

The END will COME

The world is at war. Many still do not see it. They may point to different countries, but the truth, all of mankind is at war right now. Coming out of the shadows are the puppets—the people allied with the Cabal/Deep State/ Illuminati who are attacking mankind. They want to depopulate the world so they have full control. They believe they are entitled to rule over mankind because they are a special species of the ruling class. Dark times are coming for mankind and great distress.

War in heaven will bring Satan’s war on earth into full force and completely into the open. The final king of the beastly coalition will be given Satan’s throne, power and great authority to try and accomplish what Satan failed to do. The final king will put all of his military effort into taking over God’s law courts in heaven to introduce laws that will pardon Satan and lift the final king and his coalition above the law so he can change the timeline of God’s plan. Daniel recorded, “He will speak against the Most High and oppress his holy people and try to change the set times and the laws” (Daniel 7:25).

The final king, the “little horn” of Daniel, will rise from nothing to become very powerful, even appearing to be successful in his attack against Jesus Christ and God’s army in heaven. Daniel recorded terrifying and distressful events foretold thousands of years ago. God told Daniel to close the book, but today, it has been opened and the ancient pages are shedding light on geo-political events, the secrets in every-day technology and an economic structure that can divide and categorize people into classes. Terrible times are coming. It will be like no other time ever on earth, nor ever to occur again.

Jesus said, “You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, [Russia, Ukraine, NATO, USA and their Western allies, Sudan, China and Taiwan, Africa, the Middle East] but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation shall rise against nation [war on earth], and kingdom against kingdom [war in heaven]” (Matthew 24:6-7). The end of this age will not close with warring nations on earth and warring kingdoms in heaven. God Almighty is in charge. His plan cannot be thwarted.

A legal witness must go to the whole world first, then the end will come. Mankind will be without excuse. They will be brought before the courts of Almighty God.

“And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come” (Matthew 24:14).

Judgement will also be upon the evil, heavenly rebels on earth who at that time will have become completely wicked. It will occur during the latter part of their reign (Daniel 8:23) when a great religious revival of God’s word is being trumpeted by His people. God will pour out His Holy Spirit and the world will learn about their Creator—their loving, heavenly Father and His saving plan for them. The beastly coalition on earth will oppose God’s people and do all that they can to deceive the nations into their believing lies and false promises.

Jesus said, “So when you see standing in the holy place, ‘the abomination that causes desolation,’ spoken of through the prophet Daniel—let the reader understand... For then there will be great distress, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equaled again. If those days had not been cut short, no one would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened” (Matthew 24:15, 21-22).

The great distress occurs during the latter reign of the “stern-faced king,” the “master of intrigue,” the “little horn” recorded by Daniel. He is desperate to gain control, panicking for his life and raging against the saints who are uncovering his deceit and propaganda.

Who is this king that will rise, increase in power to become the last world ruler on earth? The Bible provides many details about this mystery character.

THE REBEL LEADER THAT BRINGS THE END OF THE AGE

To identify this powerful leader as he rises, a study of where his power begins is critical. It would appear that his story begins when war breaks out in heaven. “Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back” (Revelation 12:7).

Can we know what that war looks like in heaven?

THE BACK-STORY

A back-story is essential. In Daniel 8, God uses imagery to describe two warring kingdoms. The ram and goat recorded in Daniel 8 are the heavenly rulers over their kingdoms called Persia and Greece. Their existence is evident when Gabriel, the archangel, is withheld by the powerful prince of the Persian kingdom. This prince of Persia is a spiritual being ruling over the kingdom of Persia in heaven and on earth. Gabriel is freed from the grip of this powerful prince by Michael, a chief prince serving under Jesus, the high commander of God’s army in heaven. After a 21-day delay, Gabriel reached Daniel to explain what will happen to God’s people in the future. Conflicts in heaven are taking place, likely since the creation of mankind on earth.

