Pius's (our church cat) reflection:

Today I quote to you from RUMI (an Afghan/Persian, Islamic Sufi mystic - 13th Century). He states: Sometimes in order to help He makes us cry. Happy the eye that sheds tears for His sake. Fortunate the heart that burns for His sake. Laughter always follow tears. Blessed are those who understand. Life blossoms wherever water flows. Where tears are shed divine mercy is shown.

The Feast of Mercy

will be celebrated on Sunday 7th April at Our Lady and St Peter's Church in Bridlington

There will be Holy Hour at 3 pm.

The Divine Mercy Solemnity Mass will follow at 4 pm.

(St John Paul II) This consoling message is addressed above all to those who, afflicted by a particularly harsh trial or crushed by the weight of the sins they committed, have lost all confidence in life and are tempted to give in to despair. To them the gentle face of Christ is offered; those rays from his heart touch them and shine upon them, warm them, show them the way and fill them with hope. How many souls have been consoled by the prayer Jesus, I trust in you, which Providence intimated through Sister Faustina! This simple act of abandonment to Jesus dispels the thickest clouds and lets a ray of light penetrate every life. Jezus, ufam tobie.

giftaid it

Dear Parishioners, I would like to thank you all for your generous donations to our parishes throughout the past year.

If you are a taxpayer and are not currently registered with us for gift aid, please would you consider this as an option.

The parish will receive 25p from the TAXperson for every £1 you donate. If you would like to register, please contact the parish office by email or telephone and we will send you the form to complete and provide you with gift aid envelopes.

Please note that it has come to our attention that some donors who are registered for gift aid are no longer taxpayers. Anyone who is in this situation may get a bill from HMRC at the end of the tax year for the amount of gift aid paid on their behalf. Please, check your position about gift aiding. Envelopes are to be collected this weekend from the Gift-Aid representatives. Thank you for your cooperation.
