

Beach Vacation Part 2

(By: Karen Murray)

The tops were fairly standard, two small triangles of cloth with some strings to tie behind our necks and backs. The bottoms however were quite interesting. One triangle of cloth with two strings from one point. We were instructed to hold the triangle against our mound while the boys pulled the two strings between our legs, up into our ass cracks. They then tied a knot in the strings at the top of our ass crack. Bringing the two strings around our hips, they threaded the strings through eyelets across the top of the triangle and tied a bow when they met in the center. This allowed the triangle to cover our slits (it could be spread out or bunched up thin depending on how much shaven mound they wanted to show off), but left our ass cheeks bare for everyone to see. The boys put on their suits and we left for the beach.

We spent the morning (what was left of it) just lying in the sun. The boys made sure we were properly covered with sunscreen. They took turns rubbing it all over our exposed skin, especially our pale ass cheeks. The boys talked between themselves and let Cathy and I do some girl talking. (What we talked about would be too much for this story and I may use it for another.) In early afternoon, the boys got hungry and we picked up our stuff and went to lunch. We went to a small burger place. The boys got seats and Cathy and I went up to the counter to get the food (and show off our shiny ass cheeks to everyone). After we ate, Dave and I cuddled up together while the boys talked some more. Dave had his arm around me, with his hand down toward my cunt. At one point, he took his soda and got out a small piece of ice. Hidden by the table, he slipped his hand under the skimpy triangle covering my slit and rubbed that piece of ice against my hot clittie. If he had asked, I would have stripped and fucked him right there, I was so hot. But he didn't ask, or tell or do anything else sexual. He left the ice held against my clit by my own lips and we got up and went back to the beach. Walking back to the beach, Cathy asked me if my piece of ice had melted as quickly as hers. We giggled, and Jim looked back at us and told us we would get more later. At the beach we spent the afternoon laying in the sun and watching the people walking by. Cathy and I watched for good looking guys ('Hunk Alert') while the boys watched for girls of course ('Bimbo Alert'). Although I would not have minded getting a few of those girls stripped just for myself.

Late in the afternoon, we packed up and went back to the house. The boys took us around back to an outside shower. All four of us could fit in it, but Dave stayed out to prepare the barbecue. Jim had us take off his bathing suit and wash him completely. Surprisingly he left Cathy and I in our suits. When he was clean, he turned off the shower and had us kneel down. He repeated the mouth fuck, this time shooting his load into my mouth. He told me not to swallow it yet. He pushed Cathy and I together till our faces met. Her lips parted and we pushed his cum back and forth with our tongues until we were separated by Dave.

We each swallowed what cum we had and stripped and washed Dave. When we finished cleaning him, he repeated the mouth fuck, cumming in Cathy's mouth. She didn't need any guidance this time as we clinched and exchanged Dave's cum with our eager tongues. Dave bent over and told us that we could have some fun with each other now, but that they expected us to come out of the shower clean enough to eat.

Cathy and I swallowed Dave's cum and quickly stripped off each other's suits. We spent a long time soaping up tits, cunts and asses. We were careful not to get any soap inside our cunt holes, but I bent Cathy over and soaped her ass, carefully working one, then two fingers into her tail. I had her hands on the wall in front of her so she couldn't finger her clit. I pumped her ass until I knew she would cum at the first touch to her clit. I pulled out of her ass and rinsed her off and then rinsed myself. I told Cathy to lay down on the floor of the shower. I told her that we should check to be sure we were edible enough to please the boys. She laid down and pointed out that the shower walls left a 9 nine gap at the floor and that the boys (and the neighbors) could see us on the floor if they looked. I told her that we should give them a good show and squatted down, pushing my clean shaven soapy cunt onto her mouth and pressed my tongue against her clit. It took only a few licks on her clit to make her cum, just what I wanted) and I spent the next few minutes licking the delicious soapy cream from her clean cunt hole. Several times Cathy would lick my hole and clit just to the point of cumming and then she would push me away. Being larger and stronger than me, she kept my cunt from rubbing against her when she didn't want me to cum. After I had calmed down, she would pull me back towards her mouth and she would begin again by stuffing her tongue into my hole. Three times she brought me to the edge of orgasm only to push my cunt away before I could cum. The third time she held me with one hand on each ass cheek and began to rub my asshole with her fingertips. I pushed my tongue as deep into her cunt as I could trying to get her to let me cum. She worked on my asshole and pushed her cunt up at my tongue. She pulled my ass open and worked a finger from each hand into my tail. I licked at her hot moist hole wanting to cum, wanting her to cum. When I thought she was at the edge, I moved my mouth back to her clit and sucked her erect nub into my mouth and sucked hard. She came, intense, quick waves of pleasure swept through her. She clamped her legs around my head, keeping me in my place and she pushed her fingers into my asshole up to the second knuckle. She pulled my cunt lips open with her thumbs and drove her tongue deep into my hole. She wiggled her tongue in me until her orgasm subsided. She released my head and pulled her tongue out of my cunt. I begged her to make me cum. She laughed and said that she was going to leave my orgasm for the boys. She rolled me off her, and we hugged and kissed and she told me that I gave her two great orgasms and that we were switch roles the next day.