The Persian kingdom on earth rose to superpower status, but fell under the force of Alexander the Great of Greece. That battle on earth mirrored challenges of supremacy in heaven. Gabriel left Daniel in a hurry saying, “Do you know why I have come? Soon I must return to fight against the spirit prince of the kingdom of Persia, and after that the spirit prince of the kingdom of Greece will come” (Daniel 10:20). The New Living Translation adds the adjective “spirit” prince to clarify where these princes reside. Alexander the Great won against all odds because the spirit prince of Greece was stronger than the spirit prince of Persia.

Alexander the Great was influenced by the spirit prince of Greece. Into the 21st century, mankind disregards any existence of spirit beings or a creation in heaven. They will seek to understand history through earthly logic.

History.com states, “Whether motivated by Greek pride or the spoils of imperial conquest, Alexander picked up where his father left off and marched into Persia in 334 BC, where his army of 50,000 would be tested against the largest and best-trained fighting force in the known world.”

“It’s estimated that King Darius III of Persia was in command of a total of 2.5 million soldiers spread across his vast empire. At the heart of the Persian army were the “Immortals,” an elite regiment of 10,000 infantrymen whose numbers never changed. When a man was killed, another rose to take his place. The Persian cavalry and archers were also legendary, as were the scythe chariots which cut down enemy infantry with their razor-sharp wheel hubs.”

<https://www.history.com/news/alexander-the-great-defeat-persian-empire>

Alexander the Great was a savvy military strategist. He overthrew the Persians and took full control of world power.

In Daniel 8, this history is recorded using specific language and imagery of a two-horned ram to reflect the double leadership of the Medes and Persians.

“I looked up, and there before me was a ram with two horns... One of the horns was longer than the other but grew up later” (Daniel 8:3). This imagery points to one leader being stronger than the other for a time.

“Suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between his eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground. He came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and charged at him in great rage. I saw him attack the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering his two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against him; the goat knocked him to the ground and trampled on him, and none could rescue the ram from his power. The goat became very great, but at the height of his power his large horn was broken off, and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven” (Daniel 8:5-8).

THE RAM

God's use of the Medo-Persian empire imaged as a ram provides succulent details to the story. A ram is a male sheep. This points to national leadership in the use of the male gender and sheep pointing to a leadership style of following a level of righteousness. Cyrus the Great was mentioned in the Old Testament 150 years before he was born to be a servant of the Hebrew God.

"I will raise up Cyrus in righteousness, and I will make all his ways straight. He will rebuild My city and set My exiles free, but not for payment or reward, says the LORD of Hosts" (Isaiah 45:13).

The large horns of a ram curl downwards pointing to leadership on earth—in this case, righteous leadership under the guidance of Almighty God. King Darius witnessed the power of the Hebrew God who protected Daniel when he was unjustly thrown into the lions' den.

"Then King Darius wrote to the people of every nation and language throughout the land: "May your prosperity abound. I hereby decree that in every part of my kingdom, men are to tremble in fear before the God of Daniel: For He is the living God, and He endures forever; His kingdom will never be destroyed, and His dominion will never end. He delivers and rescues; He performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on the earth, for He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions" (Daniel 6:25-27).

The honour King Darius and King Cyrus demonstrated toward Almighty God is reflected in the statue in Daniel of arms and shoulders of the precious metal, silver. King Nebuchadnezzar was awarded the head of gold because he submitted to Almighty God after his trial and also decreed worldwide worship of the God of the Hebrews. Unfortunately, King Nebuchadnezzar's grandson did not continue in his grandfather's footsteps.

God, then gave the Medes and Persians victory over the world-ruling power of Babylon on earth when King Nebuchadnezzar's grandson disrespected Him. God's uses imagery when He is describing matters in heaven. Mountain rams live in the highest places on earth. This points to a residence in the highest level of government. God consistency uses the imagery of mountains as the highest level of government; hills image state or provincial levels of government.

