We had excellent tour with no problems. The guides at Jaipur, Agra and New Delhi were excellent while the vehicle too was in immaculate condition. I thank Sunny Travels on behalf of our family for looking after us so well and I am sure family members would be back in India. - Paul Bunker, Auckland, NZ

Love India with Sunny Travels

I would surely come back to India for a Holiday. I would like very much to visit the Southern Coast. There was no place I didn't like. They all were very different and each had its good parts. I can say however, that I enjoyed Jaipur and Udaipur the most. Your services were excellent. I have no complaints at all. I feel I definitely got my money's worth.

Says Mrs. Noni & Mr. Sten Talarida, resident of Clearwater, Florida, USA after their holiday in Mumbai, Golden Triangle & North India:

Hi Suniel,

Sten and I are still "glowing" from our wonderful experience on our trip to India. I have to tell you though; it's become an India I never knew. Everyone we met was so nice and kind and helpful. Indian people are so caring and respectful to everyone....we could use a big dose of that here in the US. No matter what, India will always feel home to me. It is really such a beautiful country having oceans, mountains, jungles etc. Yes, I would come back to India, but probably want to go and see other areas I've never been to such as Southern India and maybe Goa. I know there are a lot of other wonderful areas that I've read about but in 2 weeks it's impossible to take it all in. The hotel in Mumbai wasn't bad, but it wasn't as nice as all the others we stayed at. The ones in Agra, Jaipur, Delhi and especially Mussoorie were great.

Suniel you made our stay in Mumbai so very special. First of all, we felt very lucky to meet you. You and Gunjan are both so interesting, caring and giving.....REALLY special people. You and your family did more for us than any family member would have done for us. What a very special "homecoming" it was for me to see the "Gulmarg" apartment building in Mumbai. The sightseeing, the wonderful dinners and sharing of your time and family, (especially when your cousin's marriage was going on) were beyond the call of duty. We were very touched and so very appreciative. I only hope we will have the opportunity to repay your kindness when you come to visit us here. You must promise to come and stay with us.

Nishi (Tour Guide), Mukbarahk (Driver) and Raju (Guide and Driver) were absolutely wonderful. They were caring and had lot of patience. The van was new and clean looking and the traveling was very pleasant. Nishi was very helpful. He also is a phenomenal tour guide. He really knows the history and does enjoy speaking.

Mussoorie ended up being one of the highlights of the trip. The views are absolutely breathtaking! If you have never been there, I would highly recommend it to you. The Jaypee Hotel was truly magnificent. We thoroughly enjoyed our stay there.

As far as value for our money, I think you did great on the budget we gave you. No complaints from me. Mumbai Hotel would be the only one I'd try to improve on. Not that the service wasn't good, but the bathrooms left a little to be desired and the rooms as well. I guess we are spoiled here in the US with all our comforts that we take for granted.

I really cannot suggest anything that could have made our stay any better than you managed to make it for us. Everything went very smoothly and we were surrounded by the best people that made it possible for us. Thank you, thank you, thank you for making it so memorable. I cannot thank you enough for all your kindness and efforts.

Please give my love and thanks to your whole family from me and Sten. Please Take care and much love to all,

Noni and Sten

We Love Sunny Travels

Says Mr Roger Malaquin, resident of Los Angeles, USA after their recent holiday in India & Bhutan:

Dear Suniel,

I would visit India again in a heartbeat - most likely on a nonstop from the US. We would love to tour the South, although our visit to North India turned out to be the highlight of our trip! Darjeeling, Nepal and Kashmir, in the Himalayas, would be at the top of our list of places to visit.

There weren't any places we regretted visiting, and the Hotels only kept getting better. Considering the narrow time frame you had to book us, the high season, locations and of course the price, I'd say we were more than satisfied! Thank you again for all of your hard work!

Anyway, my dear Suniel, all of us cannot stop talking about how well planned and executed the trip was; how friendly everyone connected with it was with us; it was a special moment to see our ancestral house in Delhi, and St. George's College, where I went to boarding school for many years. All of it has changed; the sheer humanity of it all was an eye-opener; the pollution and widespread poverty was hard to take - but in the end, India's wonderful history and it's equally wonderful people are things that never changed, will never be altered and will only persevere far into the future.

Please convey our love and best wishes to your family and our over-riding wish is that someday soon we may return the favor and host you in our own place in this part of the world - our little slice of paradise that we call California!

We promise to stay in touch!

Best regards,

Roger. PS. We will be sending photos soon...
