Boca Raton, Florida 33431

Dear Ms. Campo:

The Florida Department of Health is pleased to announce our intent to award funds from the James and Esther King Biomedical Research Program to Jang-Yen Wu, Ph.D. in the amount of $1,231,336.00. The Department's competitive grant awards for tobacco-related disease research are based on scientific merit as determined by peer review. Competitive grant awards are subject to the availability of funds.

Grant Number: 6JK08      Grant Title: Granulocyte colony-stimulating factor (G-CFS) gene therapy for stroke

Before research can start, the grant "Terms and Conditions" must be executed. The Department will send the relevant documents to your attention shortly. You may direct any questions about the Terms and Conditions to Karen Schneggenburger, Grant Analyst, Public Health Research Unit, at (850) 245-4585 or email Karen.Schneggenburger@flhealth.gov.

We are pleased to support this important project and wish you and your investigator the very best for a successful outcome that will benefit the health of all people in Florida.

Sincerely,

John H. Armstrong, MD, FACS
Surgeon General & Secretary
