

Funding Your Future

What is a Meritize Loan?

The Meritize platform looks beyond FICO and use previous academic or military achievements to enhance credit evaluation and potentially improve loan options.

What can the Meritize platform offer me?

- Pre-approval in minutes for qualified applicants
- Choose from various repayment terms, including deferring full principal and interest for 3 months after you complete your training
- Qualifying students are able to finance the full cost of tuition
- No prepayment penalty
- Fixed and variable interest rates available*
- Free access to Career Services

What is next?

- If approved, review loan options and select the one that works best for you
- Sign up for autopay and receive a 0.25% interest rate discount**

What happens if I do not get a job immediately?

The Meritize platform offers academic coaching, a job search bootcamp and new-to-the-job coaching. Through these services, students are able to work with coaches to develop a game plan to perform at their personal best while in school, work with experts on their job search from crafting resumes to negotiating salary, and even develop the personal and competitive skills that will help them achieve professional excellence in their new job.
