

Pastor Stanley P. Harris

Pastor Stanley P. Harris is the founder and pastor of Concord Church of Giddings, Texas, where he has served for sixteen years. Prior to Concord Church, he served six years as senior pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, also in Giddings, Texas. He has served as the past Dean of the LaGrange Baptist Association, the assistant to the President for the Houston Metropolitan Minister's Conference, and the Certified Chaplain of TDC Lecturers for the Southern Baptist Conventions. Pastor Harris' experience includes decades of pastoral leadership as well as powerful preaching and teaching in pulpits across the continent of Africa, in Germany, UK, Haiti, and throughout the United States. He has served as quest lecturer / keynote speaker for renown events such as the Promise Keepers' Conference, Robert Shuler's conference, Willow Creek Conference, and the March on Washington, D.C. in 1963. Pastor Harris has extensive biblical training that readied him for pastoral leadership, including Union Baptist Seminary, Moody Bible College, Beeson Seminary, and Southwestern Seminary. Pastor Harris holds a Master of Divinity from Southwestern Seminary.

Pastor Stanley Harris is a proud Texan, born in Bryan, Texas and raised in Dallas, Texas. He attended public school in South Oak Cliff in Dallas, Texas before entering college at Prairie View A & M University to study economics. Pastor Harris is the husband to Mrs. Teresa Ann Harris, father of two daughters and one son, and grandfather of three grandsons and two granddaughters.