MEDJUGORJE March 25, 2020

"Dear children! I am with you all these years to lead you to the way of salvation.

Return to my Son; return to prayer and fasting.

Little children, permit for God to speak to your heart, because Satan is reigning and wants to destroy your lives and the earth on which you walk. Be courageous and decide for holiness. You will see conversion in your hearts and families; prayer will be heard; God will hear your cries and give you peace. I am with you and am blessing you all with my motherly blessing.

Thank you for having responded to my call. "

MEDJUGORJE April 25, 2020

"Dear children! May this time be an incentive for personal conversion for you. Pray, little children, in solitude, to the Holy Spirit to strengthen you in faith and trust in God, that you may be worthy witnesses of the love which God bestows upon you through my presence. Little children, do not permit trials to harden your heart and for prayer to be like a desert. Be a reflection of God's love and witness the Risen Jesus by your lives. I am with you and I love all of you with my motherly love.

Thank you for having responded to my call. "

MARCH 25, 2020 Message
by Fr. Al Bermudez, OSSM

"Mary's leads us to salvation"

The announcement of the angel to our Blessed Mother was the choice by God asking Mary to be the Immaculate Conception and Mother of the faithful. Jesus further calls, Mary His Mother, from the cross to take care of John, the family and the church. (John's Gospel, Chapter 19;26)

Mother Mary explains that we can make a return to the Lord through prayer and fasting; the discipline of Lent when we are given the call to grow in faithfulness as the Lord's Children.

Through Mary's intercession we will receive graces and the strength in our battle against satan. God gives us the weapons of His word for service and sacrifice. And even more by calling us more to charity, we can be victorious in peace. Our holiness is measured in forgiveness and service. These are the sources that will strengthen our conversion to be faithful disciples.

Mary calls us to open our hearts and hear the call to be a community that brings God's message of peace. Let us listen to Mary and encounter Her Son, Jesus for perfect Happiness and Peace.

Amen and God Bless
Love, Father Al

APRIL 25, 2020 Message
by Fr. Al Bermudez, OSSM

"Pray From the Heart to Conversion"

Mary comes to us in this time as Easter brings us a new life of conversion. We pray in solitude and also as a community for the coming of the Holy Spirit, like the church and Mary at Pentacost, as they awaited for the coming of the Holy Spirit. We all pray to be worthy witnesses of love that God has bestowed on us through Mary.

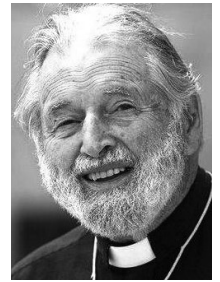

This witness of faith involves care for our brothers & sisters, especially during this time of the Corona Virus. We walk in love with confident patience and justice. We will overcome all the trials with loving care, and with confident hearts, willing to walk in the desert and unite with our Brothers and Sister in prayer.

We will witness further what Mary calls us to; to be in Love with Jesus and others. Let us transform our lives, the new life as we live with Jesus & Mary's Love.

The Corona Virus Pandemic is a time that gives us opportunity to exercise the graces Mary has bestowed upon us.

Amen and God Bless
Love Fr Al

March 2, 2020 - Message to Mirjana D. Soldo

For Non-believers: those who have not come to know the Lord

Dear children, Your pure and sincere love draws my motherly heart. Your faith and trust in the Heavenly Father are fragrant roses which you offer to me—the most beautiful bouquets of roses which consist of your prayers, acts of mercy and of love. Apostles of my love, you who sincerely and with a pure heart strive to follow my Son, you who sincerely love Him, you help; you be an example to those who have not yet come to know the love of my Son—but, my children, not only with words but also with acts and pure feelings through which you glorify the Heavenly Father. Apostles of my love, it is a time of vigilance, and of you I am asking for love, that you not judge—anyone. Because the Heavenly Father will judge everyone. I am asking that you love, that you convey the truth; because truth is old, it is not new, it is eternal, it is truth. It testifies to God's eternity. Bring the light of my Son and keep breaking the darkness which all the more wants to seize you. Do not be afraid. Through the grace and the love of my Son, I am with you. Thank you.

