

Our Club's Commitment to Child Safety

J'adore Calisthenics is unwavering in its commitment to safeguarding the well-being of children and young individuals engaging in our Sport and our Club. We stand firm in our dedication to support and respect all participants, coaches, volunteers, and performers, maintaining a zero-tolerance stance against any form of child abuse.

Child safety is integral to our club's culture, reflected in robust policies and actively practiced throughout. We strive for inclusivity, making certain every child feels secure, valued, and empowered, regardless of background or ability.

Our commitment extends to educating coaches, volunteers, parents, and performers on the importance of child safety. Together, we create an environment that celebrates diversity, fostering a space where every child thrives.

We all play our part in protecting Children and young people.
