Grief Support Group Information

We are pleased to be able to currently offer this program to you without charge. The OASIS Community Center is operated by Speak Up for Ben, Inc., a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization. We welcome tax-deductible donations that allow us to continue offering programs free of charge.

The purpose of this group is to process grief related to a substance-related loss. Should you need support for other issues, please speak to the facilitators for appropriate resource(s) referral.

For this support group to function effectively, a safe space must be created and expectations for participants must be understood. To ensure an optimum environment, we ask that participants agree to the following guidelines.

I. Confidentiality

All information discussed within the group is considered confidential. What is said here, stays here. You may not discuss or share the identity, identifying information, or the reactions of other members with anyone outside of the group. You may talk about your own personal reactions and are even encouraged to do so outside of the group, but not about others' identifying information or reactions.

The facilitators may, at times, share general information with each other regarding group members' situations and support needs for the purposes of planning and developing new or expanded resources to meet these needs.

Exceptions to confidentiality include imminent danger to self and/or others, child/elder abuse, subpoenaed records, and threat to safety/security. Professional staff of the OASIS Community Center are mandated reporters in cases of known or suspected child/elder abuse and are also professionally obligated to report other situations presenting imminent danger to self and/or others.

II. Attendance

Group participants are asked to commit to the program by attending the group sessions on a regular and consistent basis. Participants are expected to arrive on time every week. Group is expected to start and generally end on time.

In the event of a cancellation or planned late arrival, please notify the therapist.

Participants must refrain from the use of alcohol or other substances before or during meetings.

In-person attendance is requested for maximum benefit to both you and the group. However, there may be circumstances requiring virtual attendance (e.g., illness, weather, travel). If you need the Zoom link and password, contact Rhonda Miller (rhonda@OasisBethlehem.org or 610.349.5697) in advance of the meeting (by 5 pm). If you attend a session virtually, find a confidential location and use a headset or earbuds. Minimize distractions, keep your video on, and be fully engaged.

To reap the greatest benefit from this group therapy experience, it is recommended that you attend at least 8-10 sessions. However, if you decide to discontinue, we ask that you first explore your concerns with the counselor. We also request that you attend at least one additional session to process your departure with the group. Members begin to care about one another and will feel unresolved if you leave without explanation.

IV. Active Participation

Part of being an active participant is being present at each session, both physically and mentally. You are an important part of the group, and your participation affects the entire group dynamic.

For the safety of the entire group, please temper sharing specific details of your loved one's passing. Graphic details can be very triggering for others. Instead, we encourage you to talk honestly about your feelings. While not everyone can relate to a particular life experience, everyone can understand and relate to feelings (e.g., anger, sadness, loneliness). We realize that focusing on your feelings can be difficult or frustrating at times but is an important part of your grief journey.

Group participants may be asked to complete and return a survey to assess the effectiveness of the program. The group counselor will, at times, provide handouts with tools for you to use in your recovery.

V. Respect for Others

Group members are expected to always treat each other with respect, dignity, and equity. By signing this form and joining the group, you agree to avoid destructive behavior towards other group members or the facilitators. Participants are also asked to avoid "cross talking," interrupting others, or engaging in other behaviors that may distract group process. Cell phones should be silenced during the group session.

The group will respect others' differences, beliefs, cultures, sexual identities, and all other forms of intersecting identities that comprise who we are as unique individuals and as members of various groups. Participants are advised to refrain from promoting any particular religious, spiritual, or political viewpoint and belief.

Additionally, within OASIS and in our groups, we have a policy restricting solicitation of any kind. This includes fundraising programs, sales promotions, professional businesses or services (including psychic mediums). If you have any questions, please speak to our executive director.

Rather than reinforcing a culture of silence and/or stigma, in this group we strive to recognize and acknowledge the impact of stereotypes, prejudice, and discrimination, as they surface both inside and outside of the group environment.

We encourage participants to engage in active listening, with the aim of listening for deep understanding as opposed to listening to respond. As a part of this group, participants are expected to support each other in the process of self-exploration.