We got up, rinsed off one more time and prepared to leave the shower. It was twenty feet from the shower door to the back door of the house, and two very naked girls covered that distance very quickly, only to be stopped at the door by Dave. He gave us each a hand towel and told us to dry off on the back porch before coming inside. We quickly dried off in full view of any of the neighbors. We didn't see anyone else watching us, but if anyone was, they got a good show. The boys barbecued dinner outside while Cathy and I did all the inside preparations. After dinner, we went into the living room and sat, drinking good wine, listening to good music. It was a very relaxing part of the evening. After several hours (and bottles of wine), none of us were feeling any pain. Dave got up and prepared another cartridge for the [[cd]] player. When he started it, Jim stood up and stripped off his shirt and shorts. Dave did the same. Now with all four of us naked the boys announced that it was time for desert, and we were it. Cathy and I were moved to the couch, we leaned back, pulled our legs up and then out to expose our clean hairless cunts. Jim brought out a tray with some desert stuff on it. Both boys grabbed a banana, peeled it and worked it into a cunt. Dave filled mine and Jim filled Cathy's. They broke off any piece that extended beyond our lips. Then they poured chocolate syrup all over our shaven cunts. They poured a little onto each tittie. Then a spray can of whipped cream, again onto our cunts and a little on our tits. Finally a cherry to top each tit mound and one where our clit was hidden. Dave took out a Polaroid camera and took a picture of each of us. At last they began to eat us.

Slowly Dave licked away the whipped cream. He had to press his tongue against my skin to lick the chocolate off. He avoided the inside of my slit, cleaning off only the outside. I wanted him to tongue my clit and hole so much, I pushed my cunt up at his tongue, but he held me back. He switch to licking my tiny tits clean. He sucked at each nipple until it was hard and sensitive. He moved back to my cunt and pulled my lips open with his thumbs. The now softened banana peeked out, and I instinctively squeezed it, pushing out toward Dave's mouth. He put his tongue against it and pushed it back in. Then he let up and I pushed it out, then he pushed it in, and we fucked my cunt with that banana until I was ready to cum. Dave started eating the banana as I pushed it out.

When He had eaten all of it, he pressed his mouth to my cunt and pushed his tongue into my hot juicy hole. His wiggling tongue drove me over the edge and I flooded his mouth with cum. I squeezed my legs to hold his head in place until I finished creaming. When I relaxed I saw Cathy writhing in pleasure as Jim finished tonguing her. When he finished Dave told him that I had squeezed his head with my legs. Jim said that Cathy had also gotten a little carried away with her orgasm. He suggested that we be trained to cum without hurting our partners. Dave agreed and ordered me to turn over on the couch. I knelt down on the floor, bent over the couch seat. Jim had Cathy join me. Dave knelt behind me, pushed my legs apart and inserted his cock into my waiting hole. With one push he buried his cock into me. Jim did the same to Cathy and they began a slow rhythmic fuck. Dave fucked in and out until I was again on the edge of orgasm. He pushed all the way in and held me until Jim got Cathy to the same state of pleasure. They pulled out, slapped our tails, and switched places.

