6/5/2023 12:45:09 AM	A P O	Cooper had his 10th meet and greet on 5/28/23 with Cami and her dogs. There has been progress shown with each meeting and Cooper shows no reactivity beyond the initial lunge, which then evolves into walking next to each other with relaxed posture, and no engagement or reactions. // Cami wishes to adopt Cooper and will continue w/ dog meet & greets to continue to build the dogs relationships.
5/13/2023 11:05:07 PM	A P O	Cooper has had 4 meet & greets with an interested adopter and her dog. There is progress with closing the distance between dogs and positive association shown with the meetings.
11/25/2022 10:31:18 PM	A P O	Cooper is very strong on a leash. Food and affection motivated. Loves walks & hikes. Gets anxious and agitated around other dogs. No dog parks or off leash areas. // Cooper may jump up if over stimulated in play yard and needs to be calmly redirected.

1/31/2022 11:52:55 AM	Behavior Notes	Bite Assessment: Level 1 - Pre-bite - air bite with no contact. Cooper regularly presents this level of bite. It is preceded with lip licking, head turning and general agitation. This is driven by his general state of elevated anxiety which is worsened by the kennel environment. Level 3? - 3A- skin puncture single shallow bite. Cooper has 3 unreported bites that are unknown the severity of the bites and if medical treatment was necessary. 2 involved children. As stated above Cooper has a lot of signs of heightening anxiety prior to snapping and biting.

Behavior Notes

NOTES FROM EMAIL CORRESPONDENCE WITH ADOPTER [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

I'll start with the good. Indoors, Cooper is amazing. He's gentle and cuddly. I've gotten him to sit, to stay, and to lie down with training over the last week. He's learned to sit when I put his leash on to go out and understands "off," which is good because he likes to try and jump in bed with me. We play fetch inside (as much as you can in an apartment) and he's great at retrieving and understands when to drop. He's also not reactive at all to children, I've discovered. I walk him past a nearby elementary school every day, often when school is getting out and there are lots of kids around, and he's not aggressive or fearful at all. He actually likes to be pet by kids of elementary school age. It's possible younger ones aren't as good, but he seems to have no issues with these kids, who are complete strangers.

Now, the bad. Outside, Cooper is an entirely different dog. He doesn't respond to his name or any commands. He's not even motivated by treats, which is a shock because he loves them while we're at home. He's also incredibly animal reactive (which I knew when I adopted him, but I didn't think it would be THIS bad). Dogs, cats, squirrels - it doesn't matter if the animal is inside or outside. He barks, he rears up, he pulls on his leash.... This makes it almost impossible to take him for a walk. I've tried redirecting him with treats and toys, but it doesn't work. The only solution is to keep moving, but even that isn't for sure. He can be distracted by a single squirrel for an entire block and, by the time we've gone a block, we've usually run into another animal.

This is frustrating because Cooper is an outside dog. He belongs outside. He's happiest when he's outside. He needs more outside time than I can give, and I've been giving him a lot. We usually walk 4-6 miles each day. That's about 2.5 hours out of my day and it's really the max I can devote to him without falling behind with chores around the house. But he needs more. If I had a fenced yard or a big piece of property in the country, I'd leave him outside at all hours so he could run around. I let him off leash at the park yesterday to test the waters. He was good for about 5 minutes and then he caught sight of a squirrel and sprinted two blocks, crossing traffic, to go after it. I literally had to corner him in somebody's backyard to get him back on leash. He just ignored me.

I'm stuck. Anti-anxiety medication would help, for sure, but it takes a while to kick in and there's a chance it might not be effective. I'm not sure I can handle anxious Cooper 24/7 for another month or more. I'm not even sure I can handle him for another week. I'm reaching out to see if you all have any tips or advice. Unless something starts to change soon, I think I need to take him back.

It breaks my heart to say it, but I think it's what's best for him. I love Cooper so much. More than I thought I would after only about a week. I think he would be the perfect dog for me if I had the right space for him. He needs a fenced space without other animals where he can get some training off leash and outdoors. I know there are off leash dog parks around Spokane, but with how reactive he is towards other animals, I'm terrified of taking him there.

I have been taking him out early in the morning and it does help, but not too much. The only difference is that instead of seeing other animals out and about, he sees them in windows and backyards and reacts accordingly. And the squirrels are always out. I do try and get him away from other animals while we're walking, but he has a big radius, for lack of a better term. He'll see a dog 2-3 blocks away and start to pull on his leash towards them and whine.

