If you financed your boat, a lien may be recorded against it. If so, the Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission sent your original title to the lienholder. You are not entitled to possession of the certificate of title until the lien is satisfied. If the lienholder does not have your certificate of title and the lien has been satisfied, you must obtain a letter from the lienholder stating that the lien on your boat has been satisfied.

Instructions

- If your boat does not have a lien recorded against it, you must attach original title if defaced.
- If your boat does have a lien recorded against it, you must obtain and attach letter of lien release from lienholder.
- The fee for a duplicate title is $20.00 (without corrections).
- The fee for a corrected title is $30.00.
- Enclose appropriate title fee. Make your check or money order payable to the Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission. Do not send cash.