THE GOAT

God uses the image of a goat to reveal several key features of importance. The large horns of goat point to beings having authority. Mountain goats are the largest mammal to live in alpine and subalpine environments. Their habitat indicates that these leaders imaged as a goat hold positions at the highest level of government. They are sure-footed pointing to successful movements due to inherent abilities.

God uses the image of a goat in the ceremony that takes place on Yom Kippur/Day of Atonement. Two goats are selected imaging two leaders from God's highest level of government. One is the scapegoat cast out into the wilderness. That goat images Satan, the once guardian angel in the third heaven who is to blame for the sins of mankind. The second goat images Jesus Christ, the one sacrificed in payment for the sins of mankind.

In the case of Daniel, the goat with a prominent horn between his eyes (Daniel 8:5), is Alexander the Great, commander of the Greeks.

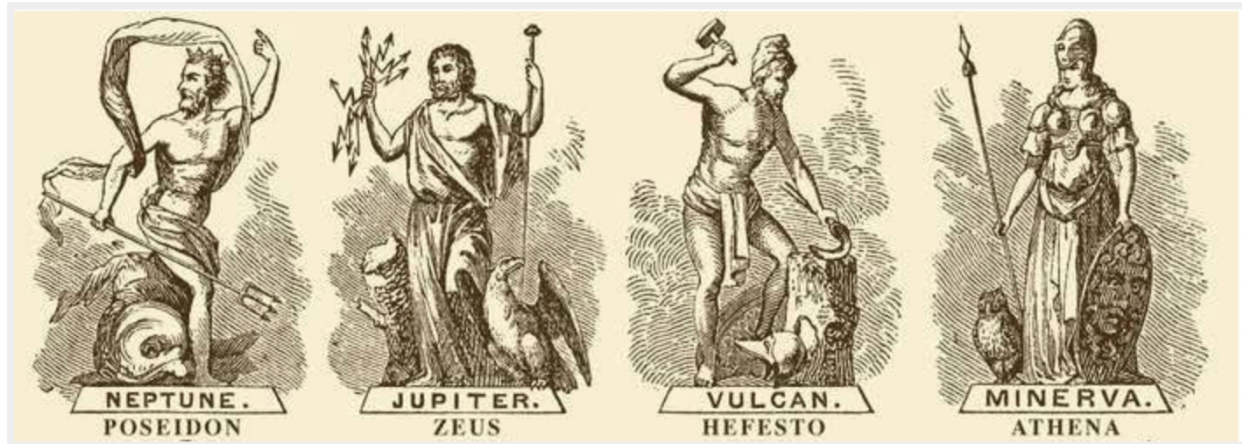

Still in his youth, Alexander the Great died of a mysterious illness at the age of 32 years. Like the imagery of the goat in Daniel 8, "at the height of his power his large horn was broken off, and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven. Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew in power to the south and to the east and toward the Beautiful Land."

"THE LITTLE HORN" RISING UP FROM ONE OF THE FOUR HORNS ON THE GOAT

This is where the story becomes interesting. From out of the Grecian empire, the "little horn" rises. Scripture states that a little horn rises from one of the four horns on the goat identified as Greece. Traditional Christian teaching assumes the leadership of Greece was fully passed onto Rome. But Rome embraced the Greek culture and by adopting their gods, they continued to serve under the heavenly rulers' kingship of Greece. The "little horn" who does so much destruction in the latter days comes from out of Greece imaged as the goat. Daniel did not record a third animal that would point to a leader from a different kingdom in heaven.

Zechariah recorded God Almighty's declaration to restore His people [both houses] and through them, He will overthrow the sons of Greece in the latter days. "I will use Judah as my bow and Israel as my arrow. I will take the people of Zion as my sword and attack the Greeks" (Zechariah 9:13 Contemporary English version).

Scripture does not indicate that Greece [on earth] in the latter days will be a force of contention. God is referring to the rogue heavenly rulers over the kingdom of Greece that bears the same name as the nation of Greece on earth. The Romans adopted and worshiped all of the gods of Greece. They gave these Greek gods Roman names.

