

I.introduction: Kayan Securities, Inc. is registered with the SEC (Securities and Exchange Commission) as a broker dealer and is a member of the FINRA (Financial Industry Regulatory Authority) and the SIPC (Securities Investor Protection Corporation).Kayan Securities, Inc. is not an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to know to understand these differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/CRS which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

II. Types of customer relationships and services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer brokerage services to retail investors: 1.account type recommendation: There are many account types: brokerage accounts like cash account, margin account, option account, or retirement accounts like IRA, SEP, 401 K account, and rollover or assets transfer. We hear from you about yourself and recommend the proper account type for you. There are no minimum account size or investment size requirements.

2. principal brokerage services: Principal brokerage services are execution services, including buying and selling securities based on your instruction, whether or not we offer recommendation to you.

3. securities products recommendation: We understand first the securities product, its potential risks, rewards, and costs of the recommended transaction or strategy. Then, we consider your investment profile like your age, other investments, financial situation or needs, tax status, investment objective, past experience, investment time horizon, liquidity needs, risk tolerance, and any other information you may disclose to us. Finally, we decide whether the recommendation is in your best interest, then we recommend. But you make the ultimate decision regarding to buy, sell, or hold any recommended investments. Almost all securities products in the markets are available(little or no limitations). But, there are no proprietary products.

4. account monitoring services: Kayan Securities is not an investment adviser formed by the Advisors Act. But with an agreement with you, we can incidentally provide investment discretion and account monitoring services. But, we do not receive any special compensation therefor.

1) Investment Discretion: We can exercise a discretionary power in your account if you give prior written authorization to us. We review the discretionary account at frequent intervals to prevent transactions which are excessive in size or frequency in view of the financial resources and the character of the account.

2) Account monitoring:

a) Agreed-upon limited monitoring: We may agree in writing to monitor your account on a periodic basis for purposes of providing buy, sell, or hold recommendation. But this is not our standard service.

b) Voluntary monitoring: We voluntarily, and without any agreement with you, can review the holdings in your account for purposes of whether to make investment recommendations.

Additional information: The securities and transactions we recommend or make available in your account may be limited for a variety of reasons, including by our policies, procedures and applicable regulations.

III. Fees, costs, conflicts of interest, and standard of conduct

What fees will I pay?

You pay commission and fee. Commission range for stocks, bonds, and ETFs is from minimum $0.99 to maximum 5% of transaction amounts depending on the expense of executing the order and the value of any service the investment professional may have rendered by reason of his experience in and knowledge of such security and the market therefor. For mutual funds and private placements, commission amount is specified in the prospectus or the offering circular. For options, the commission rate is usually higher. Fee includes documents mailing fee plus additional SIPC insurance fee, and fractional SEC fee when you sell. If you use margin loan, you pay margin loan interest. There is a custodian fee for retirement accounts. There is no fee or charge for account maintenance. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

--Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have? When we provide you with a recommendation, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the recommendations we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means: You would be charged more when there are more trades in your accounts. Therefore, we may have an incentive to encourage you trade often. But, at Kayan, there is no product-related incentives to RRs .

For more conflicts of interests, please go to: <https://kayansecurities.com/products-%26-services>

--How might your conflicts of interest affect me, how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money? They make money from only commissions generated from transactions in their customers' accounts. The portion of commissions paid to RRs can increase based on the total commissions they generated. There is no non-cash payment to RRs at Kayan.
