- AN ACT to amend the public health law and the social services law, in relation to personal and compassionate caregiving visitors for residents of nursing homes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section
2	2801-h to read as follows:
3	§ 2801-h. Personal caregiving and compassionate caregiving visitors to
4	nursing home residents during declared local or state health emergen-
5	cies. 1. As used in this section, the following terms have the follow-
б	ing meanings:
7	(a) "personal caregiving visitor" means a family member, close friend,
8	or legal guardian of a resident designated by such resident or such
9	resident's lawful representative to provide personal caregiving for such
10	resident, including a compassionate caregiving visitor;
11	(b) "personal caregiving" means care and support of a resident by a
12	personal caregiving visitor that is provided to benefit such resident's
13	mental, physical, or social well-being;
14	(c) "compassionate caregiving visitor" means a personal caregiving
15	visitor providing compassionate caregiving to a resident;
16	(d) "compassionate caregiving" means personal caregiving that is
17	provided in anticipation of the end of a resident's life or in the

1	instance of significant mental or social decline or crisis of a resi-
2	dent;
3	(e) "resident" means a resident of a nursing home; in relation to a
4	personal caregiving visitor, "resident" means the resident to whom the
5	personal caregiving visitor has been designated to provide personal
6	caregiving; and
7	(f) "visit" includes providing personal caregiving to a resident.
8	2. Personal caregiving visitors may visit residents of nursing homes,
9	subject to this section. The commissioner shall make regulations under
10	this section which shall:
11	(a) require nursing homes to allow personal caregiving visitors to
12	visit residents subject to this section;
13	(b) set forth procedures for the designation of personal caregiving
14	visitors by residents or resident's lawful representatives, which may
15	include in appropriate circumstances requiring a physical or mental
16	health professional to state that the personal caregiving will substan-
17	tially benefit the resident's mental, physical, or social well-being; an
18	nursing home shall not require that the health professional is affil-
19	iated with such nursing home;
20	(c) set forth procedures for changing a personal caregiving visitor
21	designation;
22	(d) provide that a resident shall not be entitled to designate more
23	than two personal caregiving visitors;
24	(e) provide that personal caregiving visitors shall be exempt from
25	prohibitions on visiting residents at nursing homes, subject to the
26	limitations and requirements set forth by this subdivision;
27	(f) set forth the circumstances under which visiting by personal care-
28	giving visitors may be temporarily limited or suspended at a nursing
29	home, including, but not limited to, local infection rates, temporary
30	inadequate staff capacity, or an acute emergency situation;
31	(g) require, at a minimum, that all personal caregiving visitors
32	follow safety protocols required for nursing home staff, including, but
33	not limited to:
34 25	(i) testing for communicable diseases;
35 36	(ii) checking body temperature;
37	(iii) health screenings; (iv) appropriate use of personal protection equipment;
38	(v) social distancing (except as necessary for personal caregiving by
39	the personal caregiving visitor for the resident); and
40	(vi) any other requirement the department deems appropriate;
41	(h) set forth standards for frequency and duration of visits by
42	personal caregiving visitors at nursing homes;
43	(i) set forth standards for limiting the total number of personal
44	caregiving visitors allowed to visit a nursing home at any one time;
45	and
46	(j) make appropriate provisions for compassionate caregiving and
47	compassionate caregiving visitors.
48	§ 2. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 461-u
49	to read as follows:
50	§ 461-u. Personal caregiving and compassionate caregiving visitors for
51	residents of adult care facilities during declared local or state health
