Hello Leaders!

I write this monthly newsletter on the first day of Daylight Savings time. I always have trouble adjusting to the time change; however, I always get excited for all the wonderful things this time of year brings. March is the month for Pi Day, March Madness and St. Patrick's Day. Springtime begins March 20th, which is when the days start getting longer, warmer weather is coming, and new growth begins.

As Kiwanians, let's implement ways for us to grow as a District, as a Division, as clubs, and as individual members. Later this month, we have multiple members attending the Mid-Year conference to learn and to support Cal-NeV-Ha District. Our Governor Valarie is a superstar, and I hope you get the chance to meet her in person. As Division 42, we have on average between 50-60 members attend our monthly DCM meetings, which allows us to learn and connect with one another. Our individual clubs have such awesome events—just read this award-winning monthly newsletter (thank you Nick) from start to finish to see what other clubs are doing, and support them by attending or volunteering at their activities. As individuals, we are Kiwanians because we are leaders who want to serve. We attend meetings and events, we plan and volunteer at a community service project, and we step-up to leadership positions. For the 2023-24 year, we are looking for a Lt. Governor-elect, so please consider stepping up to this position in Division 42. I am almost half-way through my term, but I can honestly say that being your Lt. Governor is a rewarding, fun, creative and flexible position to serve.

Debbie's Delicious Corn-Bread (this is the best corn-bread I ever had!)

3 eggs – room temperature

1 ¼ c. buttermilk

1 stick of butter – set aside 2 Tbsp.

4 Tbsp. sugar

2 boxes of Jiffy cornbread mix

1 Tbsp. honey

Cast Iron skillet (or round cake pans)

-Whisk eggs; add buttermilk and 6 Tbsp. melted butter. Mix thoroughly.

-Add dry ingredients (sugar and cornbread mix) in a separate bowl and mix well.

-Add dry ingredients to the wet mixture. Stir until lumps are gone.

-Melt 1 Tbsp. butter you set aside and use it to coat the cast iron skillet (or cake pans) completely.

-Pour batter into skillet, bake at 350 for 40-45 minutes until inserted toothpick comes out clean.

-Melt remaining 1 Tbsp. butter and 1 Tbsp. honey together. Brush on the top of the cornbread when hot.

Enjoy!

Camarillo

Allen Grizzard-Paul Reporting

On March 5, Camarillo held their first joint fundraiser with the Santa Susana Club. We were able to fill 10 tables to play Bunco at kidSTREAM. We also had a number of people signed up for a donation only, as they were not able to make the event. Both clubs came up with lots of food and a total of 18 raffle prizes. Our KIWIN'S and Key Clubbers were there to help set up on Saturday and worked hard to keep everyone fed on Sunday. This was a great success and shows how two small clubs can pull off a fun event and net around $700 per club. Hopefully this will become an annual event.

Members of both clubs working the check-in table

Finally, after all the set-up was complete, the shout came, "Play Bunco," and the fun began.

Our Builders Club was very busy last month. They raised $500 selling Candy Grams for Valentines Day and sent cards and stuffed animals to 60 homeless kids at the Selective Care Resource Center in Oxnard. They have also have the Learn & Grow project started up and running again, which is the pilot for one of our club's new projects that will save water and help the environment.

Barb, Bryan, Steve and Emily present TERRIFIC Kids awards and refreshments. Our TERRIFIC Kids program in Moorpark has been going strong for decades!

Moorpark Kiwanian, Cat, reads to Campus Canyon students for Read Across America Day.

Oxnard President, Cuauhtemoc Solorio, went to one of our local schools, Juan Soria K-8, to participate in their Read Across America Day, where he read to kindergarteners and first graders.

Santa Barbara

Marsha Gray Reporting

We had an incredible and powerful meeting on February 15. The Bikers Against Child Abuse (BACA) crew came to Santa Bárbara from their Southland location and gave us a dynamic presentation of who they are and what they do. They are private citizens dedicated to representing and protecting underserved and abused children. We so admired their cause and appreciated them coming the distance to Santa Bárbara that we presented their organization with a $200 donation. Thank you BACA!