April 2, 2020 - Message to Mirjana D. Soldo discontinues - Our heart is heavy

On March 18, 2020, a significant turning point occurred for the whole of Medjugorje, the world, and many believers who make pilgrimages to the Blue Cross at the foot of Apparition Hill every 2nd day of every month.

Namely, Medjugorje-Info reports that the Mirjana Dragicevic Soldo will no longer have public apparitions or receive the messages that Our Lady has given since August 2, 1987, until now.

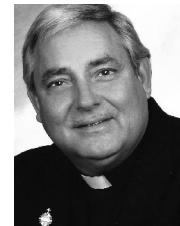

Recall that Mirjana had daily apparitions from June 24, 1981, to December 25, 1982. That Christmas, Our Lady announced to Mirjana that she would no longer have regular (daily) meetings with Our Lady, but left her a gift, that is, she could see her for her birthday as long as she was alive. Thus, on Wednesday, at 13.41, at her family home, surrounded by her family members, Mirjana found out that there would be no more apparitions every 2nd day of every month, as Our Lady gave her the message conveyed below:

"Dear children, my Son as God has always looked above time. I, like his mother, see him in time. I see beautiful and sad things. But I see that there is still love and that she needs to make it known. My children, you cannot be happy if you do not love one another, if you do not have love in every situation and every moment of your life.

I, as a mother, come to you for love. To help you to know true love, to know my Son. That is why I urge you to thirst for love, faith, and hope again and again. The only source you can drink from is trust in God, my Son. My children, in times of turmoil and renunciation, you only seek the face of my Son. You only live His words and do not fear. Pray and love with honest feelings, good deeds, and help the world change and my heart wins. Like my Son, I tell you to love one another because without love, there is no salvation.

Thank you, my children!

From The Desk of Margaret Trosclair by Father Paul Bergeron

A Time Unlike Any Other Time

It is often said that absence makes the heart grow fonder. Well I am sure that this certainly applies to our current situation with the virus. So many have died—God rest them and so many have come very close to death. Is this a warning from God do you suppose? Are we now in the end time? It is and has become a time unlike any other time we have known. Our hearts are swollen for the reception of Our Dear Lord in The Eucharist which so many of the Faithful are now deprived of. One great saying was “You really don’t miss it until it’s gone”. But my friends let us all remember how truly special The Living Lord is for us in The Holy Eucharist, that even spiritual reception of Him does not diminish His power. If we truly believe that The Lord is Our Shepherd and we shall not want then what are we really seeking? We have Him—He is ours, whether He comes to us through television or whatever means necessary—He is ours. So my brothers and sisters, let us be mindful of what He Himself told us “ Do not let your hearts be troubled. Have faith in God and have faith in me. “ Now is this time for our faith to muster, now is the time to put all our trust in Him—The Divine Merciful Lord, that a day will come when all this too shall pass! Did we need a time and situation like this, sad to say, to help us realize these things? Only you can answer that for yourselves as for me, I want to dwell on the Blessings The Lord has given me in my life—a survivor of fourth stage Lung Cancer and open heart surgery after many heart attacks. As I told my nephew so I tell you. The Lord has given me extra time and I am grateful for it. If he called me today or this very night I will still say “thank you”. Are we ready to meet Him? I don’t know but I hope we are ready when He comes to find us prepared and waiting.

God Bless You All

Latest Medjugorje Message, March 18, 2020 The annual apparition of Our Lady to Mirjana Dragicevic-Soldo

The visionary Mirjana Dragicevic-Soldo had daily apparitions from June 24th 1981 to December 25th 1982. During the last daily apparition, Our Lady gave her the 10th secret, and told her that she would appear to her once a year, on the 18th of March. It has been this way through the years. The apparition lasted from 13:41 to 13:47.

