Bell Research Laboratory Viewpoint Validation Criteria

To validate a theological belief, all aspects of the belief must pass a three-level consistency check.

Each validation stages' inputs and findings are checked for associations and/or relationship inconsistencies with the following sources:

1. The Holy Bible
2. The Spirit of Prophecy (Ellen G. White's prophetic writings, etc...)
3. Valid Bible code matrices

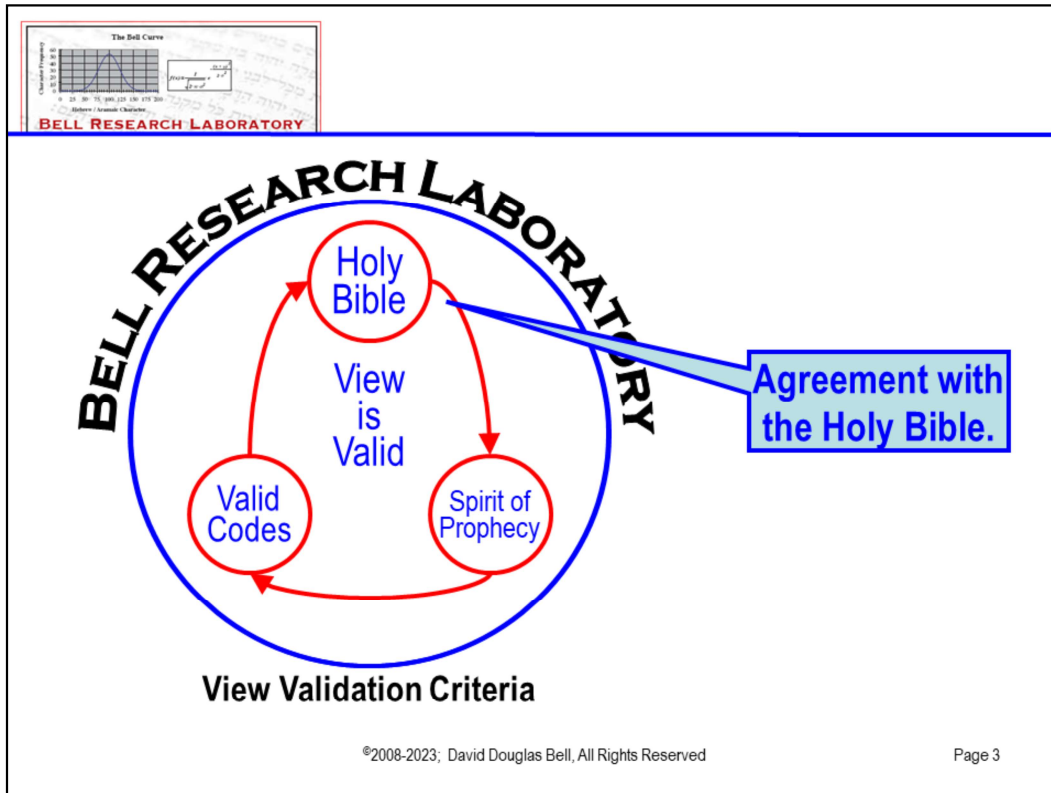

If all three criteria are met, without violation, the theological belief is considered valid and adopted as present truth.

Holy Bible Commentary on the State of the Dead

- "11These things Jesus said and afterward he said to them, 'Lazarus, our friend, sleeps, but I am going to wake him.' 12His disciples said to him, 'Our Lord, if he sleeps, he will be healed.' 13But Jesus spoke about his death, yet they thought that he spoke about sleeping on a bed. 14Then Jesus said to them plainly, 'Lazarus has died.'" John 11:11 – 14 (Peshitta) (Jesus compares death to sleep. The Bible compares death to sleep over 50 times.)

- "15Now this we say to you, by the word of our Lord, that we who remain at the coming of our Lord who are living will not overtake those who are asleep, 16because our Lord, with a command and with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven and the dead who are in Christ will rise up first." 1 Thessalonians 4:15 & 16 (Peshitta) (Those asleep in Jesus rise at His Second Coming.)

•"28Now because he is the Son of Man, do not marvel at this, because the hour will come when all those who are in the graves will hear his voice. 29And those who have done good things will go out to the resurrection of life and those who have done evil things to the resurrection of judgment." John 5:28 & 29 (Peshitta) (Some are resurrected to eternal life, and others to eternal death/damnation.)

