

Leah

Let your light shine

From the time she was four years old and cut her own hair, Leah knew she wanted to be a stylist. Locally born and raised, Leah's parents both encouraged her to pursue her passion and for the past seven years she has been excelling at just that.

"A haircut is more than just a haircut. It's about making others feel beautiful and empowered. This is where I need to be. This is where I want to let my light shine."

Specializing in vivids, perms, colors, and highlights, Leah loves the creative freedom her job affords her. She also loves finding just the right style for each of her clients.

"You want to walk out of the salon with a look that's not like someone else's. You want to leave the salon with a look that's unique to you."