<https://www.vecteezy.com/vector-art/103102-greek-gods>

God has not dealt with the heavenly rulers of Greece completely. The story of the gods ruling over nations on earth was common knowledge at one time. Working with the enemy, scholars mythicized the gods who once ruled over the nations.

GOD'S HEAVENLY COURT RULING OVER THE NATIONS AND GOD OVER JACOB'S DESCENDANTS

The back-story continues to be critical in order to understand Bible prophecy. God gave the members of His holy court in heaven an opportunity to apply their skilful legal knowledge, understanding and wisdom. He saw the people on earth going astray again after the flood. He decided to give His highly trained sons of God in His heavenly court rulership over mankind to guide them back onto the road of righteousness. This took place at the time of Babel when God divided mankind into different family with boundaries and different languages. God decided to participate in His plan to help mankind. He chose the descendants of Jacob as His "inheritance." God made Himself king over the descendants of Jacob.

"When the Most High assigned lands to the nations, when he divided up the human race, he established the boundaries of the peoples according to the number in his heavenly court. But the LORD's portion is His people, Jacob His allotted inheritance" (Deuteronomy 32:8-9).

Watching the members of His holy court fail and rebel choosing to join Satan was a painful experience for God. He wept. "On the day it [the heavenly prince ruling over Assyria] was brought down to the realm of the dead I covered the deep springs with mourning for it" (Ezekiel 31:15).

What happened before the flood, happened again. Power corrupts. God's creation cannot handle great power. Only the Son of God, Jesus Christ, has proven to handle absolute power humbly and righteously. He is the only heir of God's kingdom.

When the Apostle John recorded, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life" (John 3:16), he was referring to the Son not as His only Son, but His only heir. All of the first creation in heaven who are part of the God-family are sons of God. The Apostle Paul mirrored the story of God's only Heir through Abraham and his only son, Isaac. "By faith Abraham, when God tested him, offered Isaac as a sacrifice. He who had received the promises was about to sacrifice his one and only son" (Hebrews 11:17). Isaac was not Abraham's only son; he had a son through Hagar, Sarah's servant, named Ishmael. Abraham's only heir was designated by Almighty God to be Isaac, the son born from Sarah, a free woman, and Abraham, a free man—born free not through slavery. Through Christ's redemptive sacrifice, mankind can be reborn free from sin—to live as free people not as servants to fallen gods serving Satan.

Back-stories provide critical understanding to present and future events. War will break out in heaven again. Rebel princes over vast dominions in heaven have allied with Satan, will attempt to overpower Almighty God and Jesus Christ, the only heir to God's kingdom. The imagery in Daniel 8 continues the events leading up to the rise of the "little horn." "From out of the goat, came another horn, which started small but grew in power to the south and to the east and toward the Beautiful Land. It grew until it reaches the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them." The "little horn" can only be a spirit being who obtains rulership among the rebels in heaven. He will acquire so much power and strength that he will lead an army against "the host of the heavens"—God's army.

THE ENEMY OF MANKIND IS NOT MORTAL

This power grab begins when these heavenly rulers are completely wicked. This is a warning to mankind that there will be a time when these same wicked rulers will appear somewhat good.

"In the latter part of their reign, when rebels have become completely wicked, a stern-faced king, a master of intrigue, will arise. He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause astounding devastation and will succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty and the holy people. He will cause deceit to prosper, and he will consider himself superior. When they feel secure, he will destroy many and take his stand against the Prince of princes" (Daniel 8:23:25). The "mighty" is reference to heavenly warriors and the "holy people" are the saints.

The host of the heavens is God’s army in heaven. How could Almighty God allow some of His military to fall, to be thrown down to earth and trampled upon? God remains in charge. He allowed Jerusalem to fall in 70 AD. He allows falls to occur to strengthen the weak and to bring charges against all who are against Him. His plan is for a new heaven and a new earth, when all of the wicked are brought into judgement and destroyed. The present heaven and earth are merely temporary testing and training grounds. In heaven and on earth, “Some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time” (Daniel 11:35).

