A little while back, Ventura County Supervisor Vianey Lopez was giving a presentation to Future Leaders of America (FLA) and Upward Bound students at Cal Lutheran University. At one point she asked the hundreds gathered if they knew who their representatives were, both locally and nationally. Very few hands went up.

My contribution on this day was to lead a workshop on community engagement. My original message was going to skew heavily towards our youth programs such as Key Club and Circle K, but after seeing the few hands that went up earlier, I reshaped my presentation. I found it more important to remind these students that the best step they could take is to look within their communities and identify their needs so that they could help make a difference now or some day in the future. More importantly, I encouraged them to vote.

I call on all of you to do the same with the youth in your communities. Remind them that in the grand tapestry of democracy, the threads of change are woven at the local level. Their voice is not just a whisper in the wind but a powerful force that can shape the future in their communities.

Remind them that local elections provide a direct avenue for them to influence policies that impact their day-to-day lives. Issues like education, public services, and community development are decided at a local level, making their vote a catalyst for positive change. Encourage them to elect leaders that reflect their values and concerns that matter most to them.

The most important lesson that can be taught about participating in local elections is that it lays the foundation for a lifetime of civic engagement. It cultivates a sense of responsibility and fosters a connection between them and the democratic process. As they exercise their right to vote, they are contributing to the collective strength of their generation and sending a resounding message that they are active participants in shaping the future of their communities.

Empower our youth by continuing to encourage them to embrace their civic duty and let their voices be heard, empowering them to help forge a brighter future for all.

Last, but most certainly not least, please keep a prayer in your heart for Alan Grizzard-Paul at the loss of his beloved wife, Mary. She was a Kiwanis member for over 30 years and her service to the community of Camarillo, especially the youth, will be long appreciated and remembered. We love you, Mary. Godspeed!

Hail Kiwanis International!

LIVE IT

I must start with the sad news of the passing of one of our hardest working members. My soulmate, Mary Grizzard-Paul, was certainly a pathfinder in whatever she took on. She was one of the first Deputy Sheriffs to go on patrol in Ventura County. When she was Dean of West Coast University extension in Camarillo, she was invited to a Kiwanis meeting and, despite grunts and moans from some of the old boys, she became the first female to join our Kiwanis Club. That was 32 years ago, and since then she has been President about four times, and she became very involved in our SLP program where some time was spent as Regional Advisor for KIWIN'S Turquoise Division. After she drafted me into the Kiwanis Family, we attended numerous International Conventions including one in Taiwan and one in Japan. She was everything a Kiwanian could be and her years of volunteering were rewarded last year when she was honored by the Pleasant Valley Historical Society as a Donas. I would like to thank all the Kiwanis Family for supporting me through this difficult time, especially TinaMarie from the Oxnard Club for helping me through the last few days of her life. Mary is now at rest and no longer in pain, but her humor, smiles, and positive attitude will always be a part of our club.

Mary surrounded by our Kiwanis Family when she became a Donas

Over the Holiday period we installed two boxes in the privately owned pet stores in Camarillo. This is the second year we have supported The Laurie White Foundation, which is run by Gary and Karen White from the Santa Susana Kiwanis Club. Linda and Allen delivered the donations to the Camarillo Animal Shelter. We installed two collection boxes in privately-owned pet stores in Camarillo, and filled one of the large bins at the shelter.

Before school was out for the holidays our Builders Club made cards for seniors at a local assisted living home. This year they were given permission to deliver the cards and hand them to the seniors. The home is opposite the park where our club installed a Rocking Ship with wheel chair access, and of course the kids had to try it and the climbing bars. Recently the Builders Club has been busy making Valentine Cards at the last couple of meetings.

We just held a very successful Breakfast at Applebee's, where 20 KIWIN'S volunteered to do the serving and bussing of the tables. We were able to raise over $700, and the KIWIN'S cleared over $100 in tips.

Moorpark Knows How to Party!

... at our holiday social and gift exchange at the beautiful home of Bruce and Wendy,

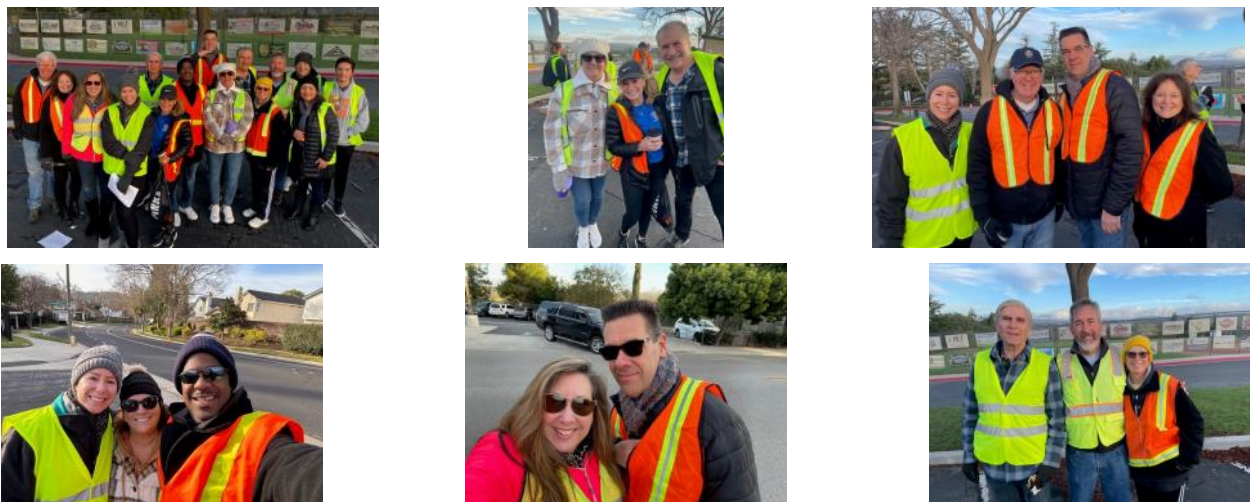

... and our January social meeting at the lovely home of Danielle and Mark.

