2019 Directory

Tim Stevens, Pastor

A Message from our Pastor:

Welcome to the 2019 edition of Micro First Baptist Church Directory. As I say every Sunday morning, “I am glad you are here!” We live in a world filled with people who feel that they are all alone. Even in a crowd, they feel that something is missing. Very often that missing something is the fellowship of other Christians in a local church. What a blessing it is to know that other Christians are there for us in good times and tough times.

I continue to be amazed at the things God is doing in our church. The last few months and years have brought several new families to our church family. Because of this, we may find that we see someone that we don't really know. I encourage each of us to go out of our way to make sure that new person feels welcome every week. Use this directory to learn names and faces of each member of our church. This directory can also be used to introduce our church to a friend, neighbor, co-worker or family member that may be looking for a church home.

After forty years as your pastor, this is more than just our church; you are our family. The ones who were children or not even born when we came here, are now serving in positions of leadership in our church. What a joy it has been to watch them grow up and then have children of their own who are now a part of our exciting children's ministry.

Thanks to my wife, Linda, and to my family for their support through these years. It would be impossible without them. Thanks also to each of you for the special part you have played in the life of our church.

I look with great anticipation for the things God is going to do through us and among us in the days and years to come.

To God be the Glory for anything accomplished.

I love you all dearly,

Pastor Tim Stevens

We thank you and your family for forty years of dedication.
