LEXINGTON
MAY 16-20!

The Bluegrass Club invites you to another fun filled SpringThing weekend! Lexington, Kentucky will play host to our event this year. Perfectly situated at the interstates 75 and 64 interchange, Lexington is a charming college town with plenty of amenities to keep you busy!

Our group is excited to welcome you to the heart of Horse Country and the Bourbon Trail. Check out Keeneland or one of the many horse farms in the area. Or venture to any of the more than a dozen distilleries within a few minutes of our host site!

Be sure to return to our hotel home base each evening for plenty of Bluegrass hospitality, fun and friendship each evening!

SpringThing wouldn't be complete without a Rally to remember. You never know what the imaginative minds will dream up next, but you can be assured that the incredible backroads, small towns and historic sites around the Lexington area will be on full display for this road adventure!

The Bluegrass team has plenty of excitement lined up for the weekend! Do you need a good laugh? Make sure to take part in the Funkhana. Kids of all ages will find this to be fun and only slightly competitive. Let loose and get silly for this giggle-filled annual classic. You never know what kind of prizes await the winners!

It wouldn't be SpringThing without a creative Car Show. The Bluegrass Club, along with our partners in Central Indiana AHC and Ohio Valley AHC are dreaming up ways to make the Car Show one to remember. If lines of dozens of gleaming Healeys isn't enough to get your blood pumping, the voting and competition surely will be. Shine up that chrome and make sure your presentation helps your car stand out for the voting!

The gorgeous Kentucky Horse Park will serve as our banquet location with tours available prior to the meal. This world-class facility pays homage to the thoroughbred roots of Kentucky as well as many interesting global equestrian historical facts. While this site may be familiar to a few SpringThing faithful, the recent expansions and renovations will amaze you. There's more to the horse industry than a few races! Come learn more and experience this quintessential Bluegrass spot!

We hope you'll join us for another great weekend in Kentucky as well partner with our regional Clubs to continue our shared passion for the Healey Club family!