Moorpark Kiwanis donates to all our school music programs. Rosa and Tim give a check to Chaparral Middle School.

Moorpark has TERRIFIC Kids and TERRIFIC Moorpark Kiwanians!

Moorpark High School Groundhog 5K Run volunteers!

Kiwanis Oxnard held a "Division Social" at Genmai Sushi in Oxnard. Kiwanis members from Simi Valley, Thousand Oaks, and Camarillo braved the inclement weather and joined us for a great Bento Box dinner. It was a great night to get out of the cold and warm the body up with some delicious Miso soup. Owner of Genmai, Javi, has always been a gracious host to Kiwanis Oxnard and has supported us through donations and sponsorships over the past few years.

Santa Barbara

Marsha Gray and Lauren Loza Reporting

Our first meeting of the year was great. One of our newest members, Dr. Dan Montello, UCSB professor in the geography department, gave a fascinating presentation on his unique field of study. He combines psychology and geography to study people's and groups' locational relationship to one another. Super interesting. We hope he'll return with more information on his field of study.

The Santa Barbara Kiwanis's Club tradition is to hold our holiday party the first week in January. This is a party that starts every new year off with a lot of fun and camaraderie! We have been lucky for the last several years that the ODDFELLOWS service club has allowed us to meet at their wonderful hall. Thank you Pete Georgi!

Socializing before dinner are Roger Deck, Past President Walt Browne, Dr. Dan Montello, and his wife Violet Gray. Past President Nancy Butterfield and Dr. Dan enjoy the pot luck dinner.

The white elephant gift exchange is a blast! Past President Jordan Robinson waits for his gift exchange.

Alma Vaja carefully selects her gift. Dr. Art Najera encourages Violet to open her gift. Past Governor Gary Gray admires his mini sewing machine. Sadly, he didn't get to keep it. It was looted by Alma – a gift for her granddaughter.

At Berylwood Elementary's Breakfast With Santa, we made about 3,000 pancakes, and did it in an hour and a half!

On December 30, a group of Simi Kiwanians and friends volunteered to decorate Rose Parade floats.

Happy New Year, first responders! On January 6, we delivered goody baskets to our local police and fire stations.

Our Mega Garage Sale turned into a 2-day affair, but netted our club some mega-cash!

Our quarterly social meeting featured a wine and cider tasting, presented by San Antonio Winery of Los Angeles.

Several of our members attended the Division Social hosted by the Oxnard club, and enjoyed the Japanese food!

On February 12, we held a bowl-painting party for Many Mansions. They fire and sell the bowls to raise money.

Thousand Oaks

John Prescott Reporting

There was a community holiday songfest at The Shoppes of Westlake on December 2. Groups and organizations signed up in advance and were given a carol to sing when their turn was called. Club member Steve Weiss, an accomplished musician in his own right and owner of Kirk's Jewelers at The Shoppes, organized our crooners, who sang "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" to the delight of the assembled crowds. Among our melodious songsters and songstresses were (left to right) Sherrill Hyink, Past President Steve Weiss, President Paul Lopez, Don Christie, and Past President Doug Ryan.

The Thousand Oaks Club supports a very active K-Kids Club at Weathersfield Elementary School, and of course we were happy to do the cooking at the Weathersfield PTA's "Flannels and Flapjacks" fundraiser on December 2. We served more than 200 people and the event featured lots of family-friendly games and activities, including face-painting by our President Elect, Robin Britt.

We held our annual Holiday party on December 8 at Los Robles Greens Banquet Center. It was an elegant affair, organized by our Social Committee chairs, Kim Baumann and Donna Orraj. More than 80 Kiwanians and their guests attended, and we gathered fifty gifts plus 38 gift cards for residents of Many Mansions' affordable housing projects in Thousand Oaks. Gloria Dyok is pictured helping Many Mansions rep Angela Milne load up the gifts. Also pictured are Past Lieutenant Governor Bob Engler with member Cristy Warner, who was chosen this year as Queen of the Mardi Gras Ball by Conejo Valley Community Conscience, to recognize her exceptional community service.

The Thousand Oaks Club, led by Vice President Brian McMahon, was out in force on December 23 to help the Jewel Levine Foundation with their Jingle Bell Jog fundraiser. About 800 runners enjoyed our pancake breakfast.

Ventura

Andy Mack Reporting

The Aktion Club of Ventura is at it again. They helped to beautify the walking path at Arneill Ranch Park in Camarillo. The group helped to remove overgrown weeds and plant new shrubs for the park visitors to enjoy. Next they will be off the help the Bessant Hill School in Ojai with their planting needs.