At times it can be difficult to differentiate when God is referring to events in heaven or on earth. The “little horn” and his forces can only be spiritual because a mortal cannot increase in power and authority to be successful at harming those in God’s army and throw them down to earth. Only a spiritual being is at play in this case. Daniel added, “It set itself up to be great as the Prince of the host; it took away the daily sacrifice from him, and the place of his sanctuary was brought low” (Daniel 8:11).

God will allow His enemy to walk through the front door, to catch them in the act, so He can legally subpoena them and bring upon them indisputable judgement. He remains Supreme always. Christ works with the Father undisturbed by the attempt of this “little horn” to gain control of heaven. “Because of rebellion, the host and the daily were given over to it” (Daniel 8:12).

The “host” is God’s army and the “regular” or “continual” are services performed by Jesus Christ in heaven. The word “sacrifice” is inserted in most of the translations to point to the type of regular and continual service performed that relates to forgiveness of sins will be stopped for a short duration. This type of service may be Christ’s daily service of intercession in heaven for the sins of mankind. God is cleaning out the swamp in heaven. Christ is watching to see who is for or against them. There are many bad characters at play who will use force and great determination to disregard truth, spread disinformation and discredit God’s word. The “little horn” will throw truth to the lowest level of creation—earth—as a display of his power and disgust in God’s law and His ways.

The “little horn” will be ecstatic with his success and he will “magnify himself above every god and will say unheard-of things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been determined must take place” (Daniel 11:36).

At the time God commands, “Michael, the great prince who protects His people, will stand up. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then” (Daniel 12:1). The Great Tribulation reaches a climax.

WAR BREAKS OUT IN HEAVEN BUT ENDS ON EARTH

War will break out in heaven, the great prince, Michael and his angels will fight against the dragon and his angels. Michael and his angels will be stronger and the dragon and his angels will be thrown down to earth out of heaven.

“The great dragon was hurled down—the ancient serpent called the devil or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him” (Revelation 12:9).

Those who do not know the scriptures well may not recognize the enemy when they arrive. The leader will declare himself to be Supreme. The Apostle Paul forewarned Judo-Christians of the arrival of the leader of the beastly coalition, “He opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sits in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God” (II Thessalonians 2:4 KJV).

God Almighty has never manifested Himself in mortal form. Jesus, the angel of the LORD, has manifested himself as a man in the Old Testament many times. Angels have manifested themselves as men in both the Old and New Testament. The Apostle Paul wrote, “Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it” (Hebrews 13:2).

During ancient times, there were frequent encounters with the spirit world on earth. They recognized angels. “Now the two angels arrived at Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of the city. When Lot saw them, he got up to meet them, bowed facedown” (Genesis 19:1).

Once Satan is thrown down to earth, his game plan is heightened and desperate. He gives up his throne, power and great authority (Revelation 13:2b) and gives it to the leader of the beastly coalition of once ten kings now seven because the “little horn,” their leader, will overthrow three of the ten kings who will be given rulership for just “one hour”. Satan’s time is short; he has been judged and sentenced. He now needs help from his coalition. He is the goalie who takes himself out of the game to give greater power to the remaining players.

On earth, great wonders by those claiming to be mankind's saviours will be performed that could deceive, if possible, even the very elect (Matthew 24:24). Could these wonders include a rebirth of an ancient god into a robust physical body?

The "little horn", the "ruler of Tyre", the "man of lawlessness", the "eighth king" could these titles point to one rebel? Is this a resurrected being? Recorded in Revelation, "There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for only a little while. The beast who once was, and now is not, is an eighth king. He belongs to the seven and is going to his destruction" (Revelation 17:10-11).

The eighth king suffers a mortal wound, and yet, he comes back to life. "One of the heads of the beast appeared to be mortally wounded. But the mortal wound was healed, and the whole world marveled and followed the beast" (Revelation 13:3). This eighth king is the beast who once was, and now is not, but will be in our near future.

