Dear Friend

Pro<sup>a</sup> March 12 1845 your much valued favor Reached <sup>me</sup> this eve And believe me when I say it afforded <sup>me</sup> unbounded pleasure, I returned from it, Sat on Monday morning, and daily have I watched the mail anticipating that it would bring some news of you, and the much expected letter has reached me, I am under many obligations for your very kind reports manifested in my behalf, and would it were in my power to reciprocate I could read the inmost secrets of the heart you might judge better, My feelings— dear friend, in this do I trust I have found a friend that is true indeed I think my friend I do this injustice even to indulge one fond doubt for on the broad approved letter the doubt has been brushed and left not even a fever that may have a trace of the original I shall be most happy to make you private the first opportunity the going will permit, this eve I have attended a concert given by the Hatching family for Boston the whole Mr over flow & may could not get in & returned to the hour I was obliged to stand up up all the time and I quite fatigued you must know after standing all Day in the store the plighting has been good most of the Day" And the Soda and Gentlemen has improved it quite to a advantage for the enjoyment, And my feeling was with them for they seemed to be much delighted that an other opportunity had presented it self for a happy high ride

What should we do if the mind could not find enjoyment no happiness could we find on this land for we should feel as the man was "in prison" within the walls of Shilon I find I was dipping from the subject that may interest you and will for go dipping my pen more into the ink

When shall I again Dear Miss Thru soft black eyes of thine behold Thine ruby lips imprint and kiss I That ever may remember mine you with Endearing fondness Thine M. & S. Lively
