

Southern States Classic

18-22 May 2022

REQUIREMENTS: Entrants must be a Southerner, want to be a Southerner, or drive through a Southern state to get to the match. Entrants must have prior High Power Rifle competition experience (e.g. an NRA or CMP high power rifle classification).

SQUADDING: Will be done in ADVANCE and is based on NRA HP classification. The top shooters from each day may be re-squadded.

PRE-REGISTRATION and ENTRY INFORMATION: An entry by PractiScore, https://practiscore.com/clubs/southern_states_classic or a mail in form and check is required to be pre-squadded and receive a T-shirt. No refunds will be made for cancellations after 11 May 2022; exceptions will be made for emergency situations.

CLASSIFICATION: The NRA Classification system will be used.

RULES: The NRA HP rule book will govern the match, although this is not a NRA registered or approved tournament. The Match Director and Range Officer will act as the jury, and prevail as final judges.

AWARDS: Cash awards to trophy winners ($100 overall winner, $50 each to top SR and MR). There must be a minimum of 5, 8 and 11 entries for 1st ($30), 2nd ($20), and 3rd ($10) respectively, in Grand Aggregate class awards. Additional awards will be at the Match Director's discretion. Awards will also be paid to top Civilian and top Military teams in the team match.