•"And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." Genesis 2:7 (KJV) (God created man out of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life and man became a living soul. God did not put a soul into man.)

- "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it." Ecclesiastes 12:7 (KJV) (The body returns to the dust and the spirit returns to God. The Bible does not say the soul returns to God, but the spirit.)
- "All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;" Job 27:3 (KJV) (The spirit is the same as God's breath of life or His power.)
- "3Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help. 4His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish." Psalms 146:3 & 4 (When the breath of spirit returns to God, the thoughts perish.)

- "who alone is incorruptible and lives in light, to whom no one is able to draw near and no one from men has seen, nor is even able to see, to whom be honor and authority, forever and ever. Amen." 1 Timothy 6:16 (Peshitta) (Human beings do not have immortality, only God does.)
- "To those, who in the patience of good works seek glory and honor and incorruptibility, he gives eternal life." Romans 2:7 (Peshitta) (We seek for immortality. The Bible uses the word soul 1600 times, but never once uses immortal soul.)

•"51 Behold, I am telling you a mystery. Not all of us will sleep, but all of us will be changed, 52suddenly, as the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet sounding, and the dead will rise without corruption and we will be changed. 53For this one that was going to be corrupted will put on incorruption. And this one that was going to die will put on immortality. 54Now when this one that is corrupted puts on incorruption, and this one that dies, immortality, then the saying will happen that is written: Death is swallowed in victory." 1 Corinthians 15:51 – 54 (Peshitta) (We receive immortality when Jesus comes again. Note that the "last trump" announces the return of Jesus and is not the same as the seventh trumpet warning of Revelation 10:7.)

- "Men, our brothers, allow me to speak boldly with you about the patriarch David, who is dead and also buried and whose tomb is with us until today." Acts 2:29 (Peshitta) (David is still dead and buried in his grave.)
- "For David did not ascend into heaven, because he said, The Lord said to my Lord, sit at my right hand" Acts 2:34 (Peshitta) (David did not ascend to heaven at death, but awaited the coming of Jesus and the first resurrection.)
- "For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?" Psalms 6:5 (KJV) (In the grave there is no remembrance of God.)
- "For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten." Ecclesiastes 9:5 (KJV) (The dead do not know anything.)

Ellen G. White Comments on The State of the Dead

"A correct understanding of 'what saith the Scriptures' in regard to the state of the dead is essential for this time. God's word declares that the dead know not anything, their hatred and love have alike perished. We must come to the sure word of prophecy for our authority. Unless we are intelligent in the Scriptures, may we not, when this mighty miracle-working power of Satan is manifested in our world, be deceived and call it the workings of God; for the word of God declares that, if it were possible, the very elect should be deceived. Unless we are rooted and grounded in the truth, we shall be swept away by Satan's delusive snares. (Continued on the next slide.)

Ellen G. White Comments on The State of the Dead

...We must cling to our Bibles. If Satan can make you believe that there are things in the word of God that are not inspired, he will then be prepared to ensnare your soul. We shall have no assurance, no certainty, at the very time we need to know what is truth. Our feet should be shod with the preparation of the gospel, and the truth of God should be our shield and buckler. We must know for ourselves that we have the truth of God. Therefore let no one entertain the question whether this or that portion of the word of God is inspired. Go to work; gird on the armor of Christ's righteousness."-The Review and Herald, December 18, 1888, paragraph 24.

"I saw that the saints must get a thorough understanding of present truth, which they will be obliged to maintain from the Scriptures. They must understand the state of the dead; for the spirits of devils will yet appear to them, professing to be beloved friends and relatives, who will declare to them that the Sabbath has been changed, also other unscriptural doctrines. They will do all in their power to excite sympathy and will work miracles before them to confirm what they declare. The people of God must be prepared to withstand these spirits with the Bible truth that the dead know not anything, and that they who appear to them are the spirits of devils. Our minds must not be taken up with things around us, but must be occupied with the present truth and a preparation to give a reason of our hope with meekness and fear. We must seek wisdom from on high that we may stand in this day of error and delusion."-Early Writings, (1882), pages 87 & 88.

