ABOUT THE AUTHOR

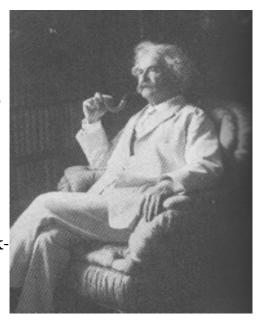

Mark Twain (1835-1910)

Samuel Langhorne Clemens was born in Florida, Missouri, on Nov. 30, 1835, the sixth child of John and Jane Clemens. His family moved to the town of Hannibal, Missouri along the Mississippi River when he was 4 years old. As a boy, Clemens was fascinated with the steamboats that passed near his home and dreamed of one day becoming a Steamboat Captain.

Sam went to work as an apprentice printer for the Missouri Courier in 1848, and began his lifelong literary career. He continued to work as a printer and writer for newspapers from New York to San Francisco. At the age of 21, Clemens became apprenticed on a Mississippi River steamboat and received his pilot's license two years later. Clemens very famous pen-name "Mark Twain" came from his river boat days. "Mark Twain" meant that the boat was in two fathoms of water. The Civil War suspended river traffic on the Mississippi, and Clemens had a very short stint in a volunteer militia before it disbanded. He went west and eventually settled in San Francisco in 1864, writing for a paper named the "Call". While in California, Mark Twain spent time in Calaveras County, the middle of California's "Mother Lode" of gold. It was there that Twain wrote "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County", the story that started his success and fame in American Literature. Through later editions of the short story, Twain changed the name slightly and the word "Celebrated" became "Notorious".

Mark Twain went on to become one of America's most famous writers traveling the world to share his wit, and publishing such novels as Tom Sawyer, The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The Prince and The Pauper, A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court, and many others.

Mark Twain died in Redding, Connecticut on April 21, 1910. Curiously, Halley's comet made an appearance in 1835, the year of Sam Clemens' birth, and another appearance 75 years later in 1910 the year that he died. Very much like the comet that bookended his life, Samuel Langhorne Clemens streaked across the world, with his "tales" burning behind him.

The Gold Miners were often in camps without sheriffs and judges. In order to help keep the rules of civilized society, they came up with...

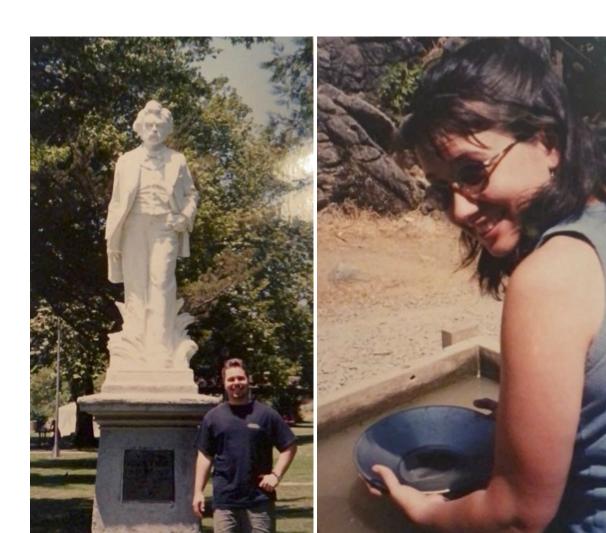

THE MINERS' TEN COMMANDMENTS

- I. Thou shalt have no other claim than one.
- II. Thou shalt not make any false claim, nor jump one.
- III. Thou shalt not go prospecting before thy claim gives out. Neither shalt thou take thy money, nor thy gold dust, nor thy good name, to the gaming table in vain
- IV. Thou shalt not remember what thy friends do at home on the Sabbath day, lest the remembrance may not compare favorably with what thou doest here.
- V. Thou shalt not think more of all thy gold, and how thou canst make it fastest, than how thou wilt enjoy it.
- VI. Thou shalt not kill thy body by working in the rain, even though thou shalt make enough to buy physic and attendance with. Neither shalt thou kill thy neighbor's body in a duel; for by "keeping cool," thou canst save his life and thy conscience.
- VII. Thou shalt not grow discouraged, nor think of going home before thou hast made thy "pile".
- VIII. Thou shalt not steal a pick, or a shovel, or a pan from thy fellow miner; nor take away his tools without his leave.
 - IX. Thou shalt not tell any false tales about "good diggings in the mountains," to thy neighbor, lest in deceiving thy neighbor, when he returneth through the snow, with naught save his rifle, he present thee with the contents thereof, and like a dog, thou shalt fall down and die.
 - X. Thou shalt not neglect thy "first love," but thou shalt consider how faithfully and patiently she awaiteth thy return. Yet, if thy heart be free, and thou dost love each other, thou shalt "pop the question" like a man, lest another, more manly than thou art, should step in before thee, and thy future lot be that of a poor, lonely, despised and comfortless bachelor.

