

Launch Event: Salary guidelines for CH imaging professionals
Friday 15th July 2022 - 12pm-13.15pm

Over the last 12 months the AHFAP committee have been researching and developing salary guidelines which we are now happy to share with our members. This launch event is free for AHFAP members (please follow the link in your June Newsletter). Non-members can buy a ticket for £15 per person below.

The event includes an explainer of the salary guidelines by Kira Zumkley, AHFAP chair followed by two guest presentations.

Charlie Donoghue, Talent Acquisition Manager at the Royal Household will present on institutional and external influences on salaries and recruitment as well as what managers can do to address salaries that do not match the AHFAP salary guidelines.

Louise McAward-White from Fair Museum Jobs will talk about how salary guidelines fit into the wider tools for advocacy and what actions applicants and employees can take to tackle salary issues across the sector. After the presentations there will be time for questions and discussions.
