Cast: Elbert Parker, Cassandra McClendon, Dewayne Nesby, Pamela Conley, Frank Lee III, Tammy Riley and Anthony Daniels

CHICAGO—April 3, 2023. Can a heart be mended after it has been broken? Love Intervention is a "Dramedy" stage play about a couple's journey of rebuilding trust after it's been lost. It may be a hard process after lies have been exposed and as secrets unfold but is it impossible?

Let's be honest, marriage is work. Not having trust makes it almost impossible to grow together. Kevin has betrayed the trust of his wife, Gwen. He is desperately trying to buy her love back by showering her with money and expensive gifts. Meanwhile, it turns out that Gwen has her own betrayals against her husband. Both, harboring bitterness, and resentment for their own shortcomings, find it hard to forgive each other as well as themselves.

Newlywed couple Jamal and Linda quickly realize that married life isn't always bliss. Jamal feels like he was manipulated into marrying Linda because of concerns she expressed to him after their wedding. Without giving Linda or their marriage a second chance, Jamal feels ready for a divorce.

Steve and Sandra have been married for over 20 years. With extensive marriage experience they prove to be the much-needed Love Intervention for both couples. They understand that marriage is not easy and that it takes work, dedication, and a willingness to compromise. Trust is something that is grown into together. While it has been a rollercoaster ride for Steve and Sandra, it was worth it.

Explore the relationships of these couples in the difficult moments of their marriages. The world premiere of this new theatrical production, written and directed by Stacye Clark, is coming to the Oak Lawn Community High School Performing Arts Center, located at 9445 Austin Avenue, Oak Lawn, IL 60453. All characters are portrayed by local Chicagoland actors. For a limited run, performances will take place April 29. Show will start nightly at 7 pm. Doors open at 6 pm.