Where In The World... ANGELS CAMP in CALAVERAS COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

In 1849, cries of "GOLD" filled the California hillsides, and people from all over the world went West to try to strike it rich. One of the towns that became a famous "Gold Rush" destination was ANGELS CAMP, in CALAVERAS COUNTY, CALIFORNIA. When writing this adaptation of Mark Twain's story, Don Gruel and Noel Holland were living in the San Francisco Bay Area in California, only a few hours away from Angels Camp. They visited the town, saw Mark Twain's Cabin where he wrote the story, and they even panned for gold.

Find California on a map, then look for ANGELS CAMP in Calaveras County (HERE'S A HINT...It's not too far from the amazing YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK.)

"WRITE YOUR OWN PLAY" ADAPTATION ACTIVITY

PLAYWRITING TIPS

-Every good play has to start somewhere.

-Sometimes the idea for a play comes completely from the playwright's imagination.

-Sometimes the idea is created from a book, a story, or even a song.

AN ADAPTATION IS... ~A New Play Based On A Book Or A Story~

-The writer uses the original book or story as an inspiration.

-1-

Pick a story with characters that will make your play interesting.

You can also create new characters. Remember it is your adaptation!

Make a 'Road Map'- outline the plan of how you want your play to be written. Don't be afraid to change your mind.

Sometimes creativity needs to take a detour!

-3-

Write your dialogue (what the characters say).

Try to write dialogue that is realistic and not too formal.

It will sound closer to how people really talk.

VOCABULARY WORDS

Here are some words or phrases that you may not know. Become familiar with them to keep up in the show!

- Flume- An inclined channel for conveying water
- Ramrod- A rod for ramming home the charge in a muzzle-loading rifle
- Mother Lode- The principal vein or lode of a region, often used to refer to California's Gold Country

- Helen of Troy- In Greek legend, the most beautiful woman of Greece and the indirect cause of the Trojan War. She was daughter of Zeus.

Can you write a sentence using three of these words?
Can you write a short story using all of the words?

Before The Show Activities

• WATCHING A PLAY- You will be seeing a live theatre production. What are the differences between a play and a movie or television? How is it different to view each type? What kinds of theatre manners should be used when watching a play?

(Florida Standards Connections: TH.K.S.1.1, TH.1.O.3.1, TH.1.S.1.1, TH.2.C.2.2, TH.2.S.1.1, TH.3.O.3.1, TH.3.S.1.1, TH.4.S.1.1, TH.5.H.3.2, TH.5.S.1.1)

• OTHER WORKS BY THE SAME AUTHOR- Mark Twain is one of America's most celebrated authors. He wrote MANY essays, novels, and short stories. Try reading some of Mark Twain's work. He uses words in a very clever way. Many of his clever words will be in the production you will see.

(Florida B.E.S.T. Standards Connections: ELA.K.R.1.1, ELA.K.R.1.3, ELA.1.R.1.1, ELA.1.R.1.2, ELA.2.R.1.1, ELA.2.R.1.2, ELA.3.R.1.1, ELA.3.R.1.2, ELA.4.R.1.1, ELA.4.R.1.2, ELA.5.R.1.1, ELA.5.R.1.2)

• TELLING A STORY THROUGH SONGS- In the play, you will hear parts of the story told through a series of songs. Songs have both LYRICS...or words, and MUSIC...the sounds of the instruments as well as the melodies sung by the actors on stage. In the show you will see, the characters on stage express their thoughts and feelings through songs. Try writing your own song to tell what you are thinking or feeling. Write the LYRICS and MUSIC...and maybe even sing it for your friends.

After The Show Activities

• COMPARE & CONTRAST- Think of other stories you have heard of "The Gold Rush" or the "Wild West". How were they similar to THE NOTORIOUS JUMPING FROG OF CALAVERAS COUNTY? How were they different?

(Florida B.E.S.T. Standards Connections: ELA.K.R.3.3, ELA.1.R.3.3, ELA.2.R.3.3, ELA.3.R.3.3, ELA.4.R.3.3, ELA.5.R.3.3)

• WRITE A STORY- What happens next in the story? It is up to you. Choose one of the characters from the show. Write a short story about what happens to the characters after the play ends.

