

Sell a child for sex in California. Get out of prison early.

The following crimes are not considered “violent” under current California law, allowing inmates convicted of these crimes to be released from prison early. Our initiative stops early release by making these crimes violent.

- Human trafficking of a child
- Abducting a minor for prostitution
- Rape by intoxication
- Rape of an unconscious person
- Felony sexual penetration, sodomy, or oral copulation when drugs are used or the victim is unconscious
- Drive by shooting, or shooting on foot, at an inhabited dwelling or vehicle
- Assault with a firearm
- Felony domestic violence
- Felony assault with a deadly weapon
- Serial arson
- Solicitation to commit murder
- Assault with caustic chemicals
- Assault by a caregiver on a child under 8 that could result in death or coma
- Felony assault using force likely to produce great bodily injury
- False imprisonment/taking a hostage when avoiding arrest or to use as a shield
- Assaulting a police officer, with or without a firearm
- Exploding a bomb to injure people
- Felony hate crime
- Any felony where a deadly weapon is used
- Felony use of force or threats against a witness or victim of a crime
- Felony elder or dependent adult abuse
- Conspiracy to commit any of the above offenses

PAUL KARL ANDERSON

TOOK A HOSTAGE WHILE ROBBING A BANK

Crime not “violent” under CA law,
so eligible for early prison release.

Paul Karl Anderson robbed a bank using a weapon and then held a hostage while fleeing federal marshals. But under California law, false imprisonment, taking a hostage when avoiding arrest, and any felony where a dangerous or deadly weapon is used are not classified as violent crimes, making Anderson eligible for early prison release.

WILLIAM MURPHY, JR.

ASSAULTED A POLICE OFFICER BY RAMMING HIS PATROL CAR

Crime not “violent” under CA law,
so eligible for early prison release.

In 2008, William Murphy, Jr. failed to pull over during a vehicle stop and led Clovis Police on a high-speed chase, during which the suspect intentionally rammed the driver's door of a patrol car blocking his path, then tried to flee on foot. But under California law, assault on a peace officer is not classified as a violent crime, making Murphy eligible for early prison release.

JAMES ALLEN WEST

KICKED VICTIM UNCONSCIOUS WITH STEEL-TOED BOOTS

Crime not “violent” under CA law,
so eligible for early prison release.

In 2010, James Allen West used steel-toed boots to kick a 52-year-old man unconscious. But under California law, assault with a deadly weapon is not classified a violent crime, including assaults with a gun, knife or weapons like steel-toed boots. As a result, West is eligible for early prison release because his crime wasn't “violent.”