“Dear children, My Son, as God, always looked above time. I, as His mother, through Him, see in time. I see beautiful and sad things. But I see that there is still love, and that it needs doing for it to be known. My children, you cannot be happy if you do not love each other, if you do not have love in every situation and at every moment of your life. Also, I, as a mother, am coming to you through love—to help you to come to know true love, to come to know my Son. This is why I am calling you, always anew to thirst all the more for love, faith, and hope. The only spring from which you can drink is trust in God, my Son. My children, in moments of peacelessness and renunciation you just seek the face of my Son. You just live His words and do not be afraid. Pray and love with sincere feelings, with good works; and help so that the world may change and that my heart may win. Like my Son, I am also saying to you: love each other because without love there is no salvation. Thank you my children.”

Don't forget us...

We want to thank all of those who have already answered our plea by sending us donations. We really still need your financial help. Please keep us between the light bill and the gas bill. If anyone has any idea to help us raise funds to keep this ministry going, please jot it down and send it in or email us at MarysHelpersi97@bellsouth.net. Also if you have a story or testament that you would like us to share in our newsletter, send it to us. May God Bless You and keep you safe!

CHAPTER THREE THE PROCLAMATION OF THE GOSPEL

172. One who accompanies others has to realize that each person's situation before God and their life in grace are mysteries which no one can fully know from without. The Gospel tells us to correct others and to help them to grow on the basis of a recognition of the objective evil of their actions (cf. Mt 18:15), but without making judgments about their responsibility and culpability (cf. Mt 7:1; Lk 6:37). Someone good at such accompaniment does not give in to frustrations or fears. He or she invites others to let themselves be healed, to take up their mat, embrace the cross, leave all behind and go forth ever anew to proclaim the Gospel. Our personal experience of being accompanied and assisted, and of openness to those who accompany us, will teach us to be patient and compassionate with others, and to find the right way to gain their trust, their openness and their readiness to grow.

173. Genuine spiritual accompaniment always begins and flourishes in the context of service to the mission of evangelization. Paul's relationship with Timothy and Titus provides an example of this accompaniment and formation which takes place in the midst of apostolic activity. Entrusting them with the mission of remaining in each city to "put in order what remains to be done" (Tit 1:5; cf. 1 Tim 1:3-5), Paul also gives them rules for their personal lives and their pastoral activity. This is clearly distinct from every kind of intrusive accompaniment or isolated self-realization. Missionary disciples accompany missionary disciples.

Centred on the word of God

174. Not only the homily has to be nourished by the word of God. All evangelization is based on that word, listened to, meditated upon, lived, celebrated and witnessed to. The sacred Scriptures are the very source of evangelization. Consequently, we need to be constantly trained in hearing the word. The Church does not evangelize unless she constantly lets herself be evangelized. It is indispensable that the word of God "be ever more fully at the heart of every ecclesial activity" [135] God's word, listened to and celebrated, above all in the Eucharist, nourishes and inwardly strengthens Christians, enabling them to offer an authentic witness to the Gospel in daily life. We have long since moved beyond that old contraposition between word and sacrament. The preaching of the word, living and effective, prepares for the reception of the sacrament, and in the sacrament that word attains its maximum efficacy.

175. The study of the sacred Scriptures must be a door opened to every believer. [136] It is essential that the revealed word radically enrich our catechesis and all our efforts to pass on the faith. [137] Evangelization demands familiarity with God's word, which calls for dioceses, parishes and Catholic associations to provide for a serious, ongoing study of the Bible, while encouraging its prayerful individual and communal reading. [138] We do not blindly seek God, or wait for him to speak to us first, for "God has already spoken, and there is nothing further that we need to know, which has not been revealed to us". [139] Let us receive the sublime treasure of the revealed word.

CHAPTER FOUR
THE SOCIAL DIMENSION OF EVANGELIZATION

176. To evangelize is to make the kingdom of God present in our world. Yet "any partial or fragmentary definition which attempts to render the reality of evangelization in all its richness, complexity and dynamism does so only at the risk of impoverishing it and even of distorting it". [140] I would now like to share my concerns about the social dimension of evangelization, precisely because if this dimension is not properly brought out, there is a constant risk of distorting the authentic and integral meaning of the mission of evangelization.

