND WAS DIAGNOSED WITH OSTEOSARCOMA LAST APRIL. He has faced many challenges thus far and has many more ahead of him. Please pray that God will heal him!

At the Cross her station keeping,
Stood the mournful Mother weeping,
Close to Jesus to the last.

Through her heart.
His sorrow sharing.
All His bitter anguish bearing.
Lo! The piercing sword had passed.

O how sad and sore distressed
Was that Mother, highly blessed,
Of the sole-begotten One.

Jesus, may Thy Cross defend me,
And Thy Mother's prayer befriend me,

Grant a soul that to Thee yearneth,

The Stabat Mater is a 13th-century Christian hymn to Mary, which portrays her suffering as Jesus Christ's mother during his crucifixion. Its author may be either the Franciscan friar Jacopone da Todi or Pope Innocent III. [1][2][3] The title comes from its first line, Stabat Mater dolorosa, which means "the sorrowful mother was standing"

MARY'S HELPERS HAS BLESSED ST SHARBEL OIL, ST SHARBEL NOVENA BOOKS, PRAY CARDS & STATUES.

The oil from Saint Sharbel is not only blessed. A procedure is followed to pass the oil on a piece of Saint Sharbel's bone.

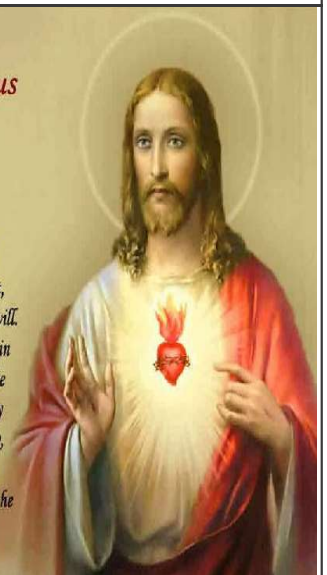

This is a very old traditional procedure followed since the 4th century with holy oil passed on the bones of martyrs. The oil is distributed to people in need or who ask. Understand that Saint Sharbel's miracles happen only through Jesus' miraculous work. Please handle the oils with reverence and prayer.

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

*Oh most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing,
I adore You, I love You,
and with a lively sorrow for my sins, I offer You this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure, and wholly obedient to Your will.
Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in You and for You. Protect me in the midst of danger; comfort me in my afflictions; give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs,
Your blessing in all that I do, and the grace of a holy death.*

-Amen

My Queen My Mother

Ultimo Mensaje, 25 de marzo de 2022

“¡Queridos hijos! Escucho su clamor y sus oraciones por la paz. Durante años, Satanás ha estado luchando en favor de la guerra. Por eso Dios me ha enviado entre ustedes: para conducirlos por el camino de la santidad, porque la humanidad se encuentra en una encrucijada. Los invito a regresar a Dios y a sus Mandamientos, para que estén bien en la tierra y para que salgan de esta crisis en la que han entrado por no escuchar a Dios que los ama y quiere salvarlos, y llevarlos a una vida nueva. Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado.”

Ultimo Mensaje, 25 de abril de 2022

“¡Queridos hijos! “Los miro y veo que están perdidos. Por eso los invito a todos: regresen a Dios, regresen a la oración y el Espíritu Santo los colmará de Su amor que da alegría al corazón. La esperanza crecerá en ustedes y en un futuro mejor, y se convertirán en testigos gozosos de la misericordia de Dios en ustedes y a su alrededor. Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado.”