Michelle Kerwood, a counselor with the Daniel Bryant Center and the Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse (CADA), gave a wonderful presentation to our club on the state of our struggling Santa Barbara youth. Daniel Bryant was a young man who lost his struggle with opioids in May 1995. His parents were so aggrieved they started programs to help other drug users. Kiwanis Club of Santa Bárbara works closely with the Daniel Bryant center and does a major fundraising barbeque for them every year. Past Lt. Gov. Ed Cue, recently retired from CADA, introduced his friend and former co-worker Michelle. He knew Daniel Bryant personally and still works hard to help our youth.

Past Lt. Gov. Ed Cue and Past President Nancy Butterfield gave yogurts and prizes from our club to BUGS - Bringing Up Grades - recipients. Cleveland Elementary is our adopted BUGS school in Santa Barbara, and you'll find us giving out treats and rewards to our BUGS students there at least 3 times a year.

BUNCO FUN

The Camarillo and Santa Susana Clubs teamed up to host their 2nd Annual Bunco fundraiser. Friends, family, and members of fellow clubs joined together for an afternoon of Bunco, food, lots of raffle prizes, and fun. Everyone had a wonderful time while helping both clubs with programs they support, including scholarships and K-Kids.

WORLD CRUISE UPDATE

Santa Susana member Margaret is anchored in Thailand and visiting local sites, including this beautiful temple.

20 Years of Service

Santa Susana has prepared meals for the needy at the Samaritan Center for 20 years. We are especially proud that we have never missed a month, even during Covid.

WE VOTE WEDNESDAY

Madera K-Kids hand out and collect ballots. For the March topic, Students voted where their coin collection funds would be donated. Merlin's House (which benefits service dogs and special-needs kids) won with nearly 100 votes.

Simi Valley

Shelley Howard Reporting

Simi Kiwanis had a good time helping out at the Simi Senior Center for their Mardi Gras Luncheon celebration. We helped setup and decorate, served lunch, moved to fun music, and enjoyed being with the seniors who attended. The female entertainer turned out to be Dawn, from the '70's group Tony Orlando and Dawn!

Thousand Oaks

John Prescott Reporting

It was Happy Valentine's Day at Silverado Memory Care in Thousand Oaks. Cristy Warner and her K-Kids were joined by members of the Westlake High School Key Club and the Girl Scouts to make and deliver valentines and some friendly love, which really cheered up the residents.

The Thousand Oaks Club added two more members on January 25, 2023, bringing the Club's total membership as of that date to 94. Participating in the induction ceremony were (left to right) Past President and Past Lieutenant Governor Katy Porter, Past President Dave Biedebach (sponsor of Steve Allen), Past President Larry Levine, new member Steve Allen, new member Sharon Sincock and behind her Greg Sincock (Sharon's sponsor - and husband), and Immediate Past President Aaron Kitzman, who conducted the induction ceremony.

Kindness is Cool! Led by our Kiwanian of the Year, Cristy Warner, four members of the Weathersfield School K-Kids delivered Meals on Wheels and Valentines to seniors in our community, bringing many smiles along the route.

The Thousand Oaks Club's Signature Project, Bikes for Youth, continues to roll. The Oak Park Unified School District recently hosted a large recycling event, and that resulted in more than 100 bikes being donated to our Club. We refurbish the bikes and donate them to needy youngsters, particularly youth that need them for basic transportation to school and work. We have now donated more than 300 bikes since the project began two years ago, and this batch of 100 bikes will add to that total in the near future. Pictured with one of the Oak Park High School student volunteers (on the left) are Dave Geeting (our bike refurbishment volunteer), President Mary Sepe, and Brendan Callahan. Brendan is the Operations Manager for the Oak Park Unified School District and just joined the Thousand Oaks Kiwanis Club.

Recent Speakers

Left: Heather Baker spoke about Clean International's water projects. Right: Aleasha Ramsay gave a very interesting talk about her diseased brother's "Dave Creek Traveling Treehouse" project.

DATA Builders Club continues working on its joint project with Ventura Kiwanis to provide quilts to keep cancer patients warm during chemo.

DATA Builders Club designed and created valentine "cards" for the campus students with special needs.