Prophesied in Ezekiel, God proclaimed, "Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre... 'In the pride of your heart you say, "I am a god; I sit on the throne of a god in the heart of the seas.' But you are a man and not a god, though you think you are as wise as a god... By your great skill in trading you have increased your wealth, and because of your wealth your heart has grown proud... Because you think you are wise, as wise as a god, I am going to bring foreigners against you, the most ruthless of nations; they will draw their swords against your beauty and wisdom and pierce your shining splendor" (Ezekiel 28:2, 5-7).

The ruler of Tyre in Ezekiel is not fallen Lucifer as he is the king of Tyre. God uses the sea as imagery for the home of Wickedness. Land is the home of the righteous. Tyre is a sea port, the docking location for Wickedness, to trade with those on the land. Could the eighth king that once was, is not now, but will be, a resurrected being who is a hybrid of sorts, with the radiance of a spirit being and supernatural powers?

This being will have a "shining splendor", but it won't protect him from death. "They will bring you down to the pit, and you will die a violent death in the heart of the seas. Will you then say, "I am a god," in the presence of those who kill you? You will be but a man, not a god, in the hands of those who slay you. You will die the death of the uncircumcised at the hands of foreigners" (Ezekiel 28:8-10).

When God declared, "You will be but a man, not a god, in the hands of those who slay you," He is saying that this being will be easily killed; he will not have the full power of a spirit being, a god. This type of resurrection will tempt godless people into believing they can obtain eternal life through alien technology. This character was likely never a royal member of God's family in heaven. Daniel suggested this when he wrote, "He will be succeeded by a contemptible person who has not been given the honor of royalty... With flattery he will corrupt those who have violated the covenant, but the people who know their God will firmly resist him” (Daniel 11:21, 32).

The ruler of Tyre is a chip off the old block, the king of Tyre—fallen Lucifer, who too, has a shining splendor. To the king of Tyre, God said, “You were a model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. You were in Eden, the garden of God... You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained you... You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you... I expelled you, O guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones. Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor. So, I threw you to earth...” (Ezekiel 28:12-13, 14-15, 16b-17).

Satan’s splendor will also disappear. “But you will be brought down to Sheol, to the lowest depths of the Pit. Those who see you will stare; they will ponder your fate: ‘Is this the man who shook the earth and made the kingdoms tremble...’” (Isaiah 14:15-16). This scripture points to the mortalization of Satan. His decayed state is already set and the ruler of Tyre will follow him.

WICKEDNESS IS LOSING, SO THEY WORK TO CHANGE SET TIMES AND LAWS

Plotting and scheming, Satan needs the beastly coalition to get control and change God’s law, reverse the judgement and pardon his sentence. “The ten horns are ten kings who will come from this kingdom [rogue kingdom in heaven]. After them another king will arise, different from the earlier ones; he will subdue three kings. He will speak against the Most High and oppress his saints and try to change the set times and the laws” (Daniel 7:24-25).

The “little horn” will try to change God’s decree, His law and His timed-plan. God decreed the time of wrath to be a specific, limited time period. The “little horn” is successful only until the time of wrath is completed (Daniel 11:36). Their time is short and they seek to extend it for all eternity. He will attempt to establish laws that favour him, Satan and the fallen angels and change God’s decrees so that they are all above the law so they can escape judgement. God has bound Himself under His own law, which He obeys fully and completely.

The Apostle Paul knew God’s unbreakable commitment to His law. It is impossible for Him to sin. “So God has given both his promise and his oath. These two things are unchangeable because it is impossible for God to lie. Therefore, we who have fled to him for refuge can have great confidence as we hold to the hope that lies before us” (Hebrews 6:18-19).

Regardless of their attempt to overthrow the law of God and change the timing of His plan, the outcome is conclusive. “But the court will sit, and his power will be taken away and completely destroyed forever” (Daniel 7:26).

