MOONER BEACH HAS NEW ADOPT-A-BEACH GUARDIANS

Mooner Beach was registered with the Adopt a Beach program through the Texas General Land office in 2014. At that time it was called the Gen-Zen Program and was administered by Rhonda Castro as guardian of the beach. Rhonda spent several years working on keeping the beach in good shape and just generally doing a great job of taking care of it. She is no longer living in the area so new guardians have adopted Mooner Beach.

The San Leon Beach Pub and the Savoie Family are the new official Adopt-a-Beach Guardians. They, along with a group of like-minded community members, are in the process of addressing some of the issues at the beach. There are plans in the works for a little more signage as well as a parking plan and regular clean-up days planned. The Beachkeepers are committed to keeping Mooner Beach a beautiful, natural, and peaceful little part of San Leon.

CAN YOU ESCAPE?

What is going on with all these Escape Rooms? Why would someone pay to go into a room to escape? Well, The Seabreeze News just had to get to the bottom of this nonsense. These Escape Rooms started popping up in North America around 2010.

They are also known as escape game or puzzle room. There are so many choices, Galveston, Webster and Kemah. I could go on and on. All these Escape Rooms have different themes.

You can escape from a UFO room, a wicked doll room, and even a shipwreck room.

The Seabreeze News chose the Bolivar Escape Room located at 4298 Hwy 87 in Port Bolivar (no need to get the ferry involved).

Keep in mind I had no clue what an Escape Room is. Do they lock you in a room and you have to figure out how to get out? That doesn't sound like fun to me. I made it to the Bolivar Escape Room early and met up with owner, Leanne. She answered a few questions I had like, "What is the theme of the room that I will be going in?" Leanne replied, "An asylum." Okay. I thought, "Wow. What have I gotten myself into? I don't even watch scary movies!" I also asked how long will this take and Leanne said it usually takes an hour.

The group that I was going to escape with showed up, a mother, father, their two teenage kids, and the grandparents. They told Leanne and I that they do Escape Rooms all the time. They went on to say that there are Escape Rooms all over Houston and Beaumont. Leanne told us that we had an hour to help Edna escape before the doctor comes back to give Edna shock therapy. Edward had already escaped and he left clues on how to help Edna escape. Leanne said that she will be watching and if we seemed stuck, she would help us out. The group agreed that if we got stuck, we all had to agree to getting help. Leanne asked if there were any questions, and there was one question that The Seabreeze had and it was, "Are we going to be locked in there?" Leanne chuckled and said, "No. Your first clue was on the back of the door." I can't go into details, but that was a blast! We worked as a group and made it out in less than an hour so we were successful in helping Edna escape.

