

Travel to find your True Self

We are truly passionate planning memorable holidays with specially curated itineraries that involves experience with different outlooks & beliefs. Travel must challenge your predetermined & biased mind. We plan holidays that involves true local experiences & beliefs and Southern African countries are no exceptions. Our curated holiday itineraries are well illustrated & planned to meet your requirements with painstaking details.

Spiti Valley - Paradise with Rugged Terrain for Adventurers

Spiti Valley is a hidden gem in the Himalayas, where the cold desert meets the green oasis of Buddhist culture and heritage. The best time to visit Spiti Valley is from May to October, when the roads are open and the weather is pleasant. However, some travellers prefer the winter months for the adventure challenges.

We plan exotic & luxurious private, escorted and group tour holidays to enchanted destinations meticulously with detailed planning and itinerary that involves true local experiences and beliefs. Travel must involve experiences with different outlooks and beliefs and we truly believe it should challenge your predetermined mind. These experiences are luxuries to be cherished.
