

“VOTE,” at the church house, at liquid beverage establishments and in private meetings,” said Foward. “Everyday Citizens have heard the terminology, “Swing States,” however candidates know and also understand the power of “Swing Votes,” said Foward. “Let’s make every election a difference maker by the sovereignty of our “VOTE.” When Middle-Class Caucasians and College Students as well as Hispanics and Latinos join the African American community in the “VOTING PROCESS,” it creates an environment of change. We will continue to work with our brothers and sisters to ensure that all voices are heard,” said Foward.

Founded in 1915, the Dayton Unit of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is the city’s oldest and largest nonpartisan civil rights organization. Its members throughout the Dayton Region and Montgomery County are the premier advocates for civil rights in their communities. Their core goals are to Inform, Educate and Empower the Citizenry as they pursue justice and equality for all Americans.
