

27th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

1st Reading: Isaiah 5.1-7
2nd Reading: Philippians 4.6-9
Gospel: Matthew 21.33-43

One job is finished; another is getting started.

“Unless the Lord build the house,
they labor in vain who build.”

Psalm 127:1

This is God’s house and, as parishioners, we are privileged to be the stewards of it. We are also charged with the duty to see that it is maintained properly. Construction is painstakingly slow and increasingly more expensive. It took sixteen months of actual construction, two years in the planning to finish the front steps. The fence is a bonus. We must not leave the space underneath the church in its present state any longer. Parishioners UNITE! Unite in prayer to help make our parish a welcoming, joyful place that will bring many souls to Christ the builder, for many years to come.

Peace,
Father Larry

Our Parish Vision: Let's develop it together.

One thing is sure: we cannot allow the parish basement to languish as an unusable space any longer. It is a waste and a liability. Let's turn it into a welcoming, joyful venue for the benefit of all parishioners and a hub of neighborhood activity. Please consider a donation to Project Advance to help revive the parish. Your participation is important, no matter the size of the donation. To the 37 parishioners who have already donated: my heartfelt thanks. Can the rest of you please help?

AFTER MUCH SORROWS, IS IT POSSIBLE TO FIND HEALING?

How do we forgive? How do we find healing? In the aftermath of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, how do residential school survivors and the Catholic Church move forward together? There is only one way forward: In the Spirit of Reconciliation.

Come and be touched and be inspired by this timely documentary, In the Spirit of Reconciliation, written and directed by Fr. Larry Lynn on this delicate matter. This documentary confronts the history of the residential school system in the Northwest Territories, and bears witness to the courageous efforts of survivors who strive towards reconciliation and find healing. Showing in upper St. Ann's Hall, Oct. 17 (Tuesday) at 7pm. Jointly sponsored by The Knights of Columbus and The Catholic Women's League. Everyone is welcome...refreshments provided.