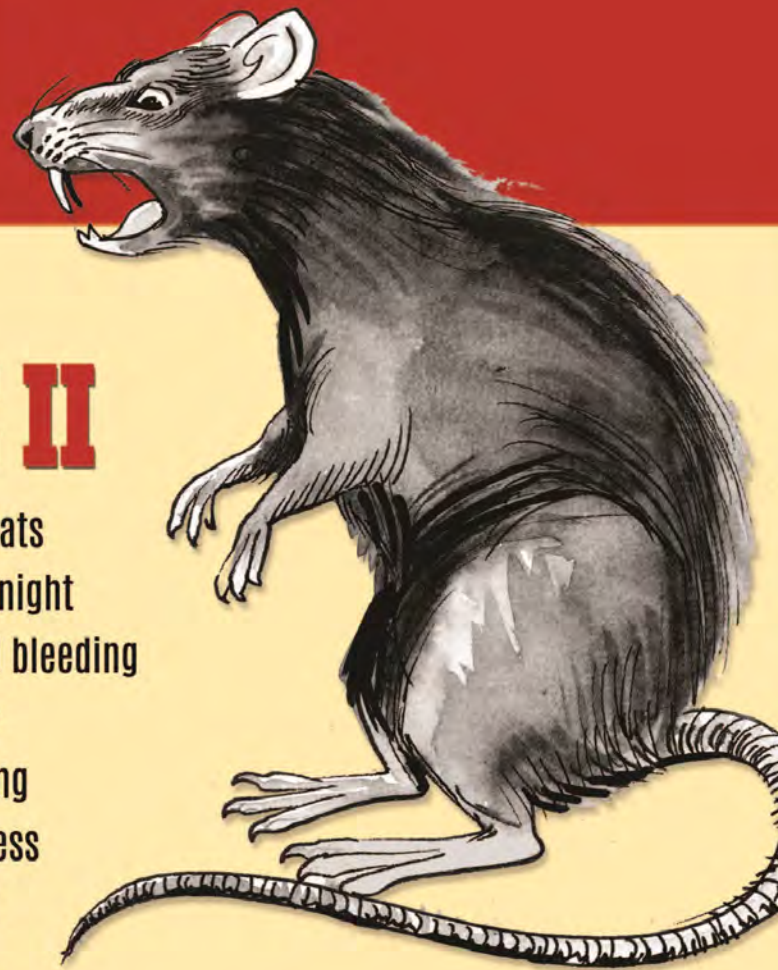

Some companies send employees to these Escape Rooms to help them with team building. I can see where that can help. If you don't work as a group, it would make it almost impossible to get all the clues. We did get stuck at one point and Leanne asked if we needed help. The group was ready to get some help but not the grandfather. This man was a real go-getter. He finally figured out the clue that the rest of us couldn't and we moved on to the second room.

This is good family fun, or I can see a group of women getting together to do this. Most of these rooms charge $25.00 and you can book and pay online. The Seabreeze News will go back and try Escape The Shipwreck. That room actually has a lot of facts about the Bolivar Peninsula so that could not only be entertaining but also informational.

Letters To The Editor

husband the footage you have and tell him that if this happens again, you will bring it to his wife's attention. It may have been the first time this happened, and it may have been the fifth time it happened, but it won't happen on your camera again. Sometimes it's best to look the other way.

Dear Readers:

Okay, okay, okay. Listen. Listen, Linda...Listen!!!

A letter to the editor goes like this: The Seabreeze News has had loyal readers for over 25 years. With that being said, we get many letters to the editor. They did slow down a little when Dear Steve left me the paper because it's not the same old address. I chose to use a P.O. Box because I live alone and I will shoot! The Seabreeze News reads through many letters and we pick the most relevant letters of what's going on in the moment. I will not answer James' letter about someone driving past his house after 1:00 am. I want to answer that one as follows: Look, James. Get a life. It was probably your waitress that served your family dinner at 7:00 pm and she still had more tables and they closed at 10:00 pm. She still had side work to do plus she wanted to go grab a bite to eat and unwind. James goes into the file of, umm, not important.

When The Seabreeze News gets a letter of importance, we do research to the best of our ability to get to the bottom of what's going on with the subject. If I get emails, letters or phone calls on a certain topic more than three times in a month, obviously my readers have a concern on a certain subject. If you are a person that is part of what I get notifications on, don't get your feelings hurt when you end up in the letters to the editor. My readers want to know. The Seabreeze News does not use names in the letters to the editor, so if the shoe fits and you are wearing it, don't get pissed at me, think about why people are reaching out to a local paper about your actions. The Seabreeze News does monitor social media, and if we miss something, we have friends that screenshot it and send it to us. The best way for you to send a letter to the editor is by email, or if you prefer, snail mail. we are good with that.

Dear Editor,
I moved to Baytown from a small town in South Carolina with my husband and two children ages 5 and 7. My husband landed a good job here that made it possible for me to be a stay-at-home mom. I left everyone I knew behind in South Carolina. I felt so alone here with no one to talk to. Sure, I would call back home and keep up with family but it's not the same as having a friend that you can go have lunch with or chat with over a cup of coffee. After a few months, when school started, I noticed my neighbor from across the street at the bus stop with three kids about the same age as mine. I finally struck up a conversation with her and we became good friends. We had so much in common. She was also new to the area and a stay-at-home mom. We would have coffee in the mornings after the children went to school. We shopped together and actually took a yoga class together. I will go as far as to say she was my best friend.

