NOTABLE COVERAGE DEFINITIONS:

Commercial General Liability – provides coverage for legal liability imposed by law up to the policy limits. The liability must stem from bodily injury to member of the public or damage to their property, caused by an occurrence. The company will defend you, even if the allegations of the suit are groundless, false or fraudulent. Suits brought by athletic participants are also covered but player versus player claims are excluded.

Contractual Liability – covers legal liability for Bodily Injury or Property Damage arising from a written contract relating to your operations.

Personal/Advertising Injury – covers legal obligations for injury to others from a) false arrest, detention, imprisonment or malicious prosecution; b) libel, slander, defamation or violation of right of privacy; c) wrongful entry or eviction or other invasion of right of private occupation.

Incidental Malpractice Liability – covers the insured's legal liability arising out of rendering or failure to render certain professional medical services. Note: This does not apply to licensed physicians employed by you or working on your behalf.
