LIVIN' THE "UNINCORPORATED" DREAM

-Mary Young, Publisher

So you left the big city and the big HOA fees and moved to an unincorporated part of Galveston County. What does unincorporated really mean?

Unincorporated means fireworks can be sold only at certain times of the year, typically during a week or so leading up to a major holiday. Besides Fourth of July and New Year's, Texas counties have the choice of also including Texas Independence Day (March 2), San Jacinto Day (April 21), Cinco de Mayo (May 5th), and Memorial Day. Most unincorporated areas do allow fireworks to be blown off during these times.

You might have a few dogs that get scared, shake and pee in the house because of all the noise. You can go on social media and complain, but don't dial 911. You have a few options for this.

Load your city dogs that just became country dogs (your choice, not theirs) and go near an outdoor shooting range. Every time someone shoots tell them "IT'S OK," and after a few times of taking the new country dogs there, they will get use to it, or you can go to the vet and buy them some doggie downers. They also sell CBD for dogs. Don't call 911, They are busy with other holiday BS like gunshots, DWIs and family violence calls. After all, you moved to an unincorporated part of Galveston County. There is no police department. We have the Sheriff's department that you have to share with the rest of Galveston County. The patrol division is headed by Captain Ray Nolan. The unincorporated communities served by the Galveston County Sheriff's Office are San Leon, Bacliff, High Island, Gilchrist, Crystal Beach, Port Bolivar, and Freddiesville. They also serve the unincorporated areas of Dickinson and Santa Fe and assist with other cities in Galveston County as needed.

Another point of being "unincorporated" means you could purchase property and build your dream home amongst a bunch of empty lots, well old Dav the slumlord might just put a trashy RV park to your left and who knows what's going to be built to your right, it might be a shanty for a single mom and five kids. Those five kids just received a bike from the volunteer fire department for Christmas, and they are in the street and riding through the front of your yard that's not fenced in, with their unleashed dog. Your dogs are in the fenced backyard going crazy because of the noises they are not used to. Nope you can't call the cops on that either.

You also have the shit head neighbor with a dog that barks all night, or the owner who just lets it run loose.

You could also have the roosters... the one that starts crowing at 2 am and the other that begins at 4 am.

Welcome to the unincorporated part of Galveston County.

But look on the bright side, you have NO HOA fees!

50 Years in Prison for Repeat Drunk Driver

Keith Aaron Brazier

GALVESTON –

Keith Aaron Brazier pled guilty to two charges of murder and one charge of intoxicated assault and was sentenced to a term of 50 years in prison for last year's drunk driving crash in Galveston that killed two teenagers and severely injured a third.

On September 2, 2022, Brazier was speeding and driving while intoxicated when he ran a red light and struck a Jeep that was carrying four Ball High School students at 41st and Ave. O on Galveston Island. One of the students was killed on the scene, and another died in the following days while at University of Texas Medical Branch. A third student suffered severe head trauma but survived the crash.

Brazier had been released from prison that same day at 10:30 a.m. for a conviction of driving while intoxicated – third offense, less than eight hours before the crash. Brazier returned to Galveston County that morning. A witness who was in Brazier's vehicle at the time of the crash told police that he and Brazier had visited multiple bars on Galveston Island throughout the day. Brazier was removed from the bar Sharky's by management approximately an hour before the crash.

Galveston Police obtained a search warrant for Brazier's blood after the crash, and later test results showed Brazier to have a blood-alcohol content of 0.217, well over double the legal limit of 0.08..

At the time of plea, parents of the two murder victims gave victim impact testimony to the Court. The family had approved of the plea for 50 years, and attempted to describe to the Court how the loss of their sons has affected the family and community.

The District Attorney's Office thanks the Galveston Police Department for their excellent work in this case, as well as the Texas Department of Public Safety Crime Lab and the Galveston County Medical Examiner's Office.

State of Texas vs. Keith Aaron Brazier, Cause Nos. 22-CR-3403, 3404, & 3405 in the 212th Judicial District Court, the honorable Patricia Grady, presiding.

Court records for Galveston County cases are available from the Galveston County Clerk (for misdemeanor cases) and the Galveston County District Clerk (for felony cases). Most court records are available online at:

FUNNY BONES

I ordered a chicken and an egg from Amazon. I'll let you know.

I asked the librarian if the library had any books on paranoia. She whispered, "They're right behind you."

The Pentagon was originally going to just be a square but the contractor kept cutting corners.

I told my wife she should embrace her mistakes. She gave me a hug.

Why do seagulls fly over the sea? Because if they flew over the bay, they'd be bagels!

Why don't scientists trust atoms? Because they make up everything!

Boss to employees: "We will continue to have these meetings every single day until I work out why no work is being done!"

My friend thinks he is smart. He told me an onion is the only food that makes you cry, so I threw a coconut at his face.