There had been a few break-ins in the subdivision and my husband panicked. He bought the best security system money could buy. Nobody could come near our house without being recorded. The problem started when my friend took a planned trip with her kids to her home state and her husband was supposed to meet up with them in a few days. The first night my friend was gone I couldn't sleep and I went downstairs so I wouldn't wake up my husband and kids. I was playing on my phone and my security system alerted me that there was motion in the front of the house. I thought darn cats! I was so wrong! It was my friend's husband that pulled into his driveway at 1:00 am. It was all good till he walked around to the passenger side of his truck and out popped a young blond. They walked to the house holding hands. I was furious. How could he do that to his wife? It happened again the next night. I haven't told a soul, not even my husband. They came home after the vacation and he was the sweetest loving husband. I have been sick to my stomach ever since. I know this is not a normal letter to the editor, but I have nowhere else to turn. Should I show my friend the footage I have or just delete it and try to move on?

Signed,
Busted in Baytown

Dear Busted,
Wow! Just wow! I have sat on this letter for over a month. What I would do is invite them over for dinner, and when the time is right show your friend's

San Leon Don's FISHING TIPS

Don is on a first name basis with most of the local fish...

Fishing is not real hot right now with the high temperatures and the windy conditions, but the fishermen that are going are catching some specs. A lot are undersize and thrown back. Some will survive, some won't. It being a year like this may mean next year the fish will be larger and legal. I've had reports of lots of sheephead and drum, not the favorite fish being caught in our bay system. Reds are in good supply if you can find them. I've always liked fall fishing and we will see how that pans out this year.

DEAR STEVE'S WIFE TRAINING SCHOOL TIPS FROM A GRADUATE

PREPARING YOUR DAUGHTER FOR MARRIAGE

First, I must apologize to my editor for slugging this month. You may not know it, but I am writing this column just 12 hours before our beloved Seabreeze News goes to print. You see, my daughter received a proposal from a very eligible young man who took the time to ask me for her hand in marriage. This took me completely off guard. I mean, I didn't even know men like this existed anymore! He is handsome, respectful, can work on cars, has a home, has a career, loves my daughter, and comes from a good family.

Not that I didn't think my baby girl deserved all of this and more in a man, but did I have her ready? Hell, the thought of putting her through our Dear Steve's Wife Training School had not even crossed my mind! I mean, she is only 30 years old! What if he changed his mind? What if I hadn't done my job as a mother? All this time being spent on being a good wife. All this time! Had I passed these traits on to her?

Well, I have just been a nervous wreck! So after telling him yes, of course I went into survivor mode. I had to be sure! My future grandchildren depended on it! Bless her heart, she was blindsided. I couldn't explain to her why I was suddenly behaving in such a manner. I had promised him to keep it a secret as he hadn't popped the question yet. But I HAD to be sure. I HAD to be sure she was ready!

I immediately started monitoring her daily routine. I stood by as she washed clothes making sure she put just the right amount of laundry soap in each load. Watching that she didn't dry clothing that should be hung to dry. "Be sure and fold the clothes as they come out of the dryer," I would say. It assures your clothes have no wrinkles. Cooking became a mother and daughter night out. Spices here and spices there. What went with what was what it's all about. Preheat the oven, it's a must! We were both covered with flour dust. Coffee in the morning went from, "How you are feeling" to "Hey, you feel like a run, maybe a bike ride or some time in the sun?" Who had I become? This was my daughter who I had raised. Of course, she was ready, and I was insane! So here I sit, planning a wedding with her future at stake and praying my training will be enough to see her cut that cake!

And while I'm fairly confident that I've taught her all she needs to know, I have scheduled some refresher courses in some classes. We're going to need to still go over Intro to Housecleaning, Intermediate Housecleaning, and then Advanced Housecleaning, and Thrifty Grocery Shopping. Then there is How to Effectively Organize the Garage, House Painting—Interior and Exterior, Pressure Washing, Yard Care (mowing, weedeating, and fertilization schedule). Further advanced classes will include Organizing and Caring for his Fishing Gear, How to Process all Hunting Prizes, and Fish Cleaning and Cooking. We will then move on to Basic Automobile Repair and Maintenance. The Extra Credit courses will be How to Get Him a Beer without Complaining About It, Being Nice to His Friends Even When They're Jerks, and How to Make Sure You Look Your Best for Him at All Times.

My advice to all mothers with daughters of marital age is this: Be sure you have passed on all your good wife traits. If you've not, do not fear, you still have time to send them to wife school, dear.

