December 5, 2008

Dear Santa,

As the proud President of the General Federation of Women's Club in South Carolina, it is my pleasure to write you this letter this Christmas. The hardworking women in South Carolina have been just volunteering their little fingers to the bone on projects that benefit their own communities and our world. Could you do a few really special things for them this year because they really do deserve it? First, I would like for all of them to find a true friend in federation. A friend that they just can't wait to see at a meeting or function. The kind of friend that they would let into their home in a time of crisis. A friend that they can cry with and laugh with. The type of friend that brings out the best in them. Second, I would love it if you could fill their hearts with joy every time they give one minute to helping someone else. Warm their heart while they read to a child. Make them smile while cleaning up a park. Help them feel content while making a meal to share with someone in need. Third, Santa please make sure that every club woman knows her value. Let her know that we could not do any of this without her. Show her what she would be missing without woman's club. Most of all Santa, never let her leave federation. If it is possible, make her feel a strong urge to bring a friend to her next club meeting. Well, I guess that is about all I would like to ask for this year. Thank you Santa for all you do to make our dreams come true.

Sincerely,

Tammy Garland

P.S. World Peace and some surprises under the tree would be nice also.

Dear Ms. Garland,

Thank you for stopping by my office in Washington, D.C. to express your support for H.R. 2831, the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act. I appreciate hearing from you on this issue.

As you may know, H.R. 2831 was introduced by Representative George Miller on June 22, 2007. This bill removes current time limitations for employees to file employment-related discrimination lawsuits years or even decades after the alleged discrimination occurred. This bill passed the House of Representatives on July 31, 2007, and after failing a procedural vote in the Senate on April 23, 2008, Majority Leader Reid (D-Nevada) withdrew the bill from further consideration.

I voted against ending debate on this bill because I believe we need a structure that allows for fair administration and justice in a timely manner for these types of discrimination cases. Time limitations encourage the prompt discovery, assertion, and resolution of wage-discrimination claims so employers may address workplace discrimination without delay.

If this bill is enacted in its current form, many businesses would be forced to operate under a vague law that encourages excessive petitions and lawsuits. Large and small businesses could become victims of decades-old frivolous lawsuits, stemming from decisions made years ago. Please rest assured, I will keep your thoughts in mind should this bill comes before the Senate for another vote.

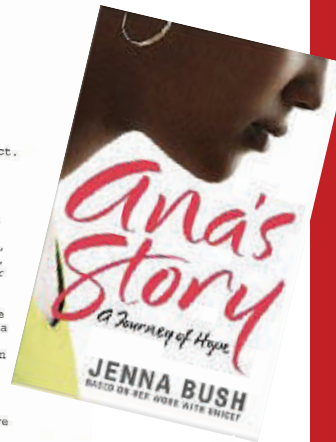

Thank you again for sharing your thoughts with me. Please feel free to contact me in the future about anything important to you or Carolina. It is an honor to serve you and the people of South

Miracle at Midnight

Within the Deep of Midnight,
Streaming through the shadowed trees,
The Brightest Star of Heaven
Spread fire for all to see.

Within their flocks abiding,
The shepherds felt the flames -
Of that Bright Star's clear message
Of Hope the world could claim.

Within the span of minutes,
The darkness fled away -
And Wonder and Glory spread o'er the world
To create a brand New day.

Within the stables waiting,
The men and fowl and beasts -
Stood Star-struck, Silent, Reverent
As the God Child slept in peace.

Within the Heart of Mary,
Love poured forth, sweet and strong -
And awoke the hearts of mankind
Who had waited for so long.

Within the Homes of ages,
This tales's told round and round -
A Star, a Stable, a Mother's Love
A Miracle profound.

GFWC-SC Membership

~ The Gift that Keeps on Giving~

Wow! Our GFWC-SC clubwomen have been busy recruiting new members this fall. The yellow Act in Oct cards are arriving almost daily. So far, I have mailed 55 New Member letters. Club presidents, please send me the names and addresses of your new members, as well as who recruited them, if you have not already done so. I want to make sure every new member gets a letter from GFWC.

Speaking of membership, did you know district and club membership grants are available from GFWC to be used to underwrite club and district recruiting and rebuilding activities? You must hurry because the deadline to apply for a grant is January 15, 2009. Download the application at GFWC.org. Click on the Member Center tab and then Awards, Contests and Grants link on the left side. Good luck and let me know who gets a grant so we can brag☺

Here's an idea to honor your club members. Host an anniversary celebration and present your members with 25 years of membership with the new GFWC 25 year silver pin. It's available on the GFWC website. Make sure you take pictures and send to Tammy for inclusion in the Clubwoman Magazine.

Thank you to the 20 clubs who sent me their club yearbook. If you didn't send me a copy, it is not too late. You can also hand-deliver at Winter Board on January 10.

