Our Pastor

Rev. Paul Barton, Ph.D,. joined Casa Emanu-El in November 2020. He has served five Spanish-speaking and bilingual congregations in Texas, taught at the Seminary of the Southwest, and administered theological programs at Perkins School of Theology. He is an ordained elder of the Rio Texas Conference, UMC, and author of the book "Hispanic Methodists, Presbyterians, and Baptists in Texas." He is finishing a three-year program in spiritual direction and leadership.

He has been married to Beth for 34 years. They have a daughter, Elisa, and son-in-law Surendra. They enjoy their cats, Beth enjoys gardening, and Paul enjoys reading.