• ACT OUT A CHARACTER- Choose a favorite character from the play and act it out. Use your own imagination to choose how to play the part. You can even choose characters who are mentioned and never shown on stage. Choose how the character sounds and moves?

(Florida Standards Connections: TH.K.S.2.1, TH.1.S.3.1, TH.2.S.3.1, TH.3.S.3.1, TH.4.S.3.1, TH.5.S.3.1)

• BE A SCENIC DESIGNER- The scenery for the show you watched was designed specifically to help tell the story on stage. The Atlantic Coast Theatre is a touring theatre company, so at the end of the show, everything must be packed up and taken to the next performance location. Choose one of your favorite stories and design the scenery. Think about how it will go together for travel, and how easy or difficult it will be to pack up.

BONUS Show Activities

- Samuel Clemens created his pen-name Mark Twain from the experiences he had in his life. If you were going to write under a name that was different than yours, what might it be?
- Mark Twain wrote many of his stories using dialects, or regional ways of speaking, for his characters. For example some of his characters would say "Warn't" instead of "Wasn't", or "Fer" instead of "For". Write a short story where your characters speak in dialect.
- The Atlantic Coast Theatre For Youth script for The Notorious Jumping Frog Of Calaveras County was adapted from the original short story by Mark Twain. The playwright had to decide which parts of the story to use, and which ones to leave out. He also added his own ideas to make the story work as a play. Read the original story and compare the play with it. Then try adapting one of your favorite short stories into a play.
- Simone Wheeler is a fictional character, but there were some very strong women who played an important part in the gold rush. Choose 3 women from history who were strong enough to compete in a tough world, and describe how they made things better for women today.

Be a SCENIC ARTIST Activity

A SCENIC ARTIST, sometimes knows as a SET DESIGNER, creates visual art for theatre performances.

Multiple Places In One Set

Often, a scenic artist has the challenge of designing the scenery for a play that happens in many different places. Sometimes the scenery can be moved, but sometimes a "UNIT SET", or scenery that stays in place for the entire show is used. Pick a story that you like that happens in multiple locations. Design a non-moving "UNIT SET" for the stage version of the story you chose.

All About The Actors

Noel Holland & Don Gruel

You will be seeing professional actors!
That means they act for their jobs!
An interesting fact about the actors:
They started acting when they were YOUR age!

NOEL HOLLAND—I cannot remember a time when I was not singing. As a child, I would sing to anyone who would listen—if nobody was there to hear, I would sing to myself! I started acting and dancing because I loved performing on stage. My sister and I would put on plays for our parents in the living room! When I was in middle school and high school, I decided that I wanted to be a performer. After I graduated college with a degree in music, I became a professional actor- working for theatres all over the country. Now, I have my dream job— owning a theatre. I am so proud to be a part of the Atlantic Coast Theatre For Youth. It gives me all kinds of opportunities to sing, act, write songs, and use my imagination. I so enjoy creating shows that children love because I loved theatre and music so much when I was a child!

Noel & her little sister, Meredith, putting on a play for family.

Don as the Easter Bunny in his 3rd Grade School Play

DON GRUEL— I grew up in Beaufort, South Carolina. When I was little, I would make up plays using my "Star Wars" Action Figures as the actors. I started doing school plays when I was in Kindergarten, but my first play outside of school I was in the musical OKLAHOMA when I was 10 years old. I really liked the feeling of being able to pretend to become other people in other places. I kept doing plays throughout Middle School & High School and decided to study Theatre in college. I graduated from the University Of South Carolina in 1993 and have worked in professional theatre ever since. I have always loved using my imagination. As an actor, I get to be creative every single day.

You can try acting too!

how to write a good letter.

Your teachers may want you to write your letter in a proper letter-writing style or format. Here is an example of one style!

Dear Audience:

The Atlantic Coast Theatre For Youth would like to thank all of you for showing us such fantastic audience manners during the show! Everyone was so respectful during the performance. You laughed when things were funny, but you were also able to quiet back down so that everyone could hear. I don't think that we heard anyone talking while the actors were on stage. That was great! You made our job so much fun.

Thanks so much! You were wonderful!

Sincerely,

200 Gruel & Noel Holland

Get your letters to your teacher or the school office so they can mail them to ACT For Youth (or the sponsor of the show).