A bus full of ugly people had a head on collision with a truck. When they died, God granted all of them one wish. The first person said, "I want to be gorgeous." God snapped his fingers and it happened. The second person said the same thing and God did the same thing. This went on and on throughout the group. God noticed the last man in line was laughing hysterically. By the time God got to the last ten people, the last man was laughing and rolling on the ground. When the man's turn came, he laughed and said, "I wish they were all ugly again."

Instead of "the John," I call my toilet "the Jim." That way it sounds better when I say I go to the Jim first thing every morning.

A police officer attempts to stop a car for speeding and the guy gradually increases his speed until he's topping 100 mph. The man eventually realizes he can't escape and finally pulls over. The cop approaches the car and says, "It's been a long day and my shift is almost over, so if you can give me a good excuse for your behavior, I'll let you go." The guy thinks for a few seconds and then says, "My wife ran away with a cop about a week ago. I thought you might be that officer trying to give her back!"

infrastructure, at the same time refinancing much of our outstanding bonds to take advantage of the historically low market rates

These successes have been great for the community and could not have happened but for the excellent team of staff and consultants that the District has worked with these past few years. While these successes have set San Leon on a trajectory for continued growth, the time has come for me to move into another role with a different organization. I have truly cherished the time I've spent here in San Leon and fully expected that I would retire from here many years from now, but an excellent opportunity arose that will prove beneficial for my family. I know I leave San Leon in capable hands, with a Board of Directors who truly care and a competent staff that will keep San Leon MUD headed in the right direction for years to come.

Until next we meet,

Andrew Miller
District Manager,
San Leon MUD

Dear Editor,

January will mark six years that I've been the District Manager for San Leon MUD.

During that time, we've been through some pretty significant changes:

- An expansion at our wastewater plant that will ensure proper treatment and disinfection for existing and future residents
- A resiliency project at the water tower relocating our motor control center and SCADA equipment into the tower and out of the floodplain
- An exponential increase in new development interest, up from only a handful of new tap requests per month back in 2018 to more than 60 requests for new service in recent months
- We've returned the District to fiscal solvency, slowly but surely addressing a history of budget deficit
- We've seen the District's tax rates drop from $0.63 per $100 valuation back in 2019 down to only $0.471 per $100 valuation for 2023
- We've procured nearly $15 million in low-interest, no-interest, and grant funds through the Texas Water Development Board to shore up our aging

San Leon MUD Update

What is a sewer cleanout?

A sewer cleanout is a PVC pipe and cap, typically 4" in diameter, that intersects with the sewer line that runs from your home to the District's main lines. It provides an access point for plumbers to diagnose and repair backups in the line that connects to the District's main line. It should be kept closed to function properly, as being left open will result in rain water getting into the District's collection system and inundating the wastewater treatment plant with unnecessary flow. If you have any questions about the location of your cleanout or how to replace a damaged cap, just call the office!

ABOUT TXEQ

Texas EquuSearch is a 501(c)3 nonprofit volunteer search and recovery organization. Texas EquuSearch never charges a family or law enforcement entity for their services. Headquartered near Houston, Texas, resources have evolved far beyond the original horse mounted searches. Today, searches include the use of ground searchers, side scan sonar, ground penetrating radar, boats, aircrafts, drones, and ATVs. Many law enforcement agencies across the United States call on the resources of the organization's highly skilled searchers to assist in their lost, missing or murder victim cases.

Throughout the years, Tim Miller and the organization have received numerous awards from law enforcement agencies and grateful community groups, recognition from media partners, and countless thank you's from families of missing loved ones.

Texas EquuSearch has assisted in thousands of cases throughout the US and abroad giving some form of resolution to distraught families as well as closure to many criminal cases. There is no doubt that Executive Director, Tim Miller and his team lend credence to the age-old saying... "Volunteers are not unpaid because they are worthless. They are unpaid because they are PRICELESS!"

Tim Miller has dedicated this globally recognized organization to his beloved daughter, Laura. The motto "Lost is Not Alone" is the standard by which each search is predicated upon.

Dear Robbie,

I'm hoping you can give me some advice on my situation. I lived in San Leon for four years and an old roommate called and said she was getting a divorce because her husband treats her son like crap (hers not his).

the construction crap out of the yard. She got me a job working in the restaurant that she worked in (I needed income). She was working on all the licensing stuff that we needed to open the business.

She also said that she had a business proposition for me. I drove up to Willis Texas to inquire about the business idea. I got to the house and the yard was a little in disarray and the house was pretty dirty. She explained that all the junk in the yard was the husbands and she had just been working so much that she had barely any time for house work.

Three months down the road we are still working in the restaurant and that piece of crap husband is now staying almost every night at the house where I pay half the bills, eating the food I buy and watching the cable tv that I pay for. He has put more junk in the yard and she hasn't even gotten the DBA for the business.

Robbie, what should I do?
-Signed Feeling Used In Willis

Her business idea was to start cleaning Airbnb's on Lake Conroe. It sounded good and she and I became roommates again. I spent the first week cleaning that nasty house and the husband was supposed to get
