PTSO Meeting Agenda

Attendees: Matt Wilburn, Beth Long, Emily Rittenhouse, Lori Steger, Craig Steger, Sandra Lawyer, Misty Bergen, Jennifer Cramer, Theresa Prebish, Sandra Keener

Principal Comments: Matt Wilburn

After 14 years of service at SBHS, Mr. Wilburn will be moving to direct the Career and Technical Education program at the new Academies of Loudoun. Tim Flynn will be coming to SBHS as the new Principal.

Prom was a success and there were no negative incidents.

There was a theft over the weekend and $2000 was stolen from the athletic booster club.

John Dec: Huntington Learning Center

Gave us a check for $620 for our portion of the SAT/ACT practice tests.

He does test prep and one on one tutoring. The class cost is $895 for both fall and spring and PTSO gets a percentage back.

Students are recommended to take their first SAT/ACT the spring of when they are taking Algebra II

The PTSO needs to plan how many we want to do and then decide on the dates.

Secretary Report: Misty Bergen

Vote to approve April minutes, motioned by Beth Long and Jen Cramer

Treasurer Report: Craig Steger

New Business:

The Bulldog Writing Center gave a presentation

The mission of the Bulldog Writing Center is to collaborate with Stone Bridge students and faculty to build a highly skilled, creative, and dedicated population of writers who are optimally prepared for future writing challenges.

It is not a team, or club. It is an honor to be in the Writing Center

Requested amount to reconcile account is $374.

It was voted to approve granting the $374 request to Steve Bills and the Bulldog Writing Center.

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting at 8:30.

Unanimously passed
