

2005-2006 Home Education Goals
My Child's Name

English (to include spelling, reading and writing):

-  will study phonics rules and apply them in original writing.
-  will regularly read library books related to our unit study themes.
-  will continue to have good literary classics read aloud to her to encourage her vocabulary and reading and writing skills.
-  will write regularly, in a journal, in correspondence, and in compositions related to our unit study themes.

Arithmetic:

-  will work through the Making Math Meaningful curriculum.

Science (including Health & Physiology):

-  will study science as related to our unit study topics.
-  will learn more about health in everyday situations..

Social Studies (including Geography, History of the United States and Pennsylvania, & Civics):

-  will explore social studies concepts as related to our current unit of study.
-  will explore PA and US history while on field trips.
-  will visit elections polls, and assist with campaigns as opportunities arise.

Safety (including regular and continuous instruction in the dangers and prevention of fires)

-  will review our family's escape plan and designated meeting spot.

Physical Education:

-  will engage in regular physical activities including swimming, biking, hiking, running, and bowling.
-  will participate in team relay races in AWANA.

Music:

-  will participate regularly in group singing.
-  will learn songs associated with our current unit of study

Art:

-  will develop creative art projects related to our unit study themes.

Special Needs:

-  will continue to receive occupational, physical, and speech therapy.
- 's program will utilize much drill and repetition to help her achieve mastery of each concept.