Scholarships Available in 2018

High School seniors experience an exciting yet busy year as they complete their high school careers. One important task to consider is applying for scholarships to support their educational goals. Now is the time for students to work with their guidance counselor to identify scholarships for which they would qualify.

In addition to the more than 45 scholarship funds that support high school seniors, the Foundation also has three non-traditional scholarships available throughout the year:

Burton D. Morgan Entrepreneurial Scholarship

Donald and Joan Loeffler Second Chance Scholarship

Ian Huffman Memorial Scholarship for International Study

Each scholarship has specific guidelines established by the donor of the fund. A list of scholarships available through the Foundation can be found on our website www.ottawaccf.org.

Welcome Jim Deer

The OCCF Board welcomed James Deer in September as its newest member of the Board. He has lived in the Marblehead area for the past six years after relocating from Upper Sandusky with his wife Betsy. Jim serves as an Investment Executive with First National Bank, Bellevue where he established FNB Wealth Management Services, an investment services trade name program of the bank. When asked about serving on the OCCF Board, Jim stated "I was honored when Bill Coder approached me as a potential new board member since I truly enjoyed my time serving in Wyandot County. The OCCF Board is a special group filled with benevolent and hard-working residents with whom I am thrilled to partner!"

Jim and Betsy have two daughters and four grandchildren with whom they enjoy spending time. His other interests include golfing, boating and Community Theater. He has truly become involved in his community since moving to Ottawa County. Jim serves as a board member with the Port Clinton Rotary Club as well as the Marblehead Chamber of Commerce. He is also active in his church as a council member and sings in the choir.
