

My Kinkiest Sex Experience Part 1

(By: SoapyLisa)

My name is Wendy, I'm a 30 year old Lesbian and although I've had a lot of Lesbian lovers in my time, I never really been into Kinky sex. However, I've got to tell you about my Kinkiest sex experience - god my pussy gets wet just thinking about it! I'll start by describing myself. I'm 5' 5", 145 lbs., with Brown hair, Green eyes. I measure 44-34-38 (I can be described as Rubinesque).

My breasts are huge as you can tell and they are very sensitive. I have above average body hair. I keep my pussy hair well trimmed, although I sometimes let it, as well as the hair under my arms grow. I love the sight of a women with lots of hair under her arms.

My Kinkiest sex experience involves a women I met at work named Kim. She is nearly the same size as I am, except she has curly blond hair. We became good friends at work and had gotten together after work a couple of times for drinks. I suspected that she might be a Lesbian or at least Bi, but I didn't want to approach her about it. If I was going to have sex with her, then it would happen eventually.

One Saturday, Kim was coming over to go shopping with me. She said that she would be here at noon, but she was a half-hour early. I had just gotten out of the shower and had to throw on a robe to answer the door. I really like soapy showers, this is so relaxing to me. I had just opened a bar of Caress Berry scented soap for my shower, I like the scent so much.

Kim was wearing a sweat suit and had a clothes bag with her. She said that she had just finished her workout. She said that she wanted to take a shower before we left for the mall. I showed her to the shower in my bedroom. She walked into the bathroom and started to undress right in front of me.

I was surprised but did not try to leave. She smiled and kept right on telling me about her workout. When she got her top and bra off, I couldn't believe my eyes. Her tits were as big as mine, with large pink nipples - Uhm! They looked so good. I wanted to suck on them so bad. I felt my pulse quicken and I gave a barely audible sigh. Kim then took off her pants and her cotton panties. I have never seen a hairier pussy in my life. She had a small trail of hair all the way up to her navel. She turned her back to me as she kicked off her panties and I could see that she had very light hair all along the crack of her ass. But then I happened to notice her underarms.

My God!! They were covered with hair. I swear I almost came just looking at her underarms. My pussy was almost dripping by this point. When she turned around, she could tell that I was turned on.

She said "Would you like to shower with me?" I couldn't get out of my clothes fast enough. I got into the shower with her and we started rubbing each other's breasts. With the warm water running down us, it felt so good. And smelled wonderful.

I leaned over and kissed her mouth, our tongues entwining. She asked me to clean her breasts, so I got the soap and worked it into a thick lather, she commented on the scent again, so I decided to give her a closer smell of the bar of Caress. I rubbed soap along her lips as if it was an accident. She loved having soap on her lips and I'd say she looked beautiful. I was now so hot, that I would come soon. So I decided to kiss her some more and then get down on my knees and get a better look at her pussy.

I ran my soapy fingers over her slit. Her cunt lips were puffy and spread apart already. I pulled her lips as far as I could and licked the entire length of her pussy. I then soaped her pussy real good, a clean pussy is so nice to lick and I sucked her large erect clit into my mouth and twirled my tongue around and around on it. She was moaning and started to buck on my face. She must have had a real workout earlier because I could still smell her musky sweat, especially around her pussy. After a few more tongue-lashing she started to talk dirty too me.

"Oh suck my soapy pussy, you beautiful cunt". "Lick it, Oh yea ..Right there.. You bitch.. Your making me come with your tongue.. You slut". She then started to jerk around and started coming on my tongue. Her juices squirted into my mouth and I drank it all in. We then washed each other up and got out and dried off.

I started to dress, when she stopped with a soft whisper in my ear - "Now it's my turn to suck your pussy, baby". She then licked my ear and pushed me onto the bed. She got between my legs and spread them wide. She then started licking my thighs and rubbing my bush with her hands. I was still so hot, that I had to have her tongue in me now.