Funny Bones

What does a blonde name her pet zebra?
Spot

Huggy called the SPCA today and said, "I've just found a suitcase in the woods containing a fox with four cubs." "That's terrible," the SPCA officer responded. "Are they moving?" "I'm not sure," Huggy says, "but that would explain the suitcase!!"

What goes vroom-screech, vroom-screech?
A blonde driving through a flashing red light.

Daffy Duck and Elmer Fudd break into a distillery. Daffy turns to Elmer and says: "Is this Whiskey?"
Elmer says: "Yeth, but not as whiskey as wobbing a bank!!"

What is a blond doing when she gasps at the air?
Collecting her thoughts?

One day when Jake and Harvey were in the Kemah Wal-Mart, they decided to get in on the weekly charity raffle. They each bought five tickets at a dollar a pop. The following week, when the raffle was drawn, each had won a prize. Jake won 1st place - a year's supply of gourmet spaghetti sauce and extra-long spaghetti. Harvey won 6th prize - a toilet brush. About a week or so had passed when the men met back at Wal-Mart. Harvey asked Jake how he liked his prize, to which Jake replied, "Great! I love spaghetti!" Jake asked Harvey, "How 'bout you, how's the toilet brush?" "Not so good," replied Harvey, "I reckon I'm gonna switch back to paper."

What did the blonde yell in an emergency?
What's the number for 911?

Stevie and Gary were on vacation, walking downtown, window shopping, and they see a sign on a store which reads, "Suits $5.99 each, shirts $1.99 each, trousers $2.49 each. Stevie says to his pal, "Gary, lookee here! We could buy a whole gob o' these, take 'em back to Oklahoma, sell 'em and make a fortune. Just let me do the talkin', 'cause if they hear your accent, they might think we're ignorant, and not wanna sell that stuff to us." Now, I'll talk in a slow Texas drawl so's they don't know we is from Oklahoma." They go in and Stevie says with his best fake Texas drawl, "I'll take 50 of them suits at $5.99, 100 of them there shirts at $1.99, 50 pairs of them there trousers at $2.39. I'll back up my pickup and...." The owner of the shop interrupts, "Y'all from Oklahoma, ain't ya?" "Well...yeah," says a surprised Stevie. "How come y'all knowed that?" "Because this is a Dry-Cleaners."

Two blondes were walking along. One looked down and said, "Those are deer tracks." The other said, "No, those are bear tracks." They were still standing there arguing when the train came along and ran over them.

A blonde was taking helicopter lessons. The instructor said, "I would radio you every 1,000 feet to see how you are doing." At 1,000 feet, the instructor radioed her to tell she was doing great. At 2,000 feet, the instructor radioed her to tell her again, she was doing great. As the helicopter got to 3,000 feet, the instructor saw the helicopter coming down, spiraling until it landed. The instructor ran to see if the blonde was hurt and was surprised to find she was not. He asked what happened. The blonde replied, "I don't understand. I was doing great until I got up to 3,000 feet and started feeling cold, so I turned the big fan off."

Earl and Johnny are quietly sitting in a boat on the river, fishing, chewing tobacco and drinking beer when suddenly Johnny says, "Think I'm gonna divorce the wife - she ain't spoke to me in over 2 months." Earl spits overboard, takes a long, slow sip of beer and says, "Better think it over.....women like that are hard to find."

Only in America ...
... can a pizza get to your house faster then an ambulance.
... are there handicap parking places in front of a skating rink.
... do drugstores make the sick walk all the way to the back of the store to get their prescriptions.
... do people order double cheese burgers, large fries, and diet coke.
... do banks leave both doors wide open and then chain the pens to the counter.

San Leon MUD Update

August is National Water Quality Month!

Just try to imagine what life would be like without easy access to clean water. There would be no fountains to quench your thirst when you're out on a hot day. No more pools, and no more lakes and rivers clean enough for recreational activities. No more drinking water straight from the tap, or even filtering it through your Brita. Our lives would be totally different, and not for the better. National Water Quality Month reminds us to take a moment to consider how important these water sources are not just to humans, but also to the other inhabitants of these ecosystems. By thinking about the little things that you do on a daily basis that could have a negative effect on water quality, you'll be one step closer to making a difference. Visit www.nationalwaterqualitymonth.org for tips on how you can help preserve and protect our natural resources.