I. Communal and societal repercussions of the kerygma

177. The kerygma has a clear social content: at the very heart of the Gospel is life in community and engagement with others. The content of the first proclamation has an immediate moral implication centred on charity.

Confession of faith and commitment to society

178. To believe in a Father who loves all men and women with an infinite love means realizing that "he thereby confers upon them an infinite dignity". [141] To believe that the Son of God assumed our human flesh means that each human person has been taken up into the very heart of God. To believe that Jesus shed his blood for us removes any doubt about the boundless love which ennoble each human being. Our redemption has a social dimension because "God, in Christ, redeems not only the individual person, but also the social relations existing between men"

Today because of the situation in the world, many people cannot receive Our Lord, Jesus, in Holy Communion which in itself is a tragedy. However, we should realize that this cross is one we can bear in love and offer our sorrow to The Lord, Jesus, in His suffering on the cross so that grace may be poured out on the world through our sorrow. Just as grace was poured out through the sorrow of Mary at the foot of the cross. Each day we also can seek to have a spiritual union with The Lord so that our spirits can unite in His love. In this time, I hope we all come to treasure more the gift we are given in the Holy Eucharist and appreciate it more as sometimes people forget what a great gift God gives mankind in the Holy Eucharist.

There are some who are afraid of all the events happening around the world and fear for themselves and their families. In these troubled times, it is important we keep focused on The Lord, Jesus, and not be drawn into the panic in the world today. Be at peace knowing Christ is with you keeping you safe and that whatever happens in your life is His will. Do not let fear into your hearts but remember 'Jesus, I trust you'. Fear will lead people into thoughts of self and block thoughts of God. Fear may open people to sin as they seek to make sure all is well in their lives. With The Lord at our side in our lives we should not fear, for He is with us and will protect us. Remember how the early church trusted completely in Him and so must we today. We can find the strength to not be afraid by asking the Holy Spirit to lift our fears and strengthen our faith, our trust and resolve. The Holy Spirit will come to our aid and help us. He will strengthen our spirits so we can truly live unafraid in the love of Christ. Remember God will take care of you. Let us not lose our focus and let us continue to love others, to help others and to share with others. Some say these are the end times but no one knows the end times except the Father, so do not be led along the path of despair. Instead keep hoping in Our Lord, Jesus. The Lord, said in Holy Scripture these things would happen so why are we surprised. Stand erect and hold your heads high as you hold onto Jesus saying 'Lord, wherever you lead me I will follow.'

THANK YOU AND GOD BLESS YOU!!!!

MAY, The Month of MARY

PRAYER FOR ALL MOTHERS

In the Catholic Church, the month of May is dedicated to Our Lady. We can learn so much from Mary, including her deep humility, blind obedience, unceasing prayer, surpassing purity, ardent love and constant self-denial!

Mary, pray for us and guide us through the month of May

O almighty and eternal God, Lord of both the living and the dead, Your tender mercy embraces all men foreknown to be Your by faith and a good life. Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary of Mother, and of all the saints, grant Your merciful pardon to all mothers for whom we pray, whether they still are living in this world or have departed from this flesh into the world to come. Especially, dear Lord, grant the requests I now make of You for my own beloved mother.

PENTECOST SUNDAY, MAY 31

Happy birthday to the Catholic Church! Happy birthday to you, who are the body of the Church!

We're all familiar with our own birthdays, and we celebrate them because they mark the day of the year in which we entered into this life. But did you know you have a second birthday?

Because you are part of the body of the Church, Pentecost is the Church's birthday, and yours as well. And like any birthday, it's a cause for celebration.

The word Pentecost is Greek and it means "50th day." Fifty days after Easter Sunday, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and their followers, and the beginning of their Earthly ministry to make disciples of all nations.

