Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Each student has the right to cancel/voluntarily terminate the program and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session. If a student wishes to cancel/terminate the enrollment agreement or withdraw from the institution, the student must notify the school. Written and/or verbal withdrawals are acceptable. No refunds after First Day of Class for CE course.

If the student withdraws from a course before instruction has started, the student may receive a refund. *NOTE: For CE classes – the student will be charged for the course after the first day of attendance but may finish the course with another upcoming class. Any materials that a student has paid for but not received will be refunded in full. Any materials that a student has paid for and received will not be refunded. If books have been purchased the student will be charged a $20 fee to cover return of the book.

No refunds will be given if the student has attended the First Day of the course and the student concerned will still be liable for any tuition due. Also, if the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of money not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

The school reserves the right to cancel or reschedule a class start date due to insufficient enrollment. If this occurs, the student may request a full refund of all money paid less the registration fee, or apply all money paid to the next scheduled class start date.

PLEASE NOTE: The "Itemization of Fees and Charges" on page 2 has detailed information on refundable and non-refundable items. All refunds will be paid within 45 days from receipt of cancellation or withdrawal letter or the date the institution terminates a student for breach of attendance, conduct, academic and/or financial policies. If an applicant never attends class (no-shows) or cancels the contract prior to the class start date, all refunds due will be made within forty-five (45) calendar days of the first scheduled day of class or the date of cancellation, whichever is earlier.
