Restraining Animals

- Animals should be tied or penned in a manner that will not hurt the animal or restrict its breathing in any way.
- Animals should be tied so that all four feet are firmly on the ground and they have enough room to stand comfortably and lie down.
- Animals should be tied so that they are not able to injure animals tied near them.
- Animals unaccustomed to each other should not be penned together.
- Animals may NOT be muzzled at any time.

Handling - any type of rough handling which could harm the animal is prohibited. The use of whips, canes and show sticks should be restricted to showing only and then should be used only to guide the animals, not punish them. Remember, animals will respond quicker and better to quiet, gentle handling than loud, rough handling.

Bedding - all animals should have bedding which is dry and clean. Pens should be cleaned regularly to keep the animals clean and comfortable. If non-traditional bedding such as carpeting is used, it should be regularly cleaned (at least twice daily) to keep the pen free from manure. Straw, shavings, and corn cobs are permitted. Exhibitors must supply their own bedding.

Feed and Water - animals should be well fed and have access to clean water regularly. Realizing that many market animals must have restricted amounts of feed to maintain the proper weight, animals must be fed adequate amounts of feed to meet the animal's basic requirements. Animals not allowed reasonable access to feed and water will be disqualified from the show.

Transportation - animals should be transported in a way that is both safe and considerate of the animal's well-being. In the winter, animals should be transported in enclosed trucks or trailers to protect them from the cold.

Blankets/Sweat Collars - any type of material such as blankets or sweat collars should be large enough to permit normal body functions such as breathing, eating, drinking or lying down.

Health - it is the responsibility of the exhibitor to provide proper health care for their animals through routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals. The improper or illegal use of drugs or antibiotics is prohibited. If medication is indicated, be sure to follow the label directions and allow more than the stated withdrawal time.

GENERAL: Note: No animal showing signs of contagious, or infectious disease, or external parasites will be allowed entry to the show. Exhibitors must have all necessary health papers with the herdsman in charge when entries arrive at the show. All show animals should be held in isolation for at least 30 days after return to the herd of origin.

GROOMING: Use only grooming products that are approved for use on meat producing animals when fitting any animal for show. Unapproved products may contain ingredients that result in unacceptable residues in the meat. If it is not certain that a product is residue safe and approved for use on meat animals, don't use it!

MARKET ANIMALS: Animals consigned for slaughter during or immediately following the show shall not receive any treatment with drugs or biologics within the withdrawal time prior to slaughter. Withdrawal times for drugs and biologics are all stated on the directions for use. Label directions must be followed at all times.

Important! If upon slaughter, treatment with drugs, biologics, or any chemical from fitting products, is the condemnation of a carcass, the loss of the carcass and any other damages will be borne by the exhibitor.