Pentecost is also a Jewish holiday, which the Jews use to celebrate the end of Passover. Jews celebrate the gift of the law to Moses at Mt. Sinai on this day. But we, as Catholics celebrate the birth of our Church.

At Pentecost, the Apostles and their followers were gathered in a room. Jews from all over the world were gathered with Peter, the leader of the Apostles and the Eleven. At this time, a great wind blew and a flame appeared as a tongue of fire, which split itself into many individual flames above the heads of all those present. The Holy Spirit came upon these people and each began to speak in tongues. Despite the fact many had no common language, they were perfectly able to understand one another.

SCATTERED THOUGHTS ON THE PATH TO HOLINESS

POOR BOY & JOHN 3:16 A Very Touching Story About A Very Poor Little Boy & John 3:16

A little boy was selling newspapers on the corner, the people were in and out of the cold. The little boy was so cold that he wasn't trying to sell many papers. He walked up to a policeman and said, "Mister, you wouldn't happen to know where a poor boy could find a warm place to sleep tonight would you?"

You see, I sleep in a box up around the corner there and down the alley and it's awful cold in there for tonight. Sure would be nice to have a warm place to stay.

The policeman looked down at the little boy and said, "You go down the street to that big white house and you knock on the door. When they come to the door you just say John 3:16, and they will let you in."

So he did. He walked up the steps and knocked on the door, and a lady answered. He looked up and said, "John 3:16." The lady said, "Come on in, son."

She took him in and she sat him down in a split bottom rocker in front of a great big old fireplace, and she went off. The boy sat there for a while and thought to himself: "John 3:16...I don't understand it, but it sure makes a cold boy warm."

Later she came back and asked him "Are you hungry?" He said, "Well, just a little. I haven't eaten in a couple of days, and guess I could stand a little bit of food."

The lady took him in the kitchen and sat him down to a table full of wonderful food. He ate and ate until he couldn't eat any more. Then he thought to himself: "John 3:16...Boy, I sure don't understand it but it sure makes a hungry boy full."

She took him upstairs to a bathroom to a huge bathtub filled with warm water, and he sat there and soaked for a while. As he soaked, he thought to himself: "John 3:16...I sure don't understand it, but it sure makes a dirty boy clean. You know, I've not had a bath, a real bath, in my whole life. The only bath I ever had was when I stood in front of that big old fire hydrant as they flushed it out."

The lady came in and got him. She took him to a room, tucked him into a big old feather bed, pulled the covers up around his neck, kissed him goodnight and turned out the lights. As he lay in the darkness and looked out the window at the snow coming down on that cold night, he makes a tired boy rested.

The next morning the lady came back up and took him down again to that same big table full of food. After he ate, she took him back to that same big old split bottom rocker in front of the fireplace and picked up a big old Bible.

She sat down in front of him and looked into his young face. "Do you understand John 3:16?" she asked gently. He replied, "No, Ma'am, I don't. The first time I ever heard it was last night when the policeman told me to use it." She opened the Bible to John 3:16 and began to explain to him about Jesus. Right there, in front of that big old fireplace, he gave his heart and life to Jesus. He sat there and thought: "John 3:16 - I don't understand it, but it sure makes a lost boy feel safe."

You know, I have to confess I don't understand it either, how God was willing to send His Son to die for me, and how Jesus would agree to do such a thing. I don't understand the agony of the Father and every angel in heaven as they watched Jesus suffer and die. I don't understand the intense love for ME that kept Jesus on the cross 'til the end. I don't understand it, but it sure does make life worth living.

{Now just think about this for a minute before you read on. God sent his son named Jesus to die for all of us, to be whipped until his skin came off his body, head crowned with thorns and then crucified on a cross that he had to drag up a hill to the Place of the Scull, Calvary. Jesus' mom watched this in total agony.}

John 3:16: For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

If you aren't ashamed to do this, please follow the directions.

Jesus said, "If you are ashamed of Me, I will be ashamed of you before My Father."

Phil 4:13 If you love God and are not ashamed of all the marvelous things He has done for you.