It can be expected that events on earth during the reign of terror by the “eighth king”, “the little horn”, “the ruler of Tyre” is the great “Antichrist”. His resurrection will deceive many into believing that he is a saviour. Carnal mankind wants to reject Jesus as their redemptive Saviour. The “shining splendor” of this trickster will sway people into desiring an inferior body to what Almighty God is offering humbled, repentant mankind. Many show-men will come forward to offer mankind some form of life-extending science in opposition to the humble, loving Son of God, who before the foundation of this world, agreed to die for the sins of mankind while they were still obnoxious sinners.

False teachers from within God's people have rejected Jesus, the Messiah and teaching the unthinkable that Almighty God is not our loving Father in heaven. "Children, it is the last hour, and just as you have heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen, by which we know that it is the last hour. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us. But they went out, in order that it might be shown that all of them are not of us. And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know. I have not written to you because you lack knowledge of the truth, but because you have it, and because no lie comes from the truth. Who is the liar, if it is not the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, who denies the Father and the Son" (I John 2:18-22).

"For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess Jesus Christ coming in the flesh. This person is the deceiver and the antichrist!" (II John 7)

The beastly coalition that will arrive on earth to spread their hatred of Almighty God and His Son. Those who stand by God and Jesus Christ will also be hated, mocked, ridiculed, persecuted and killed. The beastly coalition will exude a toxic, contagious dark hatred against all who oppose them. Jesus said that the wars, famines and earthquakes in the wake of the reign of terror will merely be the birth pains of what will come. "You will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me. At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. Because of the increase in wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come" (Matthew 24:9-14).

THE GOSPEL WILL GO OUT TO ALL THE WORLD AS A TESTIMONY, THEN THE END WILL COME

A bright light will shine on all the lies, and twists in the truth by these so very wicked, rulers thrown out of heaven. The gospel of God's kingdom, His holy, royal, ruling family will be preached to everyone on earth. Their destiny was always to become a vast kingdom of holy, royal priests—experts in righteousness. This great honour has only been offered to mankind on earth. Only they can come into perfection through the suffering caused by the hands of Wickedness. Mankind is a special creation, planned before creation to hold important positions within God's eternal kingdom. This great truth will be uncovered, no longer hidden by the evil heavenly rulers, powers and principalities and the nations will bend their knee to Almighty God when they see God's people living God's way of peace and love. They will marvel and humbly ask to be taught the ways of God, their Great and Loving Creator.

“In the last days the mountain of the house of the LORD will be established as the chief of the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and the peoples will stream to it. And many nations will come and say: ‘Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us His ways, so that we may walk in His paths.’ For the law will go forth from Zion and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem” (Micah 4:1-2).

Notice, again, God's imagery and use of “mountain” to describe God's highest level of government and His government will be the chief government over heaven and earth. The nations of earth will bend their knee to serve their God, their Creator.

The war of good against evil has already begun on earth. It will surface more and more into the open, but as positive as the international “white hat” alliance profess, it won't be them who will crush the “deep state/cabal”. They will work hard and accomplish much to their credit, but it will be Jesus Christ only, who will totally crush the monster represented in the statue recorded in Daniel into fine dust. “While you were watching, a rock was cut out, but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them” (Daniel 2:34). This image reveals the spiritual war at play and that only the great King of kings and Lord of lords will be able to permanently take out the rogue, powerful spiritual beings pictured in the statue of Daniel.

King David knew the final outcome—gathering of all of mankind under the allegiance of the great Almighty God. “All the nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord; they will bring glory to your name” (Psalm 86:9) and “All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD. All the families of the nations will bow down before Him” (Psalm 22:27).

The Apostle Paul prophesied the final task of Jesus Christ. “Then, when all things are under his authority, the Son will put himself under God's authority, so that God, who gave his Son authority over all things, will be utterly supreme over everything everywhere” (I Corinthians 15:28).

God wins! His plan cannot be thwarted. He reigns supreme. He is the Great God and there is no one like Him!