Ellen G. White Comments on The Second Death

"A few, yes, only a few, of the vast number who people the earth will be saved unto life eternal, while the masses who have not perfected their souls in obeying the truth will be appointed to the second death.[emphasis added]"-Maranatha, (1976), page 251.

"The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.' [Romans 6:23] While life is the inheritance of the righteous, death is the portion of the wicked. The penalty threatened is not merely temporal death, for all must suffer this. It is the second death, the opposite of everlasting life. God cannot save the sinner in his sins; but he declares that the wicked, having suffered the punishment of their guilt, shall be as though they had not been. [Continued next page.]

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 6:23 (KJV)

Says an inspired writer, 'Thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.' [Psalm 37:10] In consequence of Adam's sin, death passed upon all mankind. All alike go down into the grave. But through the provisions of the plan of salvation, all are to be brought forth from their graves. Then those who have not secured the pardon of their sins must receive the penalty of transgression. [Continued next page.]

"For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be." Psalm 37:10 (KJV)

They suffer punishment varying in duration and intensity according to their works, but finally ending in the second death. Covered with infamy, they sink into hopeless, eternal oblivion."- The Spirit of Prophecy Volume Four, (1884), page 364.

Ellen G. White Commentary

"Satan rushes into the midst of his followers and tries to stir up the multitude to action. But fire from God out of heaven is rained upon them, and the great men, and mighty men, the noble, the poor and miserable, are all consumed together. I saw that some were quickly destroyed, while others suffered longer. They were punished according to the deeds done in the body. Some were many days consuming, and just as long as there was a portion of them unconsumed, all the sense of suffering remained. Said the angel, 'The worm of life shall not die; their fire shall not be quenched as long as there is the least particle for it to prey upon.'

Ellen G. White Commentary

Satan and his angels suffered long. Satan bore not only the weight and punishment of his own sins, but also of the sins of the redeemed host, which had been placed upon him; and he must also suffer for the ruin of souls which he had caused. Then I saw that Satan and all the wicked host were consumed, and the justice of God was satisfied; and all the angelic host, and all the redeemed saints, with a loud voice said, 'Amen!' [Continued next page.]

Ellen G. White Commentary (Cont.)

Said the angel, 'Satan is the root, his children are the branches. They are now consumed root and branch. They have died an everlasting death. They are never to have a resurrection, and God will have a clean universe.' I then looked and saw the fire which had consumed the wicked, burning up the rubbish and purifying the earth. Again I looked and saw the earth purified. There was not a single sign of the curse. The broken, uneven surface of the earth now looked like a level, extensive plain. God's entire universe was clean, and the great controversy was forever ended. [Continued next page.]

...Wherever we looked, everything upon which the eye rested was beautiful and holy. And all the redeemed host, old and young, great and small, cast their glittering crowns at the feet of their Redeemer, and prostrated themselves in adoration before Him, and worshiped Him that liveth forever and ever. The beautiful new earth, with all its glory, was the eternal inheritance of the saints. The kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, was then given to the saints of the Most High, who were to possess it forever, even forever and ever."-Early Writings, (1882), pages 294 and 295.

Matrix Comments

(immortality of the soul)

This Code matrix was inspired by a discussion regarding the "immortality of the soul". The matrix discoverer looked in the Tanakh for the expression "immortality of the soul" (10 letters in Hebrew, if one uses the shorter spelling). Amazing Bible Codes (ABC) Decoder indicated 0 occurrences were expected and 1 was actually found. The phrase was not extendable but 2 interesting terms exist adjacent to it on the same string of letters, running exactly parallel and separated by 5 letters, "an error" and "a deceit yes".

(from God lament about the second death)

The Bible code matrix discoverer, said that he used the Hebrew spelling found in Franz Delitzsch's version in Revelation 20:14.

הַמּוֹת הַשְּׁנִי וְהַמּוֹת וְהַשְּׂאוֹל הַשְּׁלֵכוּ בְּאֵגְם-הָאֵשׁ וְהוּא 14

The longest, and most interesting one, was found in the Aramaic New Testament (NT) also known as the Peshitta. 8 occurrences were expected and 8 were found. The lowest skip was extendable to the phrase "from God; be deeply grieved about the second death" which crosses several interesting surface texts that discuss relevant topics (STR codes).
