8. Mayor's Monthly Report- No report.
9. Water Dept. Report – Public Works Director Kloss provided a written report and addressed the council regarding the meat processing plant Groholski Sausage is planning to install. Public Works Director Kloss said he had spoken with Mr. K.L. Groholski and told Mr. Groholski that the plans he had described to him possibly would not work due to the Sanitary Control Easement in place for the #1 Well there. The Well is in the center of a 150-foot radius of the Sanitary Control Easement and there is a signed agreement document stating that. Mr. Kloss called TCEQ for advice and spoke with Kathelyn and was told the Sanitary Control Easement is there to protect the well and she would get back with Mr. Kloss after she had talked to Richard Monreal. Kathelyn reached out to Mr. Kloss after a couple days and sent an email after speaking with her peers. Mr. Kloss read and passed out to the Council what he had received from Kathelyn and her TCEQ peers. Councilmember Kujawa asked about the containment container. Mr. Kloss stated there would need to be a container because the City of Bremond wastewater treatment plant could not handle that. Mr. Kloss told the council he is just giving them the update for informational purposes, so they had the information. Councilmember Burnett said he would like to get more information from Mr. Groholski like his plans, and what he received for TCEQ that he was told he could have the Meat Processing Plant since there are two sides that are conflicting with each other.
