Lassen County Office of Emergency Services

Lassen EOC Press Release #5

SUBJECT: Emergency Operations Center (EOC) Established for Lassen County COVID-19 Response

The Lassen County Public Health Department and the Lassen County Office of Emergency Services would like to notify the public that an Emergency Operations Center (EOC) is coordinating the local response to COVID-19 (novel coronavirus). An Emergency Operations Center (EOC) is a central command and control facility responsible for carrying out the principles of emergency management, or disaster management providing strategic plans during an emergency, and ensuring the continuity of operation during this time.

The EOC is fully staffed and organized with members from multiple agencies in order to provide Lassen County residents with information as it becomes available.

The public can access information released online by the EOC at lassencares.org. In addition, the Lassen County COVID-19 call center is available Monday-Friday from 8 am–5 pm. Residents can call (530) 251-8100 with any questions or concerns they have regarding exposure or symptoms related to COVID-19.