Quickly Jim took his position deep in my cunt and they continued their steady driving fuck. In a very short time a shattering orgasm shook me. Jim kept his even pace during my orgasm. When I was finished, he pushed in and held me, reaching under me to cup my titties. We stayed that way until Dave had finished Cathy. Here we were, two freshly fucked cunts, stuffed full of hard cocks that hadn't cum yet. When Cathy had rested, the boys pulled out and pushed us down onto the floor, my head toward Cathy's cunt. The boys came down behind us. Dave lifted Cathy's leg, Jim lifted mine, and we dove into each other's hot slit cunt. Cathy was so hot and sweet and creamy, I licked at her lips and clit and drove my tongue into her hole. Cathy vigorously returned the favor and my pleasure increased. A gentle pressure against my asshole indicated that one of the boys was about to take my tail for his pleasure. I didn't care which guy it was, they are both great fuckers and I wanted to be fucked. I loosened my ass muscles as that cock entered and sunk into my tail. A hand pushed my head away from Cathy's cunt enough to let a cock push its way into Cathy's rectum. I planted my mouth on her clit and sucked. I sucked and nibbled at her passion button. I wanted her to cum with that cock up her tail. Cathy beat me to it. By sucking on my clit she made me cum first. Again I squeezed my legs to hold her, not as hard as I did for Jim, but still she didn't pull away. I sucked at Cathy's clit again and again until she came. Her juices flowed and the sweet scent and taste of her cream filled my mind. The boys pushed us tighter together and fucked our asses until they came. When both boys had shot a load of cum into a hot ass, they pulled out and let Cathy and I lay there cuddling against each other's cunt for a while. They went and cleaned up. When they came back, they pulled us apart and Dave said that I needed more training in how to cum without squeezing the person making me cum. Jim agreed and they took Cathy away. They took her into my bedroom and strapped my 10 inch dildo onto her.

This dildo has a strap that goes around the girl's waist, threading through a strap that goes down through her crotch and up her ass. This crotch strap has an extension of the dildo on the inside. It is an arm ending in a marble sized ball. This ball fits just inside the girls cunt hole. It moves in and out of her hole and the arm rubs her clit back and forth when the girl fix the dildo in and out of someone else. It makes sure that the fucker gets an orgasm as well as the fuckee.

This time Cathy was the fucker and I was the fuckee. Not the way I had wanted it when I packed the dildo but I was ready for any kind of orgasm tonight. The boys knelt down on each side of me. They pulled my arms over my head and held them there. Then they pulled my legs up and open, exposing my shaved, licked, fucked and horny cunt to Cathy and that 10 inches of fake cock. They told her to kneel down and stuff that dildo into my hole. She got down and put the head of the dildo between my wet lips. She slowly pushed the dildo into me. Slowly, steady pushing filled me with that dildo. When she got it all the way in, she tangled one of her tits by my mouth and I licked and sucked at it, until she pulled away. Cathy moved her other tit to me and got it sucked as well. Jim slapped her on the ass and told her to give me a really good fucking. She pulled back and slammed into me. She began a hard pounding fuck. The hard thrusts quickly raised me to a plateau of pleasure that felt great. She occasionally pushed a tit to my face but pulled it back before I could suck on it. This fuck was going to take a long time. After cumming a few times, I get to the point where further sex gets me to this pleasure plateau but orgasm takes longer and they tend to become less intense and recovery takes even longer. Cathy kept pounding at my open cunt. Because the boys were holding my arms and legs, I couldn't do much to speed up my orgasm. Cathy pounded at my cunt. We were covered with sweat. I couldn't do anything but take the fuck whatever way they wanted to give it to me. Cathy jammed that dildo into me and bobbed up and down to force the little ball to finish her orgasm. Cathy collapsed on top of me. When she recovered, Dave switched places with her. When Cathy had pulled my leg open to match Jim's hold on me, Dave jammed his cock into me and repeated Cathy's pounding fuck. I don't remember if I came or not, but the pleasure of the fuck kept me in ecstasy. He pounded and pounded and eventually he shot into me. Dave and Jim switched places and Jim continued the pound fuck that Cathy had started. By the time Jim shot his load, I was completely exhausted. So completely exhausted that I fell asleep on the floor while the three of them washed and dried me. Dave carried me into our bedroom and they put me to bed. Cathy told me later that all three fondled me and kissed each sex organ good night. The boys took Cathy back into the living room and Dave gave her a licking and then Jim gave her a licking and then they went to bed. Dave coming into bed with me.
