NOUNS

Unit 1.1 pg.47

1. Our group(s) is planning a trip to New York. (pl)
2. The fountain (s) in Grant Park is lovely at night.
3. A crowd(s) has formed outside the department store. (s)
4. The class (s) donated their time to the senior citizens' (pl) center.
5. A company (s) of actors (pl) entertained the children.
6. Sheep (s) grazed on the grassy plain while tourists (pl) took pictures. (pl)
7. The soccer team (s) will practice after the softball team. (s)
8. The greenhouse (s) was filled with orchids (pl) and irises. (pl)
9. This road(s) follows the shoreline(s) for five miles. (pl)
10. We saw surveys(pl), covered wagons (pl), and streetcars(pl) at the transportation museum. (pl)
11. The art league (s) sponsored a competition (s) for high school (s) students. (pl)
12. Natalie(s) and Suzanne (s) often watch the evening news. (pl)

Unit 1.2 pg.49

1. The vast(com) Atlantic(prop) separates Europe (prop) from America. (prop)
2. After the Revolution(prop), the United States (prop) attracted more and more people (com)
3. Most of the new arrivals (com) settled in New England. (prop)
4. Many people (com) chose to live near the water. (com)
5. Area merchants (com) knew that money was to be made in trade.
6. Residents (com) seaports, such as Salem(prop), Massachusetts (prop), built many ships.(com)
7. Americans(com) built their sailing craft (prop) with pride.
8. Designers (com) created many new ships. (com)
9. These new ships (com) could sail as far as China.(prop)
10. Young people (com) were attracted to the adventure of the oceans. (com)
11. Nathaniel Brown Palmer (prop) was born in the late eighteenth century. (prop)
12. His father(com) designed and built ships. (com)
13. Young Nat (prop) grew up with knowledge of the sea. (com)
14. He(com) became a captain (com) at the age of eighteen.
15. Three years later he(com) made a discovery.