Catch Of The Month

- A. Krystal with a great big 34-pound red.
- B. Tommielynn snags one in her lucky fishing shirt..
- C. Shana with some beauties.
- D. William with nice one at a secret undisclosed location.
- E. San Leon's Angels had a great day on the water..
- F. Rich with a mess of fish! Way to go!
- G. Angie hauled in this beauty.

Send your photo to thesebreeze2020@gmail.com. Who caught the fish, what kind it is, how much it weighed, and what kind of beer & bait the angler was using and any pertinent info you want to see printed in the paper. Ever since our crystal ball got lost in Hurricane Ike, we have no way of knowing these vital facts unless you tell us.

MOONER BEACH UPCOMING FALL COMMUNITY BEACH CLEAN-UP SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17TH, 2022

PLAN AHEAD:

Wear closed-toe shoes, bring plenty of drinking water & wear a hat. Consider bringing your own set of garden or work gloves and a reusable water bottle. About the Texas Adopt-A-Beach Program: There are two coastwide cleanups each year, one in the fall, generally held on the fourth Saturday of September and one in the spring, generally held on the fourth Saturday in April. Since the 1st clean-up in 1986, more than 557,000 Texas Adopt-A-Beach volunteers have picked up more than 9,700 tons of trash from Texas Beaches.

Serving the San Leon and Surrounding Communities!

What is Home Health?

- If your physician sees a need for ongoing treatment after your visit, then an order may be written for home health.
- Your doctor may suggest an agency but remember, it's your choice! Choose CHARTER HEALTH!
- Services may include skilled nursing, therapy such as physical, occupational, and/or speech.
- The patient must be homebound. However, you may go to the barber, family event, church, etc.
- Most, if not all service is covered by Medicare or your insurance agency.

What is Hospice Care?

- It begins when a physician certifies that the patient qualifies and is appropriate.
- It is comfort care without curative intent; patient is no longer responding to curative treatment or has elected not to further pursue such treatments.
- All expenses related to the terminal diagnosis are covered by Medicare, Medicaid and most private insurance. This includes medication.
- Care is given wherever the patient calls home.
- Can a patient get better on hospice? YES!

35TH ANNUAL AIA SANDCASTLE COMPETITION

August 20th—10:00 a.m. at East Beach—Galveston. The AIA Sandcastle Competition is a fundraising event for AIA Houston and ArCH Foundation as well as one of the top five revenue generating events for the City of Galveston. Competing teams have their eyes and shovels set on winning the prestigious Gold Bucket Award. Firms begin months in advance generating ideas, developing designs, and assigning duties. On the day of the event, the teams - stretched along the beach front - meticulously sculpt their piles of sand and work non-stop for five hours. The judging of the sculptures is rated on originality of concept, artistic execution, technical difficulty, carving technique, and utilization of the site.

SAN LEON CEMETERY COMMITTEE MEETING

Donations are used for upkeep of the cemetery and are greatly appreciated.

The SeaBreeze News

P.O. Box 354, Port Bolivar, TX 77650 - 409-229-6128

Dear Business Owner,

The Seabreeze News has been in circulation for 20 years with 5000 copies printed each month. The newspapers are distributed in Kemah, Seabrook, San Leon, Bacliff, League City, Dickinson, Texas City, Baytown, and the Bolivar Peninsula. The Seabreeze News can be found in locations ranging from fine dining establishments to bait camps.

Each month we deliver 300 papers to the Galveston County building in League City. 500 papers are delivered to 4 different newspaper boxes.

We are looking for some fun new advertisers. There is no contract required, the rates are great, and the owner will personally deliver your papers.

If you are interested in reaching 5000 readers, give me a call.

5 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT STRENGTHENING YOUR HOME

1 Keep trees around your home trimmed well before a storm to prevent damage from broken branches

2 Have the proper materials in advance to board up your windows to protect them from flying debris.

3 Bring loose outdoor items such as patio furniture inside. They can blow around and cause damage to homes.

4 Secure all doors on your property. Remember that the garage door is usually the most vulnerable.

5 Move your car inside a garage or to another secure location.