I do Love God. He is my each and every day. Share this with family and friends.

All you do is simply say this small prayer for the person who shared this story with you and the person you share it with.

"Father, God bless this person in whatever it is that You know he or she may be needing this day! In Jesus' Name. Amen!"

A Prayer for Mothers May 10, 2020

All-loving God, we give you thanks and praise for mothers young and old.
We pray for young mothers, who give life and count toes and tend to our every need; May they be blessed with patience and tenderness to care for their families and themselves with great joy.
We pray for our own mothers who have nurtured and cared for us; May they continue to guide us in strong and gentle ways.
We remember mothers who are separated from their children because of war, poverty, or conflict; May they feel the loving embrace of our God who wipes every tear away.
We pray for women who are not mothers but still love and shape us with motherly care and compassion.
We remember mothers, grandmothers, and great-grandmothers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen

A Prayer for Fathers June 21, 2020

God our Father, We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.
We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.
We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost and suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.
We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.
We remember fathers, grandfather, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen

Mensáje De Nuestra Señora 25 de marzo de 2020

“¡Queridos hijos! He estado con ustedes todos estos años para conducirlos por el camino de la salvación. Regresen a mi Hijo, regresen a la oración y al ayuno. Hijitos, permitan que Dios le hable a su corazón, porque Satanás reina y quiere destruir sus vidas y la tierra por la que caminan. Sean valientes y decídanse por la santidad. Verán la conversión en sus corazones y en sus familias; la oración será escuchada, Dios atenderá sus súplicas y les dará la paz. Estoy con ustedes y los bendigo a todos con mi bendición maternal.

Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado. ”

Una oración por las madres 10 de mayo de 2020

Dios que todo lo ama, te damos gracias y alabamos a las madres jóvenes y viejas.
Oramos por las madres jóvenes, que dan vida y cuentan los dedos de los pies y atienden todas nuestras necesidades;
Que sean bendecidos con paciencia y ternura para cuidar a sus familias y ellos mismos con gran alegría.
Oramos por nuestras propias madres que nos han cuidado y cuidado; Que continúen guiándonos de manera fuerte y gentil.
Recordamos a las madres que están separadas de sus hijos debido a la guerra, la pobreza o el conflicto; Que sientan el abrazo amoroso de nuestro Dios que limpia cada lágrima.
Oramos por mujeres que no son madres pero que aún nos aman y nos dan forma con cuidado y compasión maternal.
Recordamos a madres, abuelas y bisabuelas que ya no están con nosotros, pero que viven para siempre en nuestra memoria y nos alimentan con su amor. Amén

Ultimo Mensaje, 25 de abril de 2020

“¡Queridos hijos! Que este tiempo sea para ustedes una exhortación a la conversión personal. Hijitos, oren en soledad al Espíritu Santo para que los fortalezca en la fe y en la confianza en Dios, a fin de que puedan ser testigos dignos del amor que Dios les regala a través de mi presencia. Hijitos, no permitan que las pruebas endurezcan su corazón y que la oración sea como un desierto. Sean un reflejo del amor de Dios y testimonien con sus vidas a Jesús Resucitado. Estoy con ustedes y los amo a todos con mi amor maternal. Gracias por haber respondido a mi llamado. ”

Una oración por los padres 21 de junio de 2020

Dios Padre nuestro, te damos gracias y alabamos a padres jóvenes y viejos.
Oramos por los padres jóvenes, abrazando nuevamente su vocación; Que encuentren coraje y perseverancia para equilibrar el trabajo, la familia y la fe en la alegría y el sacrificio.
Oramos por nuestros propios Padres en todo el mundo cuyos hijos están perdidos y sufriendo; Que sepan que el Dios de la compasión camina con ellos en su dolor.
Oramos por hombres que no son padres pero que aún son mentores y nos guían con amor paternal y consejos.
Recordamos a padres, abuelos y bisabuelos que ya no están con nosotros, pero que viven para siempre en nuestra memoria y nos alimentan con su amor. Amén
