

True-life mouthsoaping experience!!

(By: soapslave2)

I am what ya' call a switch, someone who likes to be both dominant and submissive. I prefer being the sub but anyway this is what happened the other night with my wife and I. She was swearing all day long so I told her I was going to wash her mouth out when we got home (we were at her parent's house at the time.) So when we got home I was really tired and went right to bed or so she thought. She then went into the shower and I got up and sneaked around looking for Velcro cuffs. I could only find the really good leather ones and we don't get those wet so anyway I sneaked into the bathroom and turned off the light, now it was completely dark! She called for me, after a while she knew I was there and started giggling, you could tell she was both nervous and excited at the same time and didn't know when I was going to grab her. So I put my one hand around the left side of shower curtain and grabbed her on the right side she had the lather builder in her right hand with some soap on it so I grabbed it and washed her face and lips and I told her how dirty and bad she was.

I also found out that she had the Caress soap in that hand so I grabbed that and lathered up the lather builder and proceeded to wash her face and her lips and mouth and her body. I soaped up her tits, belly, neck and her pussy and then I sucked on her soapy nipples a little and had her wash my cock and play with it at the same time and also suck on my soapy nipples. She just kept on swearing and giggling so every time she did swear I used more and more soap and soaped up the lather builder (right in front of her face) and washed her face and mouth making sure I didn't miss a thing, all the time I was doing this I was French kissing her and soaping her tits and telling her how I was going to wash and punish her. This was both very HOT and Erotic to both of us. I had done this about 6 times because she kept on swearing.

Well one time she said please no more, but she of course she swore at me again so this time I put some Caress lather in my mouth and went to French kiss her. What a surprise she got. She was spitting and gagging and coughing and rinsing for quite a while that time, I also let her rinse with the shower water every time I soaped her mouth.) I gave her the punishment of her life. (There will be more to come definitely.) Afterwards I asked her what she thought of it and she said it was good clean fun. She also had a very red face, (how was she going to explain that one to her co-workers.... LOL. She also said she didn't feel anything sexual about it that night, but I talked to her today about it again and she said, well at least not as much as you did Chris because I was hard the whole time.

Keep On SOAPIN'
