

A House of Prayer for ALL Nations

“Let no foreigner who has joined himself to the Lord say,
“The LORD will surely exclude me from his people” (Isaiah 56:3).

The Almighty God is LORD of all nations and to the person who makes God his refuge, He will bless them; they will inherit the land and possess God’s holy mountain (Isaiah 57:13).

“And FOREIGNERS who bind themselves to the LORD to serve him, and love the name of the LORD, and to worship him, and all who keep the Sabbath without desecrating it and who hold fast to my covenant—THESE I will bring to my holy mountain and give them joy in my house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house will be called A HOUSE OF PRAYER FOR ALL NATIONS” (Isaiah 56:6-7).

When God gathers the exiles of Israel, He will also gather people from different nations (Isaiah 56:8). The house of Jacob will return to the land of their forefathers with foreigners who obey and love the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

“But the LORD will have mercy on the descendants of Jacob. He will choose Israel as his special people once again. He will bring them back to settle once again in their own land. And people from many different nations will come and join them there and unite with the people of Israel” (Isaiah 14:1-2).

The time of Jacob's trouble will be a period of distress that awakens a spiritually dying people who forgot their God "days without number" (Jeremiah 2:32), corrects them and forges through suffering, a new man—one with unbreakable faith and loyalty for their God. The turmoil and revival of truth will sweep people from different nations into the pot of testing. The heavens will roll up like a scroll and they will witness the battle of God against the rogue rulers and powers in the heavens, puppeteering the rulers on earth. When the thirteen nations of 21st century Israel repent and "no longer rely on him who struck them down but will truly rely on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel" (Isaiah 10:20), the people of the nations will be awe-struck. A changed people will appear from out of the furnace of suffering—a humble, honest and God-fearing people will emerge. Many will join the repentant people of Israel and settle with them in the land of Israel's forefathers.

"I will surely assemble all of you, O Jacob; I will gather the remnant of Israel; I will set them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in its pasture, a noisy multitude of men" (Micah 2:12).

The foreigner who return with the nations of Israel will choose the tribe where they wish to settle and within that tribe, they will be given land; there they will enjoy peace and protection. God's House of Prayer is for ALL nations.

"You are to distribute this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. You are to allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners who have settled among you and who have children. You are to consider them as native-born Israelites; along with you they are to be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. In whatever tribe the foreigner settles, there you are to give him his inheritance,' declares the Sovereign Lord" (Ezekiel 47:21-23).

The people of the thirteen nations of 21st century Israel, have not come to a true repentance today. To the people of the nations of the world, don't wait for them. Enter through Joseph's gate today and join the remnant of Israel who obey and love the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Salvation is given through Jesus Christ to the whole world. No righteous person from any race or nation is excluded. A great multitude of people from all nations, tribes, and languages will repent during the Great Tribulation. They will cry out in a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb" (Revelation 7:10). Don't delay, like the majority of the thirteen tribes. Come boldly before the Almighty God in prayer through Jesus Christ and He will hear you. You are His dearly beloved.
