

Shower

(By: Ron)

The door to the bathroom is open and I see you getting out of your clothes and into the hot shower, I take off all my clothes and sneak in behind you. You are surprised when you feel my hands on your buttocks slowly circling around you feeling for your balls. You try to turn around as you feel my soapy fingers slowly stroking upwards. I rub my breasts on your back while I feel you getting hard for me. I hear you moan and as I rub my whole wet soapy body against your back and kiss your neck.

When I allow you to turn around you cup my breast in your left hand and guide me towards the wall with your other. I can't wait for you so I get on my toes and try to put your penis in my vagina. You stop me before I can and touch me between my legs until I'm gasping for breathe. Then you left my legs around your waist and I come down on your penis. When we finally get down on the shower floor I'm on top of you and I begin to move up and down watching your expression as I seal my vagina tight on you. You groan and pinch my nipples. I move up as far as I can without losing your penis. At the same time I feel your balls under me. When I see that you are about to come, I get off you.

Then I slowly move my tongue down your soapy chest, while my wet vagina still covers your penis, but not far enough that it enters my vagina, you groan in frustration. When my tongue reaches your soapy penis I lick it in slow strokes and when you can't take anymore I take all of it in my mouth and begin to suck, until you come. When I feel your cum, I swallow it. You move me on to my back and begin to stroke me between my legs. You feel that I am very wet and you put your finger up my vagina, I sigh with pleasure and beg you to take me. You kiss me all over and pay speacial attention to my clit. I begin to scream and then I come.
