The Ceramic Garden, Where Art is Therapy Celebrates its 19th Anniversary.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lutz, FL, March 13, 2024 – The press and public are invited to The Ceramic Garden’s 19th Anniversary. This 21-year old company would like to re-introduce the most enjoyable Pottery making and Painting Art Studio in North Tampa.

This event will take place at 19213 N. Dale Mabry Hwy, Lutz, FL 33548 in Lutz Lake Crossing Plaza (next to Publix), on Saturday, April 27 from 12 to 6 pm. The company features a relaxing art vibe atmosphere to create pottery with clay through hand building and throwing on the wheel.

Guests will enjoy a low flat studio fee of $5 per person (free for ages 3 and under) for bisque painting on that day between 12 and 6 pm. There will be pottery wheel demonstrations. Guests can try a mini-class for $25 ea. without appointment. Free beading and face painting for children; raffles, hand-writing and palm reading for adult customers, door prizes, and refreshments.

Christine Terranova, owner, said, “It’s so exciting because after all these years we still serve our community with our unique art classes and workshops. Creating pottery is known to be excellent for stress relief and self-care!”

The Ceramic Garden, Where Art is Therapy is open to the public Mondays through Saturdays from 11 am to 7 pm. You can find more information on the company and upcoming events and programs at www.theceramicgarden.com.

Christine’s passion for teaching art to thousands of children, teens, and adults started 19 years ago. The influence and the impact her teaching has had on many of her former students, now pursuing teaching and/or creative careers, fills her with joy.