A few people have inquired about the dues increasing each year. GFWC voted several years ago to increase the dues from $10 to $15, at the pace of $1 a year. This is the last year of that staggered increase.

Does your club have a website? Is it linked to GFWC-SC and GFWC? If not, email a link to your club website to Tonja Ivey at tivey@cdcsllc.com to get on the state website. To add a link to GFWC, go to gfwc.org, click on the Member Center tab and then State Federations and GFWC Club Websites on the left side. The link to be added to the GFWC list of clubs is on the right side of the window.

At the Southern Region Conference in Mississippi, GFWC presented a program on breast cancer titled "Strength in Knowing". Afterwards, everyone was given the "Strength in Knowing" kit which includes the entire presentation on DVD, a speaker's guide, and brochures. Please call or email me if you would like to share this presentation with your club. I would be happy to mail it to you. Check out the www.strengthinknowing.com website for additional information.

I hope you all have a safe and wonderful holiday season. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and I look forward to visiting with you at Winter Board.

Laurie O'Kelly
1st Vice President

Hello Juniors!

I hope I am finding all of you happy, healthy and energetic about your GFWC-SC Junior Clubs! I just recently returned from the GFWC Southern Regional Meeting held in Jackson, Mississippi. While there, I listened to speakers, participated in round table discussions and networked with other GFWC ladies from our regional states.

Caroline Brown
Junior Director

As I have informed you before, the big national topic that has been discussed is GFWC Membership. GFWC is struggling to maintain and increase its membership. A lot of Junior and General Clubs are starting to faze out because we, as GFWC, are failing to attract younger members (nationwide). I learned while I was in Washington D.C. for the 2008 GFWC Board Meeting in September that South Carolina as a whole has a young membership pertaining to Jr.'s. Out of 19 Junior Directors- I am the 3rd youngest – the youngest being of Generation Y (22 year olds). I am aware that Caroline Mahaffey, the GFWC-SC Juniorette Coordinator, recently sent the club presidents an email in regards to starting new Juniorette Clubs in your vicinity. Juniorette Clubs can lead to the future of GFWC. Have you ever realized that starting a GFWC-SC Juniorette Club could open a door to you to attract new members to your club? I didn't until I went to my recent meetings. If you have contact with a high school or know a teacher within your organization who may be looking for an attractive and fresh way to start a club in her school, a Juniorette Club might be a solution to attracting new members. In other words, by attracting some young girls, their mothers might possibly become involved and voila, you have the boost in membership that you were looking for!

In closing, I would like to remind you to share with me what special fundraisers you are working on so that I can share the themes and dates with everyone! Plus, don't forget to be forwarding me your digital pictures displaying the fun you have had and the hard work that you are doing!!

In Junior Spirit!

