President's Corner

As we welcome Winter Break, may it bring you a sense of peace and calm. Looking back at the year 2023, we take pride in the victories we achieved: a remarkable 8.5% increase in COLA, full payment of Kaiser benefits, and the removal of service caps that had long restricted us. We also witnessed the appointment of new union leaders and observed improvements in Special Education language. However, as we step into the year 2024, we face significant hurdles that require our unwavering solidarity and collaboration. As we head into mediation PEA is awaiting the California Public Employment Relations Board for our mediator. We must come together and organize, starting immediately. Keep an eye out for the upcoming PEA Town Hall Meeting and Strike Vote. For more information, please visit the PEA website: PEATEACHERS.ORG

In solidarity,
Celia Medina-Owens
PEA President