I have an appointment with a vet for Monday the 15th! I'm not sure I'll make it that long, but we'll see what happens.

He has some good toys. I've been using the squeaky one you all gave me and I bought him some as well, including a Kong. He's just less interested in them than he is in sitting at the slider and staring outside.

11/5/2021 6:44:36 PM	Ownership Notes	██████████ (55972) returned Cooper (6644) on 11/5/21. The reason for return is that cooper is too anxious and animal reactive, barking and lunging at any animal he sees on walks, noticing them from blocks away, and will not respond to commands. Also states that cooper is good with strangers and other people, is house trained. Sponsored adoption.	██████████

9/7/2021 12:41:28 PM	Behavior Notes	I brought my cat in today to meet dogs. I brought Cooper into the office to get a harness on and he became very aroused and started barking, lunging, and running around the crate to get to the cat. GHC	██████████
8/24/2021 6:32:37 PM	Behavior Notes	I spent an hour with Cooper today. He got excited at other dogs outside but calmed down pretty quickly. He is easily over aroused and would come back to me for support but would be very jumpy and nippy. I took him inside to the office and he loved the toy bin. He did well while I brushed him out but after about a half hour playing fetch and hanging out he got really agitated and aroused for no apparent reason and started jumping up on me and snapping. This is his tell he's over aroused. Recommend CBD and/or psych meds. GHC	██████████

POST OPERATIVE INSTRUCTIONS

Your animal has just been Spayed/ Neutered. Although this is a routine procedure, it is major surgery and strict post-operative care must be followed. You must restrict the Animal's activity for the next ten days to allow the tissues time to heal & avoid causing the incision to open. Cats should stay indoors. All dogs should go out on a leash to urinate/defecate & then return inside to rest. Keep the incision site dry and do not bathe or apply topical ointment during the recovery period.

- Check the incision site twice daily for the next 7-10 days.
- For the next 10 days, No running, jumping, being crazy, licking at the incision or bathing
- Females should have NO drainage; Redness & swelling should be minimal.
- The incision for male dogs is directly on the scrotum & is left open to allow for drainage. Small amounts of drainage/ discharge IS normal for up to three days for the male dog. Too much activity causes increased drainage, so activity restriction is very important.
- Do not allow females or males to lick or chew at the incision. If this occurs, an Elizabethan collar MUST be applied to prevent additional licking/chewing that could cause infection.

Minimal redness & swelling of the surgery site should resolve within several days, but if they persist longer, please call our office at (509) 477- 2532. After office hours, please call your primary veterinarian. You should also contact us immediately if you notice any of the following: pale gums, depression, unsteady gait, loss of appetite or decreased water intake, vomiting, diarrhea, discharge or bleeding from the incision, difficulty urinating or defecating, labored breathing. Do not give human medication to the Animal. It is dangerous & can be fatal.

We will make every reasonable effort to treat post-operative complications resulting directly from the surgery IF the above post-operative instructions are followed in full. Minimal costs may accrue at this time. Your regular veterinarian must address illnesses or injuries that are not a direct result of surgery. Please call for an appointment as soon as you see any cause for concern at (509) 477- 2532. After office hours, please seek your primary veterinarian for assistance.

* Appetite should return gradually within 24 hours of surgery. Do not change the animal's diet at this time, & do not give them junk food, table scraps, milk, or any other people food during the recovery period. Feeding them their regular diet will help avoid gastro-intestinal upset.

* Keep males away from un-spayed females for 30 days. Keep females away from unneutered males for seven days. Be prepared to keep pets separate during the recovery period.

* The Animal received a green tattoo next to their incision to indicate that they have been sterilized. IT IS NOT AN EXTRA INCISION. (Male cats will not have a tattoo)

FUTURE CARE OF YOUR NEW PET- If your adopted animal is around 6 months or younger, please be aware that "booster" vaccine(s) may be needed to finish their vaccine series. SCRAPs provides a weekly vaccine clinic for the general public on Wednesdays from 2-6 pm. Please feel free to finish the series with us at this "drop-in style" clinic.

Our veterinarian recommends that you establish a wellness program for your new pet with a regular full-service veterinarian.

Thank you so much for adopting with us! Congratulations on bringing home your new furry friend!