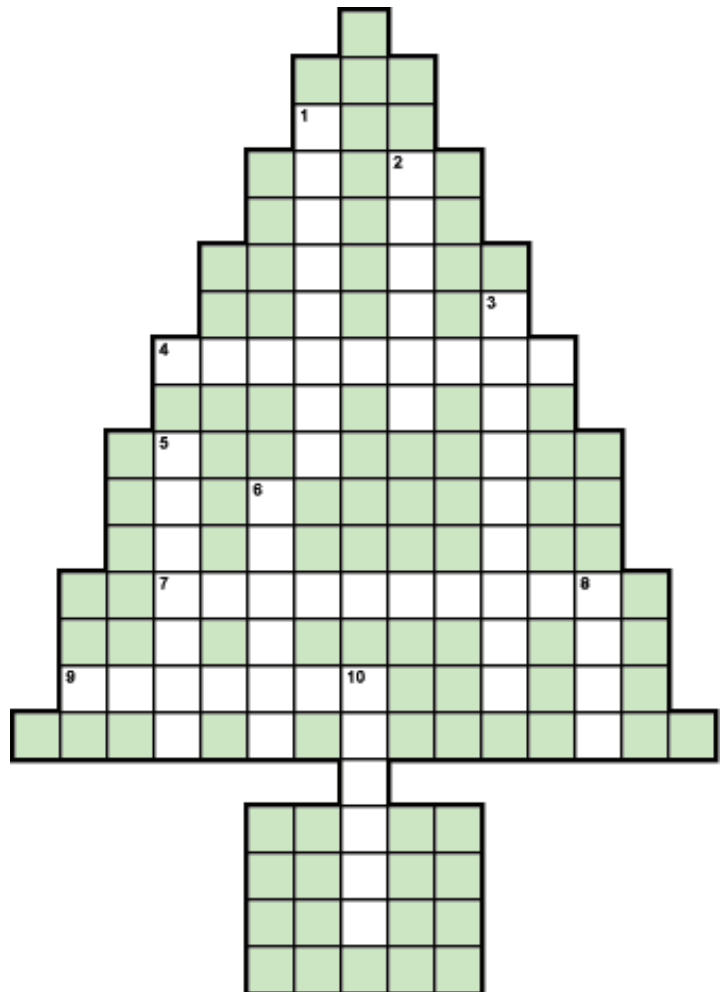

Caroline~

2008 Reporting

Reflections of Club Year - Moments In Time

The long, hot summer is finally over and the holidays are upon us. Where did all the fall moments in time go! That means the February 1 reporting deadline is just around the corner! Think of reporting as your opportunity to brag and showcase the many accomplishments of your club. Consider gathering your department chairmen and officers for a day of planning and compiling your reports. This is an excellent opportunity to foster new friendships. Please carefully read through the 2008 Reporting Guidelines in this issue of Clubwoman magazine for the specific requirements. All GFWC Department Program and Special Projects/Standing Committee Reports must be postmarked by February 1, 2009. Listed below are some things to keep in mind as you work on your club reports.

- ❖ The reporting period is January 1, 2008 through December 31, 2008.
- ❖ Complete the front side of the 2008-2010 GFWC Report Form with your club's information on the front and make many, many copies of this form.
- ❖ The Number of Members to use on the Report Form is the number of paid members as of April 30, 2008 and listed on the Club Rosters and on the Membership Report that were in the Club President's Packets.
- ❖ Report all of your club's activities in the program where it best fits.
- ❖ Report each project only one time. No cross-reporting is allowed.
- ❖ Complete the GFWC Report Form (on the back side) for each GFWC Program in which you are reporting. Each program requires a separate Report Form.
- ❖ Write the name of the GFWC Program in the upper right-hand corner on the front side of the Report Form to simplify the sorting process. For example, Beautification or Leadership.
- ❖ Narratives are encouraged but optional. Attach narratives to the Report Form and check the box indicating a narrative is attached. Narratives are limited to two pages, single spaced per each department program. Please do not combine department program narratives on the same page.
- ❖ Make 4 copies of each GFWC Program in which you report (narrative and the GFWC Report Form). Keep one copy for your club's records and mail 3 complete copies to:
Jo Ann Bolchoz
GFWC-SC Second Vice President
2435 Pristine View
Charleston, SC 29414
- ❖ Junior clubs will need to mail 2 additional copies to the Junior Director, Caroline Brown.
- ❖ Complete another GFWC Report Form and combine all the statistical information onto one form for GFWC. Mail this one combined form along with copies of all narratives to:
GFWC
Dept P
1734 N St., NW
Washington, DC 20036-2990
Or
Report Online at www.gfwc.org/Reporting
Available January, 2009
- ❖ Reports must be postmarked by February 1, 2009.
- ❖ There are 22 different sets of reports you could send to me that are due by February 1. These include the GFWC President's Special Project-Membership, the GFWC Juniors' Special Project, 13 Department Programs, and 7 GFWC Special Projects.

❖ The next reporting deadline is March 15, 2009. You will need to submit the Program Council Report and Junior Cup Report, along with other state and district awards. Also, don't forget to send the Rating Sheet and Contributions Sheet (found in the Club President's Packets), along with nominations for Volunteer of the Year, Woman of Distinction, and the Jennie Award. See the Reporting Guidelines for details of each award. I look forward to reading about South Carolina club work and many accomplishments and all the wonderful contributions clubwomen make to our communities. Please contact me if

GFWC INTERNATIONAL AWARDS

To determine requirements and deadlines for entry see GFWC 2008-2010 Club Manual. Please mail reports to appropriate counterparts, and if you have any questions please call a GFWC-SC officer.

Club Newsletter Contest: Clubs and states may submit only one newsletter, and the newsletter must have been printed and clearly dated during the calendar year preceding the award (so newsletters must be dated in 2008 to be eligible in 2009). Judges will award points as follows to all groups: 1) quality of content, including timeliness, clarity, and member impact: 50 percent, 2) presentation, design, and ease of use: 25 percent, 3) required elements as outlined: 25 percent.

See Guidelines in the GFWC Program Manual for the new Club Newsletter Contest. A $50 Award will be given annually to one club in the nation to recognize creativity implementing an effective club newsletter. The submitted sample of the club newsletter should be sent to the Communications/Public Relations Chairman, Kaye Jones, 1380 Railfence Drive, Columbia, SC 29212 by February 1, 2009. The winning state entry to the national GFWC Communications and Public Relations Chairman is due March 15 each year.

GFWC REGION AWARD

THE JENNIE

The Jennie is a Medal of Honor Award that will be presented once each administration to active GFWC members who demonstrate outstanding commitment to their club, community and family during the period of July 2008-May 31, 2009. One Clubwoman from each of the GFWC's eight regions will be honored with The Jennie during the 2008-2010 Administration. Club nominations must be submitted to the State president postmarked on or by June 15, 2009 for state-level judging chaired by Karen Kaylor, 4544 River Shores Drive, York, SC 29745. Information, rules and guidelines on The Jennie Award are in the GFWC Club Manual.
