DETAILS:

On May 30th - June 17th of 2020. I and my two younger siblings were going to spend time with our father, Daniel Halseth. On the first night my father offered my an alcoholic drink called Stella Pink. I initially refused to drink but after numerous assurances from my father I was convinced that it was not illegal. And so I drank alcohol. The second night I also had a glass of Stella Pink. In total I had a full glass of wine. After the first two nights, I was no longer asked to drink alcohol (to my relief). Unfortunately, I believe it was because my ~~sister~~ younger sister Sierra Halseth drank alcohol with him instead. A few times I caught her with an alcoholic beverage but because my belief that it was in fact legal to drink within the household and she would not be driving at all, did I allow her to continue drinking. I felt uncomfortable having my younger sister Sierra Halseth age 15 drinking alcohol and I am unsure if my younger brother Jordan Halseth age 16 drank any alcohol but I am aware that he was offered alcohol.

DETAILS:
 After a year of not ~~have~~ <sup>have</sup> seen my biological father, he requested to see us for 19 days. One night I was pressured to drink alcohol, and I declined multiple times, and it took my younger sister walking in for the subject to change. I believe he only did that because I was alone with him, and he may of done the same to my sisters. After the trip I discussed with my older sister if my younger sister drank and she said yes. ~~It~~ <sup>He</sup> found out later it was in a plastic bottle in a shape of a fruit with the liquid of the flavor of the fruit. I had seen the plastic fruit, but had no knowledge it was alcohol.